KAWS DROP THIRD GAME TO ROURKES

Freddy Bruck Hurls Air-Tight Ball While His Mates Hammer Home 5 to 3 Victory Behind Him.

FORSYTHE GETS OUT OF SLUMP

With Freddy Bruck on the firing line to nip any attempted hostile charges in the bud and the heavy Rourke artillery on the job with effective shelling, Pa Rourke's de luxe athletes wound up the long home series with a victory over Topeka yesterday, 5 to 3. The victory made it a clean sweep of the Topeka series of three games, and also made a total of eight victories against four defeats on the entire home series, which is a pretty respectable average if anybody should inquire.

NEW ROURKE HURLER HOLDS THE KAWS TIGHT.

FRED BRUCK

A Clean Sweep

Bruck hurled a neat game of ball yesterday, and nary a one of the Topeka runs were earned. Freddy was nicked for but five hits, and only in one inning was more than one hit made, two were clouted in the sixth. But the most noteworthy event of the Sabbath matinee was the slugging performance of Cyrus Forsythe. For, these many days Cyrus has been in a terrible batting slump. He couldn't hit any kind of pitching.

Mr. Hall, the opposition hurler, lost his first game yesterday. Previously Hall led the league with six straight victories. It took the Rourkes to land the K. O. punch on the record.

Cyrus Triples Twice. Omaha scored its first run in the second on Forsythe's triple and Burg's single. Forsythe's triple and Kilduff's safety counted another run at the fourth.

The game was brought home in the eighth. Manager Marty opened the stanza by drawing a walk. Miller sacrificed and Ernie Krueger combed a double to right, scoring Krug. Forsythe beat out an infield hit, sending Ernie to third. Kilduff also beat out an infield safety and Krueger counted and Forsythe galloped to third. Burg's sacrifice fly counted Cyrus.

Shag Robbed of Two. Hall was given great support by his mates, but it wasn't enough. Shag Thompson was the victim of foul plots on the part of Krueger and Tydeman. Both of these outfielders snared balls off Thompson's bat that should have gone out, and Krueger also robbed Smith of a hit, and Goodwin made a beautiful stop of a drive by Burg.

The Rourkes go away today for a long series on the road. They leave for Des Moines at 6 o'clock this morning. After four games in the Iowa capital they hike for Wichita, and then play Denver, Topeka and St. Joseph before returning home on June 20.

Willie Hoare is Playing Bum Golf This Year, Oh, Yes

Willie Hoare, professional at the Country club, occasionally plays golf himself. Willie has always had something of a reputation as a successful player. "How's the game this year, Willie?" questioned a curious reporter seeking information. "Oh, not much," responded Hoare, "Don't get much time any more, too busy teaching, and working around." "Haven't you played the course yet?" persisted the reporter. "Yeah, went around in '75 the other day," answered Willie. "Seventy-five?" said the reporter. "That's rotten isn't it? That the only time?" "Oh, I made a 73, too," said Willie, musing a few thoughts this time. Whereupon the reporter went out and made a few investigations. From other sources he found Willie has made a 72, 73 on three occasions and a 75 in five starts this year. "Yeah, you're a rotten golfer, Willie," he said to Hoare when he found out a person again. "The only trouble with you is you're too modest to be alive."

Directors Eat Up Managers in Combat that Breaks All Records

Twenty-two of the most marvelous athletes the world ever saw or ever will see, played a game of alleged baseball Sunday morning at Rourke park. To Messrs. Jake Isaacson and Louis Cook, self-appointed managers of the rival nines, must go the credit for the unparalleled miracle of assembling such a brilliant array of talent at the same time. It was some ball game. Five innings were played and when it was all over it was at first thought it would be necessary to call for the police-palmer to resuscitate the twenty-two desperate and daring heroes.

The combat was between the board of directors of the Omaha Amateur Base Ball association and the managers of the Greater Omaha league. The former won the game 11 to 9, according to the official scorer who was the only person present who knew what was going on and he had the time of his life to keep track. Louis Cook, the vaquished pilot, declares he will protest the game on the grounds that he was double-crossed. He came up in a pinch one time and Joe Wavrin handed him a left-handed bat and he struck out. George Clark and Frank Suchy are the lads who chucked the directors to a victory. Clark started the game and pitched two innings. It was the first time Clark had a ball in his hand since 1907, he says. He was all in by the time he had put on his suit, but he hurled two rounds on his nerve and whiffed five men. Suchy went to the rescue and chucked the last three spasms.

INDIANS SHUT OUT TWICE BY THE SOX

Coume Loses His First Game of Season in Duel with Scott.

Chicago, May 28.—Chicago shut out Cleveland 2 to 0 in both games of a double header here today. The first was a pitchers' duel between Scott and Coume in which the latter lost, it being his first defeat of the season. The locals won by opportune hitting.

In the second game Morton's winning streak was broken. He had won eight straight and his downfall was the direct result of erratic support. Faber was his opponent and pitched a mastery game.

The shutouts administered to the visitors were the first they have received this season. Score first game: CLEVELAND: Chicago. Score second game: CLEVELAND: Chicago.

Josh Billings Gets Decision Over Bill

Josh Billings of the Cleveland Indians, is in bad with Bill Donovan, manager of the Yankees. When Umpire Dineen chased Pitcher Caldwell from one of the games in New York Donovan walked out to insert a few emphatic remarks into the argument, whereupon Billings yelled from the Cleveland bench. Enraged, Donovan turned to the Indian dugout and yelled: "Who is the man with so much mouth?" Up jumped Josh, who is not afraid of anything that walks, and said: "I am the man; what are you going to do about it?" "It's a long time since I've seen your name in the box score," retorted Donovan. "They don't need me when they are playing a team like yours," was Josh's answer. "Guess you are finding out you can't buy a pennant, Bill." The bell rang; Donovan retired to his corner and the other Indians gave Josh the decision.

Tiger Coach Names Assistants for the Coming Season

New York, May 27.—In naming his staff of assistant coaches for the 1916 football season, John Harland Rush of Princeton shows that he has profited by his twelve months' association with Princeton football. He has selected what appears to be an ideal combination of instruction in various departments of play. First, there are Arthur Bluestenthal, who was center on the Princeton eleven of recent years, and R. E. Cruikshank, center two years ago on the Washington and Jefferson eleven. Cruikshank is now in the Princeton Theological seminary, and is an adept at the roving style of center play which Rush wishes to develop at Princeton. As in times past, when post-graduate students were permitted to play on the big eleven Princeton utilized their services.
