GOSSIPERS BUSY OVER U. P. CHANGES

Railroad Men Believe There Is More to Mohler-Ware Resignation Story.

NEW YORK TIGHTENING STRINGS

The resignation of Charles Ware, general manager of the Union Pacific, quickly following the resignation of A. L. Mohler, its president, has been a topic of conversation in the railroad world.

With many who discussed the resignations, there was an under current of sentiment that this is the beginning of the breaking up of the official family of the Union Pacific.

Gossip Going Full Blast. The gossips have it that while they are still in the vigor of manhood and in reasonably good health men are not going to voluntarily throw away positions that are paying them $15,000 to $30,000 per year.

While it is given out that both resignations have come voluntarily, there is a lurking suspicion that the recent visit of Averill Harriman to the city, his stay of several days here and the resignations following soon after his departure for New York, may have had something to do with the decisions to resign.

FUND STARTED FOR DENTAL INFIRMARY

Omaha Banker Gives $1,000—Many Children Are Treated Each Saturday Morning.

NOTICEABLE HELP IS NOTED

Dr. William L. Shearer, member of a group of local dentists who are holding dental clinics every Saturday morning at Creighton Dental college for the benefit of school children.

Have Treated One Thousand.

Since this movement was started two months ago, 1,000 boys and girls have been treated. Yesterday 125 were attended. The nurses of the schools make the observations of the children's mouths and send them to the college.

It is a wonderful work, more so than the public yet appreciates. You would be surprised to know the extent of the physical and mental deficiency caused by defective teeth.

The doctor explained that about $5,000 would start the proposed public dental infirmary on a small, but practical scale, with the hope that the work thus accomplished would awaken public opinion to the necessity of a permanent and well equipped institution.

A school boy came in and shook hands with Dr. Shearer. The little fellow showed he had some "pep" and natural enthusiasm of youth.

Girl Is Helped.

Another concrete case was a girl 8 years of age. She was suffering from abscessed teeth and was in pain. Her disposition was such that it should have been left to a child. Her parents could not afford to pay for dental service.

SWINE SHOW BIG TOPIC IN THE EAST

E. Z. Russell Visits Several States and Finds Keen Interest Everywhere.

BREEDERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

The nation-wide interest being taken in plans for the big National Swine show, which will be held in Omaha, October 2 to 7, inclusive, is attested to in a significant way by the expressions obtained from big eastern breeders by E. Z. Russell, associate editor of The Twentieth Century Farmer, on a recent trip to points east of Chicago.

The National Swine show to be held here in the fall is the one, all-absorbing topic of the prominent breeders of the east, Mr. Russell averred. The best known breeders throughout the east, Mr. Russell ascertained, are unanimous in agreeing that the porcine stock exposition scheduled for this city in October will be the Mecca for all of the country's leading hog show men.

Mr. Russell's itinerary included Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Michigan and Kentucky, and in all of these states the local farm paper editor found breeders preparing to bring their ribbon winners to the show in the Nebraska metropolis.

Among the prominent eastern herds that will be represented in Omaha is the one on the famous Hood farm at Lowell, Mass. This farm has a Berkshire herd that is known in every nook and corner of swineedom.

The blue ribbon contingent of the well known herd of Durac-Jerseys on the McKee Bros. farm at Versailles, Ky., will be brought to Omaha for the National Swine show.

While in Washington, D. C., Mr. Russell attended the meeting of dairymen. He found that discussion of the coming swine show here was one of their favorite topics.

In Champagne the Germans discharged dense clouds of gas along our front on the road between St. Hillaire at St. Souplet, and on the Zouaui-Zouaui-Py road.

"Our curtain of fire made it impossible for the enemy to launch an attack which it had prepared. "West of the Meuse (Verdun front) there was a violent bombardment during the night against our positions between Avocourt wood and Deadman's Hill. There was no in-attack."

"In Belgium an attack was made on one of our small listening posts. Five German Planes Hit. "Submarine Navarre brought down yesterday his eleventh German aeroplane. It fell within our lines at Chantonnay and the two occupants were captured. Another German aeroplane was attacked by Sublieutenant Nungesser and crashed down in the Bera forest. It was the fifth aeroplane brought down by this officer. Three other German aeroplanes were hit by our fire and were seen to fall vertically in the German lines.
