WEDDING PLANS ARE KEPT SECRET

Bachelor is Willing His Friends Should Know, But the Woman is Reticent.

SO NO NAMES ARE MENTIONED

By MELLIFFICIA—May 15. Widows do not take kindly to announcing their engagements, especially when a court decree, and not the Grim Reaper, has liberated them.

Just what ethics here is fitting to the society editor?

The couple are so well known that their intentions to wed each other is a nice morsel of news to all the city, exclusive of their own set.

Surely the woman active in the social world should be given as square a deal by the society editor as a criminal may expect of the police reporter.

It is really true that this marriage is to be—three matrons, who really know, have said so, and the man has told every friend that "she is the sweetest girl in all the world."

Orpheum Theater Reservations.

Nobody today will admit of giving an Orpheum party—one and all, they insisted that they merely had reservations.

For the matinee this afternoon are two larger reservations, Mrs. G. W. Uplike, five, and Mrs. H. L. Olsen, twenty-four.

For this evening the C. C. Georges have a box; eight reservations; Mr. E. M. Syfert, four; Mr. James Woodard, six; Mr. C. F. Schmeiger, seven; A. H. Richardson, six; Mr. Norris Brown, five; Mr. R. B. Zachary, five; Mr. A. V. Kinsler, four; Mr. O. C. Redick, four; Mr. P. W. Mickless, four; Mr. R. L. Huntley, four.

High School Students Do Some Campaigning

While the High School of Commerce held a model election last week to acquaint the students with the manner of holding city elections, it strikes the casual onlooker that the young chaps at Central High school can give their elders a few pointers on how to campaign in elections.

CLUB WOMEN EAT AT GIRLS' LUNCH

Guests at the Welfare Department of the Brandeis Stores at Noon.

WATCH THE GIRLS DANCING

Omaha's best known clubwomen were the guests of the Brandeis stores' welfare department at luncheon at noon in the new cafeteria and lunch room established a month ago for the girl employees especially.

Others Help Out. Ervina Brandeis, Karl Louis, Charles othen and others in charge also covered themselves with glory in acting as hosts to the proverbially critical clubwomen.

The restroom was a gay scene during the lunch period. A young chap struck up some lively ragtime tunes while the girls danced.

Sign for Men. "Of course, we enjoy this immensely, but I do wish there were some men to dance with," sighed one roguish maiden.

Samuel Hill Home From Visit to the King of Belgium

New York, May 15.—Samuel Hill, who has been associated for fifteen years with his father-in-law, James J. Hill, in railroad enterprises and who has just returned from a visit to King Albert of Belgium, left today for Washington.

Mr. Hill said that he dined with King Albert at the king's headquarters, visited the firing line in western France and Flanders, visited the British fleet and saw some of the British harbor protections against submarines.

Since his retirement from railroad business Mr. Hill has identified himself with the construction of highways all over the United States, the most recent being the Columbia highway, between Washington and Oregon. His home is in Maryville, Wash.

Japanese Speaks Before Two Omaha Audiences Sunday

Rev. Shiro Murata, en route to Japan after four years spent at the Presbyterian seminary in Auburn, N. Y., delivered two addresses in Omaha Sunday, speaking at the Young Men's Christian association rooms in the afternoon and at the North Presbyterian church in the evening.

In his evening address he told of the advances that Christianity has made in Japan, asserting that at this time there are 200,000 people on the island professing Christianity, whereas fifty years ago there was not a Christian.

Rev. Mr. Murata addressed the students of the University of Omaha in the chapel yesterday morning.

Theford Man Kills Self at Broken Bow

Broken Bow, Neb., May 15.—(Special.)—Robert H. Braden of Theford, 63 years old, committed suicide in the Chrisman stables here some time during the night by shooting himself through the head.

He went to the stable last night, said he was broke and was allowed to sleep in the office. When Mr. Chrisman opened the place at 6 o'clock he found Braden's body on the bed. Two bullets had been used from a .32 caliber revolver lying on his breast.

WILSON SCORED FOR PUTTING INDIANS BEFORE WOMEN

A Colorado woman, May 14.—Members of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage, who made a trip through the western states by special train, stopped in Colorado Springs on route east and sent a telegram to President Wilson criticizing him for his interest in securing citizenship for Sioux Indians in South Dakota, while failing to aid in the enfranchisement of women.

Former President Taft Witness in the Riggs Bank Case

Washington, D. C., May 15.—Former President Taft appeared today in the perjury trial of three officers of the Riggs National bank as a character witness in behalf of the bank's president, C. C. Glover, one of the indicted men.

Mr. Taft said that he had known Charles C. Glover for twenty-six years and considered his reputation for honesty, standing and character excellent.

"Such as I had," was the answer. "It grew as it got into the presidential portion," said Mr. Taft, and then as an afterthought he continued with a broad smile that made the judge and most of the spectators laugh with him.

TEAMSTERS WILL NOT JOIN STRIKE

Business Agent Says They Have No Intention of Going Out with Others.

LABORERS ARE STILL OUT

In spite of the fact that it was rumored Saturday and Sunday that the teamsters of the city would go on a sympathetic strike beginning yesterday with the laborers, the teamsters were all at work yesterday and declare they are not even contemplating a strike.

J. T. Gruhn, business agent of the teamsters, personally denies that a strike is even contemplated among the teamsters. "The teamsters do not intend to strike," he said.

The strike of the laborers still continues, and the building jobs continue to be tied up, except in the line of the steel work, marble setting and a few other jobs that require only skilled labor and little or no common labor.

So far as outward appearances go there has as yet been no conference between the laborers and the builders.
