

"SEES THINGS THAT AIN'T," IS GIVEN FIFTEEN DAYS

E. L. Williams, 1411 Chicago street, was arrested Friday evening on a charge of being delirious. Williams was under the impression that his room was filled with colored men, each with a revolver and a bucket of gold. If he ran the gauntlet he would get the gold. E. L. had apparently run the gauntlet with safety when the police arrived, but the colored gentlemen and the buckets had mysteriously disappeared, and he was wrathy in police court he was sentenced to fifteen days in jail.

JURY FINDS VERDICT OF ONE DOLLAR AGAINST WADE

A Jury in Judge Sears' court has returned a judgment of $1 against Police Officer Ledoy L. Wade, in settlement of the suit brought against the officer by

C. Jensen, Milkman, Sixtieth and Center Streets, Jensen sued for $5,000 on the grounds that Wade assaulted him while making an arrest on December 7. Upon the return of the verdict Officer Wade drew 5,000 one-dollar bills from his pocket and tendered the court one of them. He said he was satisfied.

WHEAT PRICES DROP ON REPORTS OF SPLENDID RAIN

For a Saturday Omaha wheat receipts were heavy, there being 119 carloads on the market. The general rains sold prices off 1/2 cent, the sales being made all the way between $1.025 and $1.03 per bushel. Corn was 1/2 cent down to a cent up, selling at 61 1/2 cents. The receipts were forty-four carloads. Oats were 1/2 cent up, selling at 41 1/2 cents. The receipts were fifteen carloads. See Want Ads Produce Results.

Warm Weather Hats in Brave Array
TRANSPARENT, dressy hats of horsehair, tulle or crepe, lace or lace trimmed hats and the ever popular Leghorns are shown in great variety for Country Club affairs.
TRIM white Milans with either black velvet crowns or facings, or with a touch of navy blue, are the ideal hats for wear with the tailored costumes. A good many of these are finished with a shimmery, slippery ribbon, very new and decidedly attractive.
THESE are the hats you will want, whether for formal or informal wear, for nothing contributes so much to the general "on semble" as a fresh, smart hat, and nothing so mars one's appearance as a soiled, mussed or worn hat.
