Departure of Nebraska delegation to biennial convention, General Federation of Women's Clubs,

OTHER'S day programs are the rule in women's clubs this week, as they have been during the last week. The Woman's club of the Railway Mail Service has a particularly attractive Mother's day program and the P. E. O. Sisterhoed and Mothers' clubs are also observing the newest of national special days. It was the thought of local temperance workers to have the Initiative petitions for prohibition filed with the secretary of state at Lincoln yesterday as a tribute to Mother's day, but the plan was not carried out as the petitions will be filed on Friday of this week instead.

This will be a busy week at the Young Women's Ciristian amoriation. Every evening there will be exhibitions of aymmastics and folk dancing by the athletic department of the association, and beginning Timerday on Important conference. of employed workers of the association. One of the chief speakers will be Dr. "Anno. I. Brown of New York City, who is interested to the physical culture department. Secretaries from all over the district will atland

The annual May breakfast of the Business. Wenner's club will be one of the targest affairs of Wednesday, the proceeds to be used to send dolegates from this claim to the conference at Genevain the summer. The evening before the business. girls will meet at the "Y" building to fix the tables and decorations for the breakfast next morning, which will be served between I and 2 o'clock. Such girl in charge of a large reservation taken pride in having her table present the most attractive appearance.

At All Saints church on Tunniay the thirtiers annal meeting of the Woman's anathary of the Resemped churches or Neurosus will be held lieve. Philip Petter has braded the organisation for Directly sold years. For the end of the week the entertalement of the switern delegates to the bleamin) convention of the General Function of Western's clubs in New York City during the low moments that are in the city, together with a hearty sendulffor the Nebraska delegation, is of parameter interest. A large number of heat this women will be on hand to great the mesterners and distribute souvenirs of Omaha. Mrs. J. N. Pant of St. Pant. president of the state federation, is authority for the statement that ever fifty Nebraska wamen will allered the respondent. Their headquarings will be at the Stood Savey

FFAIRS for May brides made up the principal affairs of the past week and a guest came in for an occasional tea. Of course, there was the luncheon to a former musical comedy singer, given by the press women, at which prominent members of the Franco-Belgian Relief society were present, a sort of a social bi-product of the war in Europe. The little singer of songs is a loyal French woman in whom the tragedy of her land has revealed unfathomed depths of cheractershe has given her best to make easier the sufferings of her wounded countrymen-and Omaha women wanted the message she had for them.

The short sojourn of Dr. and Mrs. Roland Usher was full of interest, both in a social and intellectual way, especially interesting on account of the close kinship of the Ushers to a well known Omaha family

The week just commenced will be graced by four weddings, and there are whispers that plans of weddings for the early summer will be announced. A few of the girls who have announced their engagements have not as yet disclosed the wedding day.

The big affair of the week will be the annual Creche bridge party Tuesday afternoon at the Fontenelle, always reckoned as one of the social events of the year. Five hundred guests are expected and arrangements have been made to sell tickets at the door so that the eleventh hour patron may be taken care of and given her chance to play for charity-and incidently a handsome

The plan of the affair is pivot auction bridge. not progressive. This will be the ninth annual bridge party given by the Creche board of directors. At last year's party the board gave special study as to what prizes seemed to be most in favor with the players who make their choice much the same as drawers in a land lottery. The article that went first last year and was the obsect of the keenest play was a crepe de chine night frock. Taking the hint, this year the latest modes of the same dainty sort of garments will be prizes. All of the Omaha merchants had liberally responded with their donations, including the Brandels Stores, Kilpatrick & Co., Thompson and Belden. Milton Darling, Matthews Book Store, C. B. Brown, Burgess-Nash and Hayden Brothers. Among the women who have given donations are Mrs. Joseph M. Metcalf, Miss Jessie Millard and Mrs. Howard H. Baldrige, Aside from the prizes de luxe there will be bon-bon dishes, pictures, silk stockings, mirrors and all kinds of things of dainty usefulness;

Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith will call off the names of the winners, who will respond, two at a time, and he allowed four full minutes to make their choice of their prizes.

The playing will commence at 2 n'clock, Mrs. Warren Rogers and Mrs. J. H. Scoble are in charge of the play. On the reception committee are Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith, Mrs. Arthur-Rogers and Mrs. Arthur Mets. The members of the board of directors are Mrs. Thomas R. Kimvall, Miss Arabella Kimball, Mrs. Warren Rogers, Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Mrs. John A. McShane, Mrs. Bernard Caren, Mrs. James C. Dahlman, Mrs. A. r. Smith, Mrs. Arthur Metz, Mrs. George Redick, Mrs. Charles E. Mets, Mrs. F. A. Nash, Mrs. Louis Nucl. Mrs. C. C. Allison and Mrs. Louis Clarks,

The ranger members are coming in for much attention, because of their activity in connection with the various summencement exercises at the nearby schools. Each of the Omaka high schools of has plane for entertainment of its patrone; the University of Omaka has a most ambitions May Pole scurram. Bellevus will contribute its share, white Brownell Hall. Mount Saint Mary's, BE breckman's, the Authors of the Visitation and all the other schools are arranging for appropriate -tonycution of the civeing days of the school year, These all add to the interest felt in the pombag
