ROURKE-JOETOWN FRAY CALLED OFF

Rain Makes Combat Impossible and Pa Rourke Prepares to Write Diplomatic Note.

O'TOOLE TO PITCH SUNDAY

After struggling with no success for four days the well known weather prognosticator finally landed a knock-out punch yesterday and put the complete kibosh on the combat scheduled between Omaha and St. Joseph. As a result Pa. Rourke has about decided to compose a diplomatic note to the government of these United States requesting that the newly accepted term "meteorologists" be retired to the storehouse and the old reliable "forecaster" re-instated as the weather man is getting too chesty over his new and high-brow title. The lady bugs who were cheated out of a free fray, it is expected, will join in the protest.

Rourke and Krug were quite disappointed over the postponement. Manager Marty had a hunch ladies' day would kill the jinx which has been pursuing our athletes. He was figuring on a flying start to a clean sweep of the series which would make the position of the Rourkes in the percentage column look much more formidable. However, if it doesn't rain and the Rourkes can win the two remaining games of the series from the Drummers everything will be lovely. But if the Drummers should win both frays it would be a very different story. For the Drummers would pass the Rourkes. But this is an evil thought and Marty says there is no chance for any such thing to happen.

O'Toole to Work Sunday.

Marty O'Toole will make his debut to Omaha fans Sunday. As Omaha is largely a Sunday base ball town Rourke decided to work Marty on that day so the largest possible number of fans could see him. O'Toole will be opposed, Jack Holland announced, by Roy Patterson, famous old veteran of the Chicago White Sox and Holland's best bet in the box at the present writing. O'Toole and Patterson, if they are in form, should put up a nifty battle.

O'Toole is anxious to get going.

Marty declares he still has a lot of stuff that he's long way from being a dead-one. He has shown a lot of stuff in practice and it is no wild and dreamy prediction to venture that his coming to the Western league bodies no good for sluggers of the loop.

At the game today the bustling crew of Ak-Sar-Ben will be guests of Frank Judson. About forty-five of Samson's hustlers will be in the party and Pa. Rourke has given them their box seats. The game today will start at 3:15 as will the one Sunday. Otto Merz will probably work today.

COL. MICHAEL EX-NEBRASKAN IS DEAD IN WASHINGTON

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Washington, May 19.—(Special Telegram.)—The death of Colonel William H. Michael, which occurred yesterday at his residence, 2542 Thirtieth street Northwest, closes a useful and distinguished career. Colonel Michael was born at Marysville, O., July 14, 1845, removing to Iowa with his parents in 1850. He secured his education in the common schools and the University of Iowa, leaving the university in September, 1861, at the age of 16, to enlist in Company B, Eleventh Iowa infantry.

He was with the Crocker brigade at the battle of Shiloh, and was so severely wounded that he was honorably discharged from the service. Upon recovery from his wounds he again enlisted in the service as a commissioned officer in the navy, serving until the close of the war with the Mississippi river squadron under Admiral Porter, and was honorably discharged from the navy with the thanks of the department in 1866.

Colonel Michael was active in the political affairs of Nebraska and a close friend of the late Senator Charles F. Manderson. Upon the death of Major Ben Perley Poore, Colonel Michael was appointed clerk of printing records in the United States senate. He edited the congressional directory, and messages and documents of congress under the direction of the joint committee on printing of the two houses of congress, and in addition compiled and edited the history of the declaration of independence, the tariff laws of the United States from 1778 to 1807, the laws relating to the navy and marine corps, and a history of the Department of State.
