

Nebraska DEMS SEEK TO COMFORT SELVES

Efforts to Find Solace in Primary Returns Do Not Meet with Success.

FIGURES WITH REPUBLICANS (From a Staff Correspondent.)

Another condition which appears to give state house democrats courage is that a majority of the nominees of the republican party come from Douglas and Lancaster counties.

Had Lancaster republicans stood by their candidates for governor as Douglas county stood by its candidates the result might have been different.

Baby Elephant Seen on the Lot When Circus Spends Sunday in Omaha

LITTLE 4-YEAR-OLD MARY SWEET AND "LITTLE MIRACLE," THE 163-POUND BABY OF SELLS-FLOTO CIRCUS.

The circus is 'n town'. American youth—adults, too, if they'll admit it—have thrilled at the magic of these words for generations and generations.

Nations may rise and fall; great public questions may occupy the greater part of the limelight; the movies may make their bid for popularity, but the arrival of a circus, be it in village, town or city, never loses the power of its enchantment.

The big top and all its family of smaller tops, in themselves a distinctive American institution, swooped down upon Omaha yesterday morning.

It was Sunday, and according to a time-honored custom in the realm of the "big top," the day of rest for the Sells-Floato show.
