A Little Sister to Soap

Soap and water alone, make hard washings. The best housekeepers nowadays use borax. Borax is a real little sister to soap. It makes the soap go further, it softens the water and loosens the dirt for the soap to attack.

CLEARING SALE AT JULIUS ORKIN'S

450 Ladies' Suits to be Closed Out Saturday at Very Low Prices. This Event Comes Two Months Earlier Than Usual This Year.

Julius Orkin announces for Saturday a One-Day Clearing of 450 Ladies' Suits at the lowest prices ever quoted by this house at this season of the year.

"Heretofore I've waited until July to do this," said Mr. Orkin today, "but this year I'm going to establish a new precedent. My enlarged store has forced me to carry a stock of suits three times as large as in former years, and where lines have become broken I'm going to close them out at prices that will make women happy just two months ahead of the old-time schedule."

Cost is forgotten—all these suits, some 450 in all, will be placed in two lots and ticketed at $10 and $15. Original selling prices ranged from $19.50 up to $29.50—and I'll guarantee that my suits have more style and quality wrapped up in them than you'll find in any store in Omaha.

Ob, yes—Our Waist Sale is now at its height and will be freshened up Saturday by the addition of hundreds of new blouses that have just arrived by express during the past week. Great savings in this sale—and we have been so busy that we have been forced to double our sales force in this department.

There May Be Cheaper, But Not Better Boys' Shoes. We have the endorsement of thousands of satisfied customers for the quality of RAIN OR SHINE--STIRRING SCENES SATURDAY!

A never ending procession of attractions from the time the doors spring open at 8:30 A. M. till 9:00 P. M. And It's at KILPATRICK'S! It's Where Sales are Distinctive and "So Different"

"Wake and Call Me Early" You must wake and call me early, Call me early, mother, dear; Tomorrow'll be the happiest time Of all the glad new year. I must attend the HAT SALE, It may not last all day. It's at Kilpatrick's--HATS SO FINE, Fit for the QUEEN OF THE MAY.

The merry month of May never comes but the words learned in our youth ring in our ears. The shades of Alfred will excuse us on this occasion, for it is a notable event and many May Queens will desire to be AWAKENED early on Saturday, May 13th. We do not believe that ever—no, never—was a more attractive lot of hats placed on sale anywhere.

350 of them—sailor hats, turbans and walking hats, sport hats, panamas and leghorns, milans, liseres, real hair hats; every conceivable shape and color; some, indeed, not conceivable. It took real genius to devise and execute—Leghorns trimmed with velvet, chiffon flanges and flowers; Tagals trimmed with wings and fancy braids—suggests our Asiatic possessions—Painted Leghorns, Sports and so on and so forth.

Now here are the words of one of the greatest MILLINERY EXPERTS IN AMERICA: "These hats are actually worth—most of them—ten to fifteen dollars, and quite a few worth even MORE. Saturday Starting at 8:30.

$4.00 Each Maybe there won't be a crowd—oh, no? Hats worth up to $15 AND OVER—Well, we guess yes—HURRY!!!

Mothers' Day Sunday

We will celebrate in advance with a wonderful READY TO WEAR SALE. In this store we clean out stocks while styles are good. For instance, now: Here is a group of coats, sporty and otherwise, many neat serges, jersey cloths, velvet checks, etc., priced previously up to $18. On Saturday, $10.75.

And Then Suits

Sensible, practical, reasonable—some there are a little freakish to look at and yet on the right person they give just that touch of "sport" so much wanted by those who love the GREAT OUT DOORS—Priced previously up to $37.50. Saturday all day, $17.85.

We never enjoyed such BLOUSE business—Reason why—our buyer is famed in ready-to-wear markets as one of the COUNTRY'S EXPERTS. The club women and Omaha's smart society have made the discovery themselves. We wanted them to find it out ALL ALONE-Y. After all, that's the best AD. Sport Blouses of Stripe Voile, Saturday, $3.50 EACH.

How is this? Breakfast Sets. That's a new one, isn't it? A gingham skirt, loose jacket and a cap. There's homeliness for you and the price is..... $1. Just a little space here to sandwich in a STORY OF A SALE AT LACE SECTION.

SILK PETTICOATS

Her Petticoat was yaller, and her little hat was green, and they called Supt Yavlat, just the same as Theebaw's queen. So says Rudyard. How we would enjoy his description of our Petticoat Stock—Wonderful collection, made mainly from lustrous chiffon, taffetas—if you only knew how taffetas have advanced, are advancing and will advance, you would be hiring a taxi, a jitney or a Wattles, anything to get to the Saturday Sale. Group One—Staple shades, full sweep, neat ruffle, $2.50.

Group Two—Green, browns and blacks, also blues and all the other members of the color family; ruffled, flared and pleated, and the price, $2.95 each. GROUP THREE—If it were not that it might sound just a wee bit slangy we might be tempted to say of these:

SOME SKIRTS

There's a wide color range here, and the quality of taffeta is superb, $5.00 EACH, and a great FIFTH'S WORTH.

THE JUNIOR SECTION

Must a mother still celebrate her day—the day that governs preclusion—shininess of armor—and everyone delights to honor—must a mother, we say, still take her pleasure and delight in buying something too HER starting in noon on HER day. We are wonderfully ready here—Middy Blouses now—a necessary garment almost nowadays—white and color, plain and stripes—cotton, linen, silk and mohair—from 59 CENTS TO $4.50. We are going to place all the Junior Suits on sale Saturday. Ages 14 to 17 years—suited for women of small figure: At $11.75 Suits sold to $15.00. At $15.40 Suits sold to $30.00. At $24.80 Suits sold to $37.50.

A Very Special Lot of Coats

A particular lot for somewhat particular people. Over 14 years—staples and novelties—$16.80 some were; others $17.50. Saturday, $10 Each. Right here, just adjoining the space occupied by Ribbon wearers, LET US SAY A WORD OR TWO ABOUT RIBBONS—Pleat-edge Ribbons—much used now for hat bands, and DRESS TRIMMINGS—Lingerie Ribbons—Have you seen the rosebuds and satin bows? And what about the BLUE BIRDS? Take a look Saturday, those of you who saw the "Blue Bird" played or who read the beautiful story—You'll have a new joy—the Blue Bird ribbons are beauties.

MISS DOYLE SAID:

Just say a word about our Great Handkerchief Sale—150 or perhaps 200 dozens—made in "the most distressful country that ever you have seen—where they are hanging men and women too, for wearing of the green"—AFTER ALL THAT'S ONLY IN SONG—these are embroidered by hand, and there are some made of Shamrock lawn, 15 CENTS Saturday. When handkerchiefs were worth much less than now similar qualities sold at 25 CENTS.

MANY A MAN

With Carnation in button-hole Sunday will have on a KILPATRICK SHIRT—REASON WHY! We will sell a lot of very attractive shirts Saturday at 69 CENTS. Splendid quality—percales, laundered—A REAL DOLLAR'S WORTH.

Time to Shed the Heavy Weight Underwear

We have all the wanted weights and shapes, Special lot Saturday. Ribbed Union Suits—bleached, short sleeves, ankle or knee lengths. 49 CENTS EACH—and they're worth it. Saturday is always a great day at our UNDERWEAR SECTION.

Union Suits, Such as Globe, Essex, etc., 59 CENTS EACH; tight knee, lace trimmed. Lisle Vests, taped necks, 19 CENTS EACH. SOME LACE TRIMMED, 25 CENTS.

Basement Beautiful

The other day we heard a woman say: "I never was down here before. Why, this is a beautiful basement." Strange, is it not, how you can live for a lifetime almost in a place and not know some of the most attractive spots in your old home town? She admitted it was her misfortune.

SATURDAY we will price staple, wanted cotton goods away under WAR PRICES.

We bought early and we made them ship 'em out. Just to stir things up will sell Hercules full size sheets, 81x90 inches, usually 90c, now at 69c. Saranac Pillow Cases, 45 and 42 inches, at 12 1/2c and at 9c. The moderate priced wash goods from 15c TO 25c—HERE.

FOR SATURDAY—A big square covered with Tissue Crepes, Batistes, Organadies, Etc.—in the aggregation are many kinds up to 25c per yard, all at 12 1/2c. Every year, just about outdoor time, when we like to hear the ice clink in the tall glasses, we have a sale of glassware—And on Saturday we have another—

Tumblers, 45c for a half dozen. Ice Tea Glasses, 80c for a half dozen. Goblets, $1.00 for a half dozen. Sherbets, $1.50 for a half dozen. Finger Bowls, $2.50 for a half dozen. Black Glassware is a new 'un.

"When It's Apple Blossom Time in Normandy"

Just a day or two ago we motored in the country and as our eyes took in hundreds of trees covered with the beautiful blossoms we thought of the song. Not many singing it now, alas! And then we thought of "MOTHER'S DAY AGAIN"—and that there are some sad mothers in even our favored land. For here also—we are suffering from the frightful foolishness of crazy neighbors. Thank heaven, a peaceful atmosphere reigns in our own fair city.

COBB SAYS: "Mothers' Day won't be perfect without CANDY." And speaking of CANDY, you know COBB'S "SYNONYMOUS"—even the children are listing this big word when they hear COBB and CANDY.

Crean Caramels Saturday, 30c for pound box. Rich, creamy, smooth, vanilla flavored, with pecans, hazelnuts, creamy centers, chocolates, maple, there's a toothsome morsel for ye. You'll buy in the morning, if you are real wise—afternoons always rushed. One of Cobb's bright, courteous saleswomen piped up just as he was telling us "Opera Pecan Patties." You should say something about these—everybody loves them. 15 CENTS A 1/4 POUND BOX. We said it, didn't we? PATTIES—made from rich cream sugar, flavoured, filled with Texas pecans, vanilla, strawberry and maple.
