May 26—Dramatic demonstration in guests of Employed Workers' conference. May 27—Commemoration and presentation of Joneses.

The Central Park Mothers' League will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Central Park school. A number of model exhibits followed by a song from Mrs. P. M. Prichard will be part of the program, after which an informal reception will be held, with ice cream and cake served in the bandroom. The meeting has been extended to include an opportunity to attend.

Miss May A. Hustedt of Sheldon, Neb., has organized a society of her grandmother's family and has just received it from the authorities. The title is "Sister Lorraine and the Brothers of Grandfather Armstrong Hustedt." For five and one-half years Mrs. Hustedt has worked abroad continuously in gathering fragments, making visits to places where she could be engaged, reading in the libraries of Congress at Washington, D. C., at the Newberry Library, in Chicago, reading and writing with other writers of fiction interest in the country over the ocean in England, Va., and elsewhere. Later publications found the largest fragment of 100 pages in both the offices of Congress and the Newberry Library. It was accepted in 1914 by Mr. Samuel H. Doggett of Boston, Mass. The frontispiece shows eleven coats of arms; it gives family history prior and after the settlement in America. The Massachusetts line began with John Doggett, a friend of the Winthropes, who settled in Salem, Mass., in 1638. The founder of Mrs. Hostetter's line of the family was Rev. Benjamin Doggett of Virginia, an Episcopal rector, who founded White Chapel church in Lancaster county in 1670. The compiler of that history brings this line down to her grandfather and gives his military record, but does not mention any of his descendants, as she has taken up the Virginia line especially.

Armstrong Doggett's father was James William Doggett, a revolutionary soldier from Culpeper, Va., and his father was George Doggett and was commissioned a lieutenant in 1740. The history will be placed in the library of congress, the Newberry library, the state historical library of Nebraska, the public libraries of Hillsboro, O., Culpeper, Va., and others.

Mrs. Hostetter is one of the best known club women in the state.

The Benson Baptist Missionary circle will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Schneider Thursday. Mrs. A. Sharpe is leader of the program.

The Benson Woman's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hodder for the last domestic science program of the year. 14 was voted to place the paper on "Foods and Household Management" by Mrs. J. N. Norton in the state repository. Mrs. C. A. Tracy was elected delegate and Mrs. W. A. Wilcox as alternate to the state convention.

A committee consisting of Madams M. Armstrong, G. H. Tuttle, N. H. Tyson and J. T. Pickard was appointed to plan the annual picnic to be held in June.

The meeting of the Business Women's council will be held Tuesday by Rev. E. F. Fant of the Swedish Mission. The women of the First Memorial church will serve luncheon between the hours of 12 and 2.

The committee women's council will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday in the court house, immediately after the close of the business women's luncheon meeting, which will be about 2 o'clock.

The Sereno club will be entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. D. Gearhart. Mrs. G. T. Lindley will read a paper on "Mafcon" after the luncheon.

OPERA TRAVEL WEEKLY Around the world with the Orpheum Circuit's Motion Picture Photographers.

Prices: Matinee, gallery, 10c; best seats (except Saturday and Sunday), 25c. Nights, 10c, 25c, 50c, and 75c.

The musical tabloid, "Maidens of the Movies," heads the bill at the Empress theater for the first half of the week commencing Sunday, May 7. Angelo Arimonti and brothers, sensational acrobats, will offer something new in acrobatic work. Wright and Davis, in comedy skating and talking, are unusually good. While Joe Reed, the street musician, offers something new in popular singing and playing.

The season at the Orpheum will close Saturday, May 20. An attractive bill is promised for that week. Grace La Rue, the international favorite, will be a stelling feature and Mme. Eleonora de Camerer, the prima donna, will be another stellar feature. Grace La Rue is a great favorite in the halls of London and she divides her time between the English capital and America. She is a most versatile singing comedienne. Mme. Camerer has been prima donna of most of the European grand opera companies. She was leading prima donna with the Metropolitan, the Manhatttan and the Chicago Grand Opera companies.

The claim is made for this year's offering of the "Great Star and Garter Show" from the magnificent Star and Garter theater, Chicago, which will be presented at the popular Gayety the current week that it is the "greatest ever." The stars and near-stars include Don Clark, Bert Rose, James Coughlin, Jess Welsh, Walter Wolff, Richard Anderson, Willie Colini, Margaret Lee, Jacqueline Tallman and a chorus for which great elation are made as to beauty, ability to wear the big array of costumes and the faculty of doing more than looking pretty. For the exploitation of this aggregation the Star and Garter show has secured a new musical comedy, "At Saratoga Springs," and "A Night in a Harem." This show also has a wonder-olio, "The Great Deluge," the one-act comedy by Richard Warner, is to be presented by Claire Vincent, capably supported by Frank H. Gardner and Walter R. Ross. Murray Bennett's singing of comic songs and humorous monologue single him out as an entertainer of especial merit. A novelty in the art of cycling is to be contributed by Dupree and Dupree. Their performance with the unicycle is different from anything previously seen. For its exclusive display of motion pictures the Orpheum Travel Weekly will show pictures of the brand new four-act motion picture ever produced, Ethel Woodrow, "The Zeppelin Girl;" Walter Woodrow, the minstrel bass, and Margaret Lee, the happy soprano. Today's matinee starts at 2 o'clock. Ladies' matinee, daily, 2 p.m., starting tomorrow. Beginning next Saturday night, May 15, the Gayety will be given over to a whole week's display of the brand new four-act motion picture of the imminable Charlie Chaplin in his travesty on "Carmen," entitled "Throwing the Bull." This picture has never been seen outside of New York and Chicago, where it is now showing.

For the last half, George Lee and girls in "At the Golf Links" will head the bill. Gray and Graham offer a comedy military satire, "At the Fort," which is amusing. Buck brothers, the "Shubie Boys Spilling the Beans," will offer a singing act, while Jean Irwin, singing comedienne, will close the bill.

"Realization," drama, and the comedies "Counterfeit Love" and "Sally's Smiling Spirit" will be the movie offering for the first half. For the last half will be the unusual photo drama "A Broken Genius" and the comedies "The Traitor" and the "Bookworm's Bleeding Blunder."

The North Bros. Perpetual Stock company announces "East Lynne" for the last half of the week.
