Chaplin's Burleaque on Carmen", acts as a foil to Chaplin's more serious love making to Carmen, and serves to bring out the contrast so strongly that it makes both parts a scream. The burleaque is in four reels, and in Chicago and New York, where the films are now showing, the attendance is positively tremendous, attesting to the popularity of Charlie Chaplin, the highest salaried film star on earth. The display will be exclusive in Omaha. The showing will continue all week at the Gayety from Il a. m. to Il n. m., continuous, starting

ETHEL BARRYMORE ON BILL AT MUSE TODAY

Ethel Barrymore will be seen in the five-part play, "The Kies of Hate," at the Muse today and Monday. The production is based on Russian life and resents a decidedly novel love story with a wealth of local color.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Edna May, formerly "Belle of New York," appears in the Vitagraph feature, "Salvation Joan," a society girl who weary of the empty life of society loins the Salvation Army, but conceals her identity. In the course of events she falls in love with a rough man, who has more manly qualities than many moother looking individuals. It is strange romance. Friday and Saturday Valli Valli and
