BOOKLET ISSUED FROM UNIVERSITY

Advantages of Higher Education Pointed Out to High School Students. NEWS OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

The University of Nebraska has prepared an interesting booklet setting forth the advantages of a college education and particularly the facilities offered by the Nebraska university. It is addressed to graduates of Nebraska high schools. First the college of arts and sciences is mentioned with its studies for culture and broadening influence, as well as to acquire skill in making a living. Many graduates of this college enter government and state service, become authors, editors, chemists and so on. Connected with this, but differentiated from it are also the school of fine arts and of commerce and also the teachers' college. The college of law, with its admission to the Nebraska bar; the college of pharmacy, imparting skill in that profession; the college of engineering, with its thorough preparation for a great profession; the college of medicine, which has now grown to such great proportions and offers its four-year course in Omaha; the college of agriculture, to which goes one-third of all the university's money for buildings and permanent improvement—all these are mentioned briefly, but succinctly and further information on any of them will be forwarded to any who write to the registrar for it. Associated with the college of agriculture is the department of home economics designed to train young women wisely to administer and skillfully to conduct the affairs of the home. The growth of the university is shown in the fact that six additional blocks of city property have been purchased on which two additional buildings are now being erected, the Bessey Memorial biological laboratories and the new chemical laboratory. Ground is also being broken for the new social science building. At the farm, situated on the outskirts of Lincoln, a new agricultural engineering laboratory is under way; also a new dairy building and new barns. The advantages that the Nebraska students have in attending their own university are set forth. These include a saving in traveling expenses, being near home and home influences, and saving of fees, which are charged in some of the institutions at a distance.

DECLAMATION CONTEST.

Annual Event for students of High Schools Held at Yankton.

Four scholarships at Yankton college were the prizes won in the fourteenth annual state high school contest in declamation held last Friday at Yankton. D. D. Miss Blanche McKim of the Yankton high school won first prize in the general class and Miss Jane Gilbert of the Hurley high school won second. In the oratorical class, Franklin Scott of Yankton high school won first and Don Falkett of Sioux Falls high school second.

In addition to the scholarships, two handsome photographs of famous paintings were awarded the two high schools whose pupils won first prize in each of the two classes named. There were twenty-eight speakers and it was the most successful contest of the kind ever held at Yankton.

Novel entertainment for the visiting high school students and their friends was furnished by the annual 'May Day Sports' under the auspices of the department of physical training for young women. Miss Mary Young, director of this department, was in charge. Miss Faye Frick was 'Queen Alzoum' and other characters were Miss 'The Coronation Lady', Helen MacGregor, 'The Crowned Hero', Lavina Scott, 'The Herald', New Niall, 'Musical Herald', Lewis Morrison, 'The Fairy Queen's Attendants', Helen Burgess, Madeline Johnson, Pearl Hiral, Elsie Hooper, 'Crowned Girls', Jeanette Bruce, May Smith, Mildred Wheeler, Nadine Carlson.

PLAY AT NEW ROCHELLE.

College in New York to Present Rostand's 'Les Fantastiques.'

Aside from the transferring of degrees on May 15, interest in the exercises of commencement at the College of New Rochelle, New Rochelle, N. Y., centers largely around the campus play, an annual event at the college. This year, Rostand's 'Les Fantastiques' will be produced by 'Proms and Paints,' the college dramatic society. This organization, composed exclusively of undergraduates of the college, gave in New York City during February, 1915, what has been acknowledged to be one of the best amateur productions of 'The Tempest' ever seen in the metropolis. The Theater Magazine warmly commended the work of the students in an interesting illustrated article which is added to the program which the dramatic society affords students. The program is available to those engaged in the study of this language. Several former members have taken up professional work. Among the faculty is Miss Beatrice Warren, 13, who appeared with Margaret Anglin in plays at the Grand Theatre, University of Chi-ago during 1914. Miss Warren is now with the Ben Grant company. The College of New Rochelle, whose dramatic society gave the first rendition in American of Rostand's 'Les Fantastiques,' was one of the first women's colleges in the United States to open a summer school. Sessions are held annually during July and August.

RECOGNITION FOR PALMER.

Missouri State University Gives Honor to College at Albany.

The junior college committee of the Missouri State university visited Palmer College, Albany, Mo., and stated that there is no doubt that this college will give official recognition by the opening of the fall semester. The library and laboratories have been improved and are now above the average. Two new teachers have been employed for next year, giving a force of ten teachers. The committee was very enthusiastic about the outlook for the development of the best junior college in the state, on account of the open territory that is about Albany. In any direction for 150 miles there is only one other such institution. The new girls' dormitory is nearing completion and will be ready at the opening in September. It will accommodate fifty girls, each having a separate bed and separate locker and room will be furnished, homelike, and attractive. The building is modern in all its equipment, with a large gymnasium annex and swimming pool. It will be a delightful home for the girls, and with the strong course offered, a very large number of students will be attracted next year.

Omaha Men Honored.

Fawcett W. Porter of Omaha was elected president of the Honor court of Union college, Schenectady, N. Y., and manager of the Union College Dramatic club. Phillip W. Downs, also an Omaha man, was elected president of the Omaha College Dramatic club. Downs was also chairman of the junior prom committee.

Hastings College.

The May day program called out the largest crowd from the city of Hastings in the history of the college. The parade on the campus in Elizabethan costumes was beautiful. The remainder of the program following the crowning of the queen, had to be given in the gymnasium on account of rain, but about 800 people attended those exercises and the day was pronounced one of the best in the history of the college.

The track team will go to Crete to meet the Tigers May 15. Last year Hastings won the Doane meet at Hastings. Next Friday the different colleges will be in Hastings for the state field meet.

Prof. H. M. Cunningham of the department of modern languages went to Beatrice to give a commencement talk at the graduating exercises of the Northwestern Business college.

President Crane will deliver commencement address at Kimball, Leasup City and Alliance.

This year Hastings college in granting degrees will confer the 'cum laude' honor for the first time. The number receiving this degree will be limited to one-fifth of the class and to such in the upper fifth reaching a certain standard of scholarship.

The Haydn Choral society has arranged to give commencement week the beautiful oratorio, 'Stabat Mater,' by Rossini. Prof. Hahr, director of the conservatory, will have charge. An artists' recital on Monday night of commencement week will be given. Tuesday night is planned for the oratorio, played near the artists were assisted by about ninety representatives of the musical life of the college and city, and this year an equally large number will take part.

Bayard Funk and E. E. Harder represented the college at Wesleyan in a tennis meet with representatives Kings and Wead. The two men played return matches on the Hastings courts.

Doane College.

The Doane College Olse club returned from a successful tour of eastern Nebraska the early part of the week.

Ford day in Crete, when a general celebration is held and an automobile given away, is expected to draw a large attendance from the neighboring villages and country.

A large number of student prospects for the coming school year have been the guests of the college for the last few days. According to President Allen, indications are present for an increase of students. They will open the largest freshman class in the school's history next fall.

The Hastings-Doane dual track meet, which has been postponed twice since the original date was set, will be held Monday afternoon on the Doane field.

T. H. Miller, 36, and wife of Buhl, Idaho, are visiting for a few days with Doane friends.

'Buck' Beltzer and his celebrated 'Green's Nebraska Indians' have pitched their tent near the Doane campus and are indulging in two daily workouts on the Doane athletic field in preparation for their annual tour of the United States. They will open the season with the Crete town team on Monday.

Lincoln Way, which was so finely paved last year, is to be decorated with flowers and shrubs.

Kearney is well represented at the national meeting of the Young Men's Christian association to be held in Cleveland, O., the coming week. The school sends to this convention Fred Schmeckle, Alfred Nissen, Hans Olsen and Milford Forsythe.

The art department has been fortunate in having a loan exhibit of designs and

My Tired Feet Ached for 'Tiz'

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of 'Tiz.'

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-cracked, aching, burning, red, swollen, uncomfortable feet of yours in a 'Tiz' bath. You'll find it a little withy, but it'll keep you cool and almost painless and then they'll be so-soothing that in that 'Tiz' bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired and hot and dry. 'Tiz' is grand—'It's afloat'—your feet will be soothed and you'll find it a little withy, but it'll keep you cool and almost painless and then they'll be so-soothing that in that 'Tiz' bath. There's nothing else 'Tiz'. It's a one-time remedy that draws out all the poisonous substances which build up your feet and cause foot trouble. Get a 'Tiz' bath box of 'Tiz' at any drug or department store—just walk in. You'll find it a little withy, but it'll keep you cool and almost painless and then they'll be so-soothing that in that 'Tiz' bath. embroideries from the Newcombe College School of Art of New Orleans. Work on the auditorium is progressing nicely and work is just beginning on the third floor. Miss Gertrude Gardner, dean of women, will continue her studies at Columbia University the coming summer. The school band, under the direction of Prof. B. H. Patterson, gave an excellent program at the opera house on May 10. Prof. W. A. Haberstro, assisted by Mrs. Rose Clark Erice, pianist, E. H. Staubitz, violinist, and Miss Ruth Scott, accompanist, gave a recital on May 11. Visitors during the week were Prof. Farmer, the new vice president of Hastings college, Superintendent C. E. Collett of Goldenburg, Superintendent M. S. Pate of Lexington, Superintendent Margaret McClurken of Central City and Superintendent M. E. Crozier of Norfolk. Miss Wirt made her last study center trip toeward on Saturday of last week. Prof. Martin conducted the work at Leasup City. Miss Gardner addressed the North Platte teachers, May 6. Prof. R. J. Elliott left for Leasup City to deliver the commencement address, May 11.

Fremont College.

August Kluppel of Leasup, Neb., visited his daughters, Floesie and Anna, this week.

Prof. N. W. Gaines has purchased a plucky new Ford, which 'rambles right along.'

T. J. Leary and wife of Council Bluffs were guests of President and Mrs. Clemmons, Thursday and Friday.

The weekly lectures given by Miss Ruth Atkin of the art department continue with unabated interest. The theme for the present term is English art; and a large number of students are interested in this work. President and Mrs. Clemmons received the pharmacy class and instructors of that department Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The observation department has hung their new prize picture, 'Brightness of the Sea,' which they won for selling the most tickets to the art exhibit at the high school some time ago. There was a Little Girl and She Had a Little Part was the name of the operetta given by the observation grade at their 10th school last Friday. The children were assisted by their practice teachers, Misses Gibson and Goldenburg, and Messrs. Phillips and Rickett, all of whom took their parts well. The pupils showed exceptional training, and Margaret Brown as 'The Little Girl' showed exceptional ability. The leading feature of the week was the graduating exercises of the pharmacy class, which took place in chapel Friday morning. President Clemmons in presenting the diplomas and conferring the degrees addressed the class most interestingly and offered advice most profitable to the young men stepping out into the world to begin business for himself. The graduates were in Lincoln, Wednesday and Thursday, where they took the state board examination.

Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Rev. O. T. Moore of Biaden gave an illustrated lecture at the chapel, Thursday on 'The Financial Aspects of the Liquor Traffic.'

Principal O. L. Kendall of the University of High school will take charge of the normal training classes in the summer school in place of Miss Wilhelm, who has resigned because of ill health. Vice-Chancellor Schreckengast has been made a member of the committee to arrange a plan of union for the two branches of the Methodist church at the general conference at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Prof. H. B. Latimer of the department of physics read papers on research work done at Wesleyan before the Nebraska Academy of Science at Lincoln Friday afternoon.

CHARLIE LANE IS PROUD OF PICTURE OF BULL'S BROTHER

Charles J. Lane is in receipt of the picture of a Hereford bull, 23 months old, that he asserts is the best animal in the world. While Mr. Lane does not own this bull, he is the owner of a brother and a half brother, now at the head of his herd on his ranch, north of Pine Bluff, Wyo.

The Hereford, of which Mr. Lane has the picture, was owned by L. G. Downs of Saratoga, Wyo., and at the Denver live stock show was sold for $1,000 to a Colorado stock grower, living near Denver.

Swedish Singers Make Arrangements With Local Hotels

Judging by reservations now being made at the local hotels by the Swedish Singing societies throughout the middle states an unusual large attendance of active singers as well as visiting friends is assured for the convention and singing festival scheduled for Omaha, June 19-23. While the local committee is charged with the responsibility of arranging all details for the convenience, comfort and entertainment of the visitors, several of the singing societies have sent advance representatives for the special purpose of looking after their hotel accommodations, among them being the Moline, Ill., delegation, who will put up at the Hotel Home, which has been designated the official headquarters of the convention. The Chicago singers, 200 strong, have arranged for quarters at the Castle hotel, and the singers over in Iowa and their friends have secured accommodations at the Fontenelle. The thirty-six singing societies, constituting the western division of the American Union of Swedish Singers, have shown an immense interest in the coming festival, and diligent preparatory work will be in evidence in the songs of the mass male chorus of 50 voices at the concert at the Omaha Auditorium, June 19 and 20, directed by Joel Mossberg of Chicago, as well as in the selections by the fourteen choruses that have been chosen by the committee for solo appearances on the programs under their respective directors.

GOES TO CHICAGO TO LOOK FOR SOME TALENT

Mrs. Florence Basler-Palmer went to Chicago Sunday evening in search of material she wishes to use commencing time in the voice department at Bellevue college. While in Chicago she will also improve the opportunity of hearing Mrs. J. J. Locke, a former pupil of hers, who sings the leading role in the 'Garden of Allah,' given there the week of May 11 under the auspices of the Shriners.

Elliott Will Speak at Callaway.

CALLAWAY, Neb., May 14.—(Special)—Memorial day will be fittingly observed in Callaway, Prof. R. I. Elliott of Kearney having been induced to be the principal speaker of the day. Exercises will be held in the Callaway park and decorations will be made over the bodies of the departed soldiers which lie in the local cemeteries.

Why this Sale of The Encyclopaedia Britannica Must Close. AN ANNOUNCEMENT! Very shortly we must withdraw our offer of the new 'Handy Volume' Issue of the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA. We were able to offer to our customers and the public the new 'Handy Volume' Issue of the Britannica at such phenomenally low prices only by arranging with the publishers for an enormous printing and by reason of this a very heavy reduction in manufacturing costs. All these contracts for paper, presswork, binding, leather, and so forth, were made before the war began. The sale has been a success beyond the highest expectations. It is a conservative statement that no such a sale of a single work, either in the number of volumes or in the total sales price was ever known before in the history of book publishing. We take pride in our achievement. We have placed in tens of thousands of homes a new edition of the most valuable work in the English language, the most useful, the most practical, and the most informed. We believe, and many distinguished educators have written to us to say, that we have done a distinct educational service. We wish we could have gone on selling this great work at this low price for years. That is impossible. So rapidly has the issue been subscribed for that the sets now remaining will soon be exhausted. The publishers now notify us that they cannot renew the present contract. So rapidly has the cost of production risen in the last few months that they cannot supply us with further sets at anything like present costs. The price will have to be advanced from $11 per set for the lowest priced bindings to $19 per set for the highest price; and there is no certainty that we can arrange for many more sets even at this price. The same sudden rise in prices which has occurred in many other lines of trade has come to the paper, printing and binding business. Paper has advanced between 60 and 70%, morocco leather 50%, ink from 20 to 150%, and other raw materials entering into the making of the Encyclopaedia Britannica much the same. All this is only part of a great wave of prosperity that has come to the United States. Prices in many lines have risen at an almost fabulous rate. A list is given in an adjoining column. Nor does this rise seem temporary. We seem entering upon an era of still higher prices and of rapidly expanding trade. The basic industry of the country, farming, is receiving high prices for all its products. A heavy congestion of freight rules all over the country. There is a shortage of cars, and of locomotives to haul them. Industry is humming. Two-thirds of the factories of the nation are working overtime. Not in twenty years has the like been seen. AN OPPORTUNITY PASSING What is plain is that the opportunity to obtain the new edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica at the present prices will not be repeated. In some of the more expensive bindings exhaustion is already near; and in the most expensive, the full seal binding, hardly a hundred sets remain. We therefore give notice that in a very short time the sale will close, our offer will be withdrawn and the Britannica will be obtainable only at very much higher prices. There is still time to send for the handsome 130-page book described below, but we urge those who have been hesitating to forward their orders at the earliest possible time. How Prices Have Risen Within a Year or 18 Months PAPER 60 to 70% MOROCCO 50% LEATHER 50% INK 20 to 150% BLEACHING SODAS 400 to 700% OXALIC ACID 30 to 50% ALCOHOL 30% GLYCERINE 30% FERTILIZERS 100% SUGAR nearly 100% PAINT 80% or more TOOL STEEL 700% ZINC 300% LEAD 400% TUNGSTEN almost 700% QUICKSILVER 1000% WHAT OUR OFFER MEANS 1. We supply the 'Handy Volume' Issue of the new Eleventh Edition at one-third the prices of the larger-paged 'Cambridge University' issue of the same work. 2. You have the publishers' guarantee, and our own, that the volumes you have received are word for word, and line for line, the same as the 'Cambridge University' issue, not an article or a single illustration omitted. 3. We ship you the complete work, the entire 29 volumes, for a first payment of only one dollar. 4. You then have three weeks in which to examine them and find out how valuable they may be in your home. 5. If for any reason whatsoever you do not wish to keep them, you may return them and we will refund your dollar and all shipping charges as well. 6. If you keep them, you pay for them in small monthly installments, for a limited time. See sets and leave orders at Brandes Stores. A 130-PAGE BOOK FREE The publishers of the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA have prepared a richly illustrated book of 130 pages to tell you all about this great work and the new 'Handy Volume' Issue, and its usefulness to you. It is full of interesting stories, clever dialogues, beautiful pictures—a book packed from cover to cover. Some of its contents include—100 interesting bits of knowledge revealing the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA from a hundred different points of view. A little history of the BRITANNICA from the days of King George III, with 70 portraits of the noted men who have made it the greatest work of its kind. Twenty pages of interesting dialogue telling of the unexpected interest of the BRITANNICA. A clever story about the way children get interested in it. Portraits of the Nobel Prize winners and other famous contributors to the new Eleventh Edition. Nearly two hundred full tone illustrations, color plates, specimen pages and the like. Whether you are interested in the BRITANNICA or not, you and every member of your family will thoroughly enjoy reading this book, as big as a magazine. But send at once.
