Advices from Lincoln as to the ar rangements and accommodations for visitors at the pageant, which will be held next Monday and Tuesday, are that special plans have been made for taking care of motorists and their Special arrangements have been made for ample space for parking automobiles and for full police pro-tection. Hundreds of Omaha automobilists are expected to make the run to the capital city to see the Pageant of Lincoln, which will in-clude "The Gate City," a masque of Omaha.

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP FOR GIRLS ON THURSDAY

Annabel Douglas, present title holder, and Ruby Swenson, winner of the spring tournament, will play their championship match for the school title Thursday afternoon on the high school courts. Ruby Swenson won her right to contest Annabel Douglas by defeating her sister, Ruth, last week.

The winner of this match will get possession of the school cup. If Miss Douglas can successfully defend her title this time she will retain per-manent possession of the cup, since she has won it twice before.
