

CHARLES WARE TO LEAVE THE U. P.

General Manager Hands His Resignation to President Mohler, Who Resigned Thursday.

HE WILL REMAIN IN OMAHA

Thursday night President A. L. Mohler of the Union Pacific tendered his resignation to the executive committee and yesterday General Manager Charles Ware came along with his resignation was handed to President Mohler while he was at his office yesterday morning.

There is no stated time fixed for the resignation of Mr. Ware becoming effective. It asks that he be relieved from the duties of general manager of the Union Pacific at a time that will best suit the convenience of the president of the road.

The general manager of the Union Pacific is a creature of the president and due to the fact that the resignation of President Mohler becomes effective July 1, next, it is more than likely that he will hold the whole matter in obedience, turning it over to his successor, who will make the appointment.

Reason for Quitting. Although General Manager Ware asserts that he has had the resignation under consideration for some months, to his friends and to the railroad people it comes as a surprise. Asked why he resigned, Mr. Ware said:

"There are two reasons for quitting the position. The first is that my physical and mental condition is good and I want it to remain so.

"The second reason is that I have been engaged in active railroad work for thirty years. I want to rest and I want to travel. I have nothing in view for the future, so far as business or employment is concerned. I am through with railroading. I leave the Union Pacific with the best of feeling toward its officials and employees, from the highest to the lowest. It is the best road that I know of and it and its people have treated me kindly. Omaha will continue to be my home."

No Date Fixed. Mr. Ware, speaking of the time when he will leave the Union Pacific, said: "I did not fix a date for my resignation to become effective. This I have left to the president, regardless of whether it is Mr. Mohler, or his successor. I have left the matter in the hands of my superior officer and the date to suit his convenience."

Charles Ware was born in Jonesboro, Ill., January 31, 1863. He was educated in the public schools of the town and subsequently attended the Southern Illinois Normal university at Carbondale. His railroad career commenced in 1882, when he entered the employ of the Northwestern as a telegraph operator. He received numerous promotions, and at the time of resigning in 1909 and coming to the Union Pacific, he was chief train dispatcher.

With U. P. Twenty-six Years. Entering the employ of the Union Pacific June 17, 1890, Mr. Ware has remained with the company continuously. Until February 28, 1900, he was with the telegraph department as train dispatcher. From March 1 until May 3, 1900, he was chief train dispatcher. June 1, 1900, he was appointed assistant superintendent, continuing until April 20, 1905, when he was appointed superintendent. This position he held until March 9, 1910, when he was promoted to general superintendent, holding this position until July 1 of the same year. Then he was appointed assistant general manager and continued as such until August 21, 1912, when he was promoted to the position of general manager of the Union Pacific system, a position that he now resigns.

DEATH RECORD

Mrs. Evelyn Osborne. Mrs. Evelyn J. Osborne, wife of the late William Osborne, died at her home in Washington county Friday morning after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Osborne came to Nebraska in 1879. The family lived in Omaha several years before moving to Washington county. Mrs. Osborne is survived by four sons and one daughter. Two of the sons live in California. She leaves three brothers, one in Illinois, one in California and one in Nebraska. She was the sister of Mrs. M. G. McKoon of Los Angeles, Cal., who came east with her a few weeks ago. Mrs. Osborne has many relatives and friends in Omaha and Lincoln. The funeral was held at Elk City Saturday afternoon.

true to the Harriman regime as it is the needle to the pole.

There are all kinds of guesses as to who will succeed Mr. Mohler as the president and Mr. Ware as the general manager, but on account of developments, none of the guessers feel certain about being able to pick the men.

There is a growing opinion among some of the prominent railroad men of the city that with the retirement of Mohler and Ware, there will be a greater disposition upon the part of the members of the executive committee to manage the affairs of the road from the New York office and that while officials here will have the titles of president and general manager, respectively, as a matter of fact, they will be only high salaried clerks and with little more authority than the chief clerks in the offices at the present time.

New York Tightens Grip. For years the New York office of the Union Pacific has been tightening its grip on the executive authority and management, and month after month it has insisted that the balance sheets show a greater surplus, regardless of the conditions of the traffic, or expenses. There have been many times in the last couple of years when it has been necessary to trim down the expenses in order to make the monthly statements show the required balances.

Then, too, within the last few years the New York offices of the company have gradually usurped the jurisdiction of the executive offices here. This has been carried to the extent of requiring authority to expend money. This plan has been carried to the extent in order to expend even a small sum of money, it has been necessary to have the approval of the New York office.

So eager has the New York office been to have the Union Pacific property make money that it has ordered the curtailment of space in the headquarters building.

When the Omaha headquarters building was first occupied, departments and clerks were each given a reasonable amount of space. This space was sufficient so that there was no crowding. However, as the tenants increased, the quantity of space allotted to officials and clerks was cut down until now, when many of the floors' desks are piled in closely and men and women working in crowded quarters in order that there may be more rooms to rent and bring in revenue.

The two officials who are quitting the Union Pacific assert that the most pleasant relations maintain between themselves and the New York officers of the company and that the conditions that have been brought have nothing to do with their resignations. Railroad men, however, who are outside the Union Pacific family, assert that the treatment that has been accorded ought to rankle in the breasts of the two men and that if it does, it has undoubtedly hastened their resignations.

BATTLESHIP NEBRASKA ORDERED TO VERA CRUZ

Washington, May 20.—The battleship Nebraska, in reserve at the Boston navy yard, today was ordered to Vera Cruz to relieve the Kentucky, which has been assigned to the naval militia of New York City, Brooklyn and Jersey City for summer maneuvers. The transfer of the ship is in line with the policy established by Rear Admiral Benson, chief of operations, to keep reserve battleships in operation as much as possible as a means of continuing their efficiency.

GREAT BRITAIN SETS CLOCK UP ONE HOUR

Daylight Saving Scheme Becomes Effective at Two O'clock Sunday Morning For Four Months.

SWEDEN ALSO PASSES LAW

London, May 20.—The hands on all clocks on British railroads, postoffices, newspaper offices, police stations and other places where business is conducted throughout the night will be pushed forward at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning to 3 o'clock, in accordance with the daylight saving act. The general public will put their clocks and watches one hour ahead before going to bed tonight, or will awake to find themselves late for breakfast.

The new schedule will run until September 30, when clocks will be stopped for an hour. Factories, banks, stores, trains, theaters and restaurants will conform to the new time schedule. There is a small, old-fashioned section of the people who have derided the daylight saving scheme, but they will be practically forced into line by its acceptance in all public institutions.

The only exception will be the parks in the large cities which open an hour later to allow people the benefit of more fresh air.

The hour of 2 on Sunday morning was selected for the change because fewer trains are running then than at any other time during the week.

Christiana, May 20.—(Via London.)—The legislature has passed the daylight savings bill advancing the clock one hour. The new regulation goes into effect on May 22.

The passage of the daylight savings bill by Norway makes the new time system common to all northern Europe. Germany adopted the new schedule on May 1, and was followed by England, France, Holland and the Scandinavian countries.

GENERAL WOOD SUGGESTED AS COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

Chicago, May 20.—Friends of General Leonard A. Wood are said to be planning to present his name to the republican national convention as a compromise candidate for president. They believe that if there is a prolonged deadlock in the balloting he may have a chance to win. His supporters assert that he would be acceptable to Colonel Roosevelt.

John A. Stewart, former secretary of the League of Republican Clubs of New York state, said to be in charge of work in the interest of General Wood, arrived in Chicago today. Political literature for General Wood's candidacy has been sent to the convention delegates and it is said headquarters for him will be opened in Chicago next week.

Mercer Vernon of Washington, D. C., arrived today as advance agent of the presidential boom of Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts. He asserted his candidate would have 175 votes on the first ballot in the convention.

YUAN SHI KAI TAKES BLAME

Realized Error in Making Change in Government and Tries to Provide a Remedy.

HAS SUPPORT OF NATION

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Peking, May 14.—Acknowledging its responsibility in the monarchial movement, the state council, sitting as an acting parliament, has dissolved itself to prove to the opponents of the monarchy that the acting parliament realized its worthlessness and the great error it made in urging the throne upon President Yuan Shi-kai.

The acting parliament was called in special session by order of the president immediately he had announced the cancellation of the monarchy, and its session of March 25 was probably the last it will hold, as President Yuan Shi-kai will doubtless approve the dissolution of the acting parliament. Before adjourning the acting parliament took action restoring all laws of the republic which were cancelled or in any way affected by the legislation providing for the re-establishment of the monarchy.

Kiang Han Makes Statement.

Kiang Han, the member who moved that the acting parliament should dissolve itself as a proof of its guilt in advising a change in the form of government, said: "The change of government was brought about rashly without due and careful consideration. Fortunately, our great president is a man of kind and benevolent disposition and capable of piercing through mystery, and has issued a mandate shouldering all the responsibilities for the crime by abruptly cancelling the same. Careful consideration will show that, although those who first advocated the monarchy cannot escape blame for having done so, the Tsan Cheng Yuan (state council) nevertheless also shared in committing the crime for acting as principal representatives of the people. A man so ignorant of law like myself is unable to say whether the organization of the convention of the citizens' representatives was legal; but I am convinced that in spite of the cancellation of the monarchy, it is doubtful whether the parties in the south will be satisfied with it or if the province of Yunnan and Kweichow will cease fighting. In addition to these facts we must also remember that a strong neighboring country has been eagerly expectant."

"Since the great president has courageously taken on himself the responsibility of the crime, we should also wind up our business and ask the government to dissolve the organ in order that, on the one hand, we may thus offer apology to the citizens, and on the other hand, to the great president, while at the same time appeasing our own conscience."

Liang Shih-yi and other prominent leaders opposed the motion, saying it was the duty of the members of the acting parliament to stick to their posts in spite of troubles which have come upon the country, and try to save the government rather than their own lives. After a spirited debate the acting parliament adopted the measure by a majority vote.
