LOPES RALLY AND WIN IN THE NINTH

Rourkes Perish When Hinchman Clouts Pill in Nose and Scores Three.

LINCOLN TAKES THE SERIES

LINCOLN, Neb., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)—A ninth-inning rally, with two out and three men on bases, ended when Harry Hinchman swung his war club and whacked the goldsmith into deep right field and scored all three runners, giving Lincoln the game and a clean sweep of the series with Omaha by a 7 to 4 score.

The count stood 3 and 1 on Hinchman and Merz had to groove the next ball. Even at that Manager Marty Krug played some pretty clever base ball. Lou North had been breezing along in great style for eight innings when he slipped. The Ducklings chalked up two in the eighth by virtue of North's unsteadiness and then jammed the bases in the ninth with two out. Hinchman, a dangerous hitter alway, had been easy for Merz earlier in the series and Marty trotted him out. The long blow broke up the ball game.

The Rourkes got what looked to be a safe lead in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings, principally by the hard hitting of Kilduff, who kicked in with two doubles and drove three runs over the plate. The Lopes had previously gathered off of North in the third inning. In the eighth they raised their total to four. The ninth saw the finish of Marty's gang.

Omaha outhit and outfielded the Ducklings, but North's generosity gave them the ball game. Score:

BOSTON HUMBLES TRIBE OF INDIANS

Red Sox Win from Cleveland with Aid of Strong Wind, Six to Five.

GAME LASTS TEN INNINGS

BOSTON, May 11.—The Boston Americans defeated Cleveland, 6 to 5, in a ten-inning contest today, a strong wind working in favor of the home team. In the final inning, with men on bases, Barry hit what started to be a high foul to the left of the plate, but the wind carried it into the fair ground, and O'Neil, failing to make the catch, Hoblitzel scored the winning run. The wind also assisted in stretching singles into extra base hits. Three of Cleveland's runs came in the sixth inning on two singles, a double and a triple. Score:

All Nations Carry Extra Players to Fill Private Car

The All Nations, who are scheduled to play the clever Brandeis stores aggregation, Saturday and Sunday, at Rourke park, is considered the premier attraction of all road clubs. In addition to the regular team it is necessary to carry four extra players each season to enable them to get the railroads to handle their private car, Jeannette, which requires twenty full fare tickets.

Earl Morse, third baseman of the Lincoln Western League team, and Art Smith, pitcher for the Kansas City American association Blues, are both former members of the All Nations. Curtis Wheat, brother of the famous Zack, of Brooklyn, is with them this season and gives promise of developing into a great player.

Morrie Olson, the Brandeis stores star slabman, pitching for David City last Sunday, was defeated by the All Nations, with Donaldson, pitching, by a score of 7 to 0. Morrie says "Donaldson hasn't got a thing more than he ever had—but that's enough."

Eleven High Schools in Meet at Iowa City Saturday Afternoon

IOWA CITY, Ia., May 11.—(Special.)—West Des Moines and Davenport high schools are doped to fight it out for first place Saturday in the ninth annual interscholastic invitation field meet for Iowa high schools to be put on by the university. Iowa City and Cedar Rapids are conceded a place near the front, but are not regarded as possible championship winners.

Two records are in danger of falling at the meet. Osborne of Iowa City is expected to pole vault in the vicinity of eleven feet to break the present record of ten feet two inches held by Fife of Anamosa. Hampton of Ottumwa will certainly lower his own mark of 2:06 in the half mile run if given good weather and a good track.

The following high schools are entered to participate in the meet: Cedar Rapids, Davenport, Dexter, Fonda, Iowa City, Marion, Muscatine, Ottumwa, Waukon, West Des Moines and West Liberty. North Des Moines was entered, but has withdrawn and will not compete.

MARTY O'TOOLE IS BOUGHT BY OMAHA

Famous Hurler Who Was Once Sold for $22,500 Is Secured by Rourke.

ALSO GETS PITCHER BRUCK

Marty O'Toole, whose sale from the St. Paul club to the Pittsburgh Pirates for the immense sum of $22,500, startled the entire base ball world, is now a member of the Omaha base ball club.

Pa Rourke purchased O'Toole from the Columbus American association club at Kansas City yesterday and arrives in Omaha this morning at 7 o'clock with the hurler in tow.

Rourke also secured Pitcher Bruck from Columbus yesterday and is bringing this athlete with him, too.

Recent games impressed Rourke with the fact that his hurling corps was sadly in need of reinforcements. So Wednesday he hiked from Lincoln to Kansas City and made a call upon Bobby Quinn of the Columbus club. Roby offered him O'Toole and Bruck and Rourke snapped at it.

O'Toole was in the Western league before. He was a star with the Sioux City club. It was from Sioux City that St. Paul bought him. Marty went like a whirlwind his first year with the Saints and Barney Dreyfuss put up $22,500 cash coin to get his services.

Marty failed to succeed in the majors, however, and was turned back to Columbus, where he labored last year. But this year the association is mighty close to major class and Quinn decided to give Marty to Omaha.

The little Irishman should be a winner in the Western league. He was a wizard when he was here before and his knowledge of the game has been considerably augmented since then. Last year with Columbus, Matry won forteen and lost fifteen games with a club that finished in the cellar.

Bruck also comes with the reputation of being quite a pitcher. He, like O'Toole, is a right-hander.

The addition of O'Toole and Bruck means that couple of the pitchers now curving them over will draw their releases. It is probable Mack Allison will be one of the unfortunate duo.

All-Nations Dropped Peg by Blair Club As Holland Blows

BLAIR, Neb., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Blair defeated the All-Nations today, 3 to 2, in a pitchers' battle between Cook for Blair and Bunny Holland for the All-Nations, with the honors about even until the ninth inning, when Holland went up long enough for Blair to run in two scores and win the game.

The hitting and the runs were even up to the ninth, when Mendez hit for two bases and Donaldson, pinch hitting for Coleman, scored him with a single to left. Donaldson was caught out stealing.

For Blair, Holland walked the first man up. Two singles followed and the game was over.

The features, aside from Cook's pitching, were his own-hand pickup for an out in the fourth inning, and B. O. Burcham's hitting. The same teams play tomorrow. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
All-Nations	0	5	2
Blair	1	6	5

Batteries: Holland and Coleman; Cook and Krause. Umpire: Campbell.
