

HIGH STUDENTS IN SHAKESPEARE PLAY

Three Local High Schools to Unite in Giving Production at the Brandeis Theater.

PROLOGUE BY COMPETITION

Students of the three local high schools will celebrate the Shakespearean tercentenary Saturday afternoon, May 20, by giving a Shakespearean production at the Brandeis theater under the direction of Miss Mary Irene Wallace.

Popular prices will admit to the performance, 200 seats being placed on sale at 25 cents and the remainder of the house at 10 cents. "The small charge is made only to pay for the costumes and the cost of putting on the play," said Miss Jeannette McDonald of Central High school faculty, who is heading the play committee.

The costumes are all being made by high school girls, assisted by the teachers, in the sewing room at Central High school. Forty costumes were made last Saturday and an equal number was completed this Saturday.

The competition for a prologue to the performance, as announced several weeks ago, closed May 6. Miss McDonald is already in receipt of several prologues and is anticipating a number more before Wednesday.

Following the prologue the entertainment will consist of a pantomime, in which Shakespeare's mother is telling a fairy story of Mab and Robin Goodfellow to the boy, Shakespeare. The boy finally falls asleep and the muses of Nature, Drama and Music come in and endow him.

Shakespeare's Dreams, in three scenes—Scene 1—"Midsummer Night's Dream." A one-act arrangement, with chorus and dances. High school of Commerce. Scene 2—"As You Like It." A one-act arrangement, with chorus and solo singing of some of Shakespeare's lyrics. South High school. Scene 3—"The Tempest." One-act arrangement, dance of reapers, mermaids, attendants of Ceres, autumn, rainbow. Central High school.

Final Tableau—All characters taking part in the above three scenes grouped around Shakespeare. Reading of John Ford's tribute to Shakespeare.

When Bellevue Students Took a "Sneak"

ACADEMY OF SCIENCE MEMBERS PLAN VISIT HERE

The members of the Nebraska Academy of Science will visit Bellevue college Saturday, May 13, on their annual excursion in the interests of science. On that day the majority of the party will make the trip from Lincoln in the morning.

The visitors will be the guests of Bellevue college students and faculty at the noon luncheon in the college dining hall.

The remainder of their time will be spent tramping through the Fontenelle forest reserve north of Bellevue.

Dr. Sheldon of the state university has stated in his correspondence with Acting President W. E. Nichol that from thirty to fifty men will make the trip. All arrangements had been made last year to visit the reserve, but inclement weather prevented.

Whatever may be your need, a Bee Want Ad will get it for you.

ELKS PLAN FOR BIG REUNION IN JUNE

Omaha Lodge Issues State-Wide Invitation for "Three Purple Days."

THOUSANDS ARE EXPECTED

"Three Purple Days" and something doing all the time.

Such is the pledge stronger than a promise which accompanies the invitation extended by the Omaha lodge of Elks, No. 39, to all lodges and members and their families in the state to come to the June reunion.

The purple days are June 12, 13, 14, and the place, Omaha.

For the first time since the state association of Elks lodges was organized the annual meeting will be held in Omaha. The association comprises sixteen lodges, with a membership of 2,000. It is proposed to make the association meeting the nucleus of a reunion of Nebraska Elks and their families and provide the visitors with all the hospitality and entertainments that can be crowded into the days and evenings.

Committee Plan Details.

Means to finance the reunion is already ready on hand and seven committees are at work planning various details.

These committees hold a joint meeting in the lodge rooms Friday evening and discussed the work on hand. The arrangements outlined contemplate a reception at the lodge, automobile rides, an outing at one of the parks, a flag day observance, a visit to the parking houses on the South side, chaperoned shopping tour for women visitors and a dinner and dance at one of the golf clubs. Street decorations are also planned and special night illuminations of the Elks' clubhouse and the adjacent block.

The committee in charge of the reunion are:

General Arrangements—Charles D. Beaton, chairman; E. Buckingham, F. W. Judson, G. F. West, Gould Dietz, C. E. Black, E. F. Hralley.
