LODGE ROOM NEWS OF GREATER OMAHA

South Omaha Camp of W. O. W. Entertains Members With Old-Fashioned Party.

PROGRAM OF MUSIC GIVEN

One of the pleasing entertainments of the season was given on last Tuesday evening by South Omaha Camp No. 211, W. O. W., when it entertained its members and their families with a real old fashioned program. Some excellent musical selections were rendered.

Kosciuzko Camp No. 352 will meet at Woodmen of the World Hall, Twenty-seventh and L streets, on Sunday, June 4, at 2 o'clock, for initiation. This camp has increased in membership from seventy-one to more than one hundred members in fifty days.

Columbus, No. 69, will meet on Sunday, June 4, at 12 o'clock at Prague hall, Thirteenth and William streets, to transact its regular monthly business.

Florence No. 505 will meet on Thursday evening, June 1, at city hall, Florence, to transact its regular monthly business. At the close the protection degree will be conferred upon a number of candidates.

Hungarian Petofi No. 473 will meet at 4502 North Sixteenth street, Monday evening to plan a campaign for new members. Anton Adler, clerk, is anxious for a larger membership.

The first of a series of summer picnics to be given by Alpha Camp No. 1, will be held today at Fontenelle park, for Alpha Camp members, their families and friends. Many contests for prizes are scheduled so that all desiring to enter can do so.

Woodmen Circle Notes.

Welcome Grove will entertain the children of the members of its circle and Druid Camp at Druid hall, on Saturday afternoon, June 3. These entertainments are given annually.

The female quartet, recently organized in Welcome Grove, is proving very popular.

K. and L. of Security.

Omaha Council No. 2295 of the Knights and Ladies of Security will give a shadow party at Myrtle hall, Fifteenth and Douglas streets, May 30, each lady furnishing lunch for two.

Maccabees.

Omaha Review No. 46, Maccabees, give a dance at Ancient Order of United Workmen hall Saturday evening, June 3.

Brotherhood of American Yeoman.

Last Wednesday evening Omaha Homestead No. 1404 gave a free dance to its members. Next Wednesday evening the homestead will give a box social in its hall in Labor Temple for the benefit of the drill team. Miss Nettie Jordan, captain of the team, is anxious to get the team in shape to win the first prize at the state conclave in North Platte, next April. Mrs. Dellone, Lady Rowena of the lodge, is planning a series of entertainments for the summer months which will be unique in Yeomen circles. Amos E. Henely Corres has accepted the invitation of Fremont homestead, Fremont, Neb., to deliver the Yeomen memorial address at Fremont. It is expected that a large delegation will go from here if the weather is favorable.

Modern Woodmen.

B. & M. camp, Modern Woodmen of America held its regular meeting at the camp's club room, 218 Bee building, Tuesday evening, May 23.

After disposing of the regular business, a good fellowship meeting was held and enjoyed by all. Neighbors Fred Dickinson, E. B. Miller and P. I. DeVal were present and favored the camp with short talks.

Tribe of Ben Hur.

The regular meeting of the Mecca Court No. 13 was enjoyed by all present. Ten new applications were read.

The chorus work is progressing rapidly under the direction of Sister Alice McKenzie. Thursday evening, June 1, will be an open meeting for the members and their friends.

Steel Work on Bank Building is Now Almost Finished

The steel skeleton of the new First National bank building, Sixteenth and Farnam streets, is now the full fourteen stories high.

This steel work, which is very nearly completed, has progressed with remarkable dispatch. Better equipment for handling steel construction has probably never been in operation in Omaha. During the early part of the week, the steel workers quit work during one afternoon. It was said by some they had merely quit for the want of the necessary material to work with for one-half day. By others it was said they had quit because of a police demonstration made there when some of the striking building laborers had stepped into the building and created something of a disturbance.

At any rate, it is now given out that the strike is not to affect the steel work on this building, and that this part of it is soon to be finished.

Dress Reform in Local Swedish Singing Society

Cream colored serge trousers, blue serge coat, soft white shirt, navy blue four-in-hand tie. How is that for comfort and appearance in a mass chorus of 500? When the local Swedish Singing society "Norden" recently submitted this to a referendum vote of the American Union of Swedish Singers, as a substitute for the regulation full dress, which has been in vogue at all former festivals, the singers with one accord answered in the affirmative.

The singers will make their initial appearance in this uniform at the festival concerts at the Omaha Auditorium, June 19 and 20. Besides being pleasing to the eye, and giving a measure of comfort to those on the concert stage, the uniforms should make a striking appearance in the parade schedule for Monday afternoon, June 19.

Deputy Sheriffs Bring Home Fish

One doesn't need expensive flies and paraphernalia, nor even a long railroad ticket, to catch fish, declares Deputy Sheriff Ed Palmer, who is going about exhibiting a snapshot of himself and four friends carrying 125 big fish caught near Elk City.

"All you need is to know how to catch 'em," Palmer advises.

"And have plenty of bait," added Deputy Bill Hogan, who was a member of the party.

"Be sure to carry your bait in a jug," put in Deputy Jim Lindsey, who also helped betray the fish. George Moore and Chris Christensen were the other members of the party.

According to the picture, the fish range in size from a senegambian seam squirrel up to the length of a period between drinks when it's George Moore's turn to buy.

Eight Billion of Dollars Held by The Reserve Banks

Washington, May 28.—Resources of nearly $8,000,000,000, a new high record, was held by the national banks in the central reserve and reserve cities of the country on May 1, comptroller Williams announced tonight. He issued this statement:

"The abstract of conditions of all national banks in the central reserve and reserve cities as of May 1, shows that their resources have reached another high water mark, total resources being reported at $7,976,000,000, an increase of $259,000,000 over the call of March 7.

"The deposits in the national banks were $6,593,000,000, an increase of $249,000,000, while loans and discounts increased only $48,000,000 or from $4,164,000,000 to $4,212,000,000 on Mya 1. In the central reserve cities of New York, Chicago and St. Louis, deposits increased $186,000,000, while there was an actual reduction in loans for the period of over $24,000,000. In reserve cities deposits increased $62,000,000, while loans increased over $73,000,000.

MT. ST. MARY'S EXERCISES TO BE HELD ON JUNE 12

The commencement exercises of Mount St. Mary's seminary will be held at the Creighton auditorium Monday, June 12, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Rt. Rev. Monsignor A. M. Colaneri will preside.

The following are the members of the 1916 graduating class: Miss Helen Russell, Miss Mary Lowry, Miss Esther Daniels, Miss Catherine Smith, Miss Bernadette Martin, Miss Mayme Foley, Miss Frances Mostyn, Miss Helen Gustason and Miss Margaret Heavican.

On the day preceding the commencement Miss Helen Rosenbaum, a graduate in music, will give a piano recital at the Creighton auditorium. The program will start at 3 o'clock.

DANIEL DWYER LOSES MONEY TO ROBBER

While walking down South Twelfth street last night, Daniel Dwyer, 1145 North Eighteenth street, was accosted by a stranger who afterward strong-armed him and robbed him of $5 in money and a bill book containing some valuable papers.

The man has made his getaway and has not been found as yet.

CASTELLAR YOUNG PEOPLE WIN OUT IN BIBLE CONTEST

A scriptures' contest between the South Side United Presbyterian and the Castelar Presbyterian churches was held Friday evening in the latter church. Over 900 Biblical verses were quoted by the contestants, who were members of the junior classes, and the contest was won by the Castelar young people.

TODAY—See Chapter Two of The Film Novel of the Hour!

Presented by American Film Company, Inc.

This wonderful motion picture success enters upon its second big week, its second pulsating chapter today. Again tremendous crowds will sit amazed at the startling climaxes, the mighty thrills enacted by Thomas Chatterton and Juanita Hansen, the popular co-stars and the strong company supporting them.

Smashing Scenes That Hold Great Throngs Spellbound!!

Chapter Two of "The Secret of the Submarine" is a remarkable production in itself! It alone represents a fortune expended to film astounding events under and over the sea. You remember the terrific ending of Chapter One! The submarine was going down—the occupants facing death! Today, Chapter Two begins at that point—

Starts With the Fierce Undersea Struggle—Today!

The first flash on the screen shows the doomed dive-boat, the rising water in the cabin, the terrific struggle for life hundreds of feet down in the ocean! What can save the submarine? Will the inventor be mysteriously murdered and the "secret" disappear? See the answer today at your favorite theatre. Read E. Alexander Powell's novelization of "The Secret of the Submarine" in this newspaper.
