

HUGHES WILL LEAD ON FIRST BALLOT

Justice Estimated to Have From 175 to 225 Delegates, Over Hundred More Than T. R.

LEADERS HAVE ADMITTED THIS

Chicago, June 4.—Republican organization leaders admitted tonight that Charles E. Hughes would get more votes on the first ballot for the presidential nomination than any of his competitors.

The organization forces estimate Roosevelt's first ballot strength at less than 150, but admit that his vote will grow when the favorite son candidates begin to drop out of the race.

Plan for Harmony. What will happen after the first few ballots are taken and the favorite son candidates begin to quit the race, nobody seems able to predict at this time.

The organization leaders are said to be counting on the assistance of the Roosevelt delegates to defeat Hughes and later to have the Hughes men aid them in preventing Roosevelt from obtaining the nomination.

Claims of Managers. Following is a statement of the number of votes claimed by the managers of the different candidates on the first ballot:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name, Votes. Includes Hughes (292), Knox (56), Weeks (20), Cumberbatch (41), Roosevelt (175), Ford (30), Burton (112), La Follette (26), Cummins (106), Gen. Wood (15), Fairbanks (93), Dupont (14), Root (75), Borah (3), Sherman (6).

There was some talk today of a plan to adopt the party platform before nominating the candidate for president, but this suggestion brought a vigorous protest from the friends of Hughes who professed to see in the move a scheme to injure the chances of their candidate.

Moore's Suggestion. One of the developments that aroused interest during the day was a suggestion made by Alexander P. Moore of Pennsylvania, who is a delegate and an ardent Roosevelt supporter.

It was understood earlier in the day that Mr. Moore had made a definite proposition to Mr. Penrose, but Mr. Moore said it was only a suggestion thrown out by him while in the headquarters of the Pennsylvania senator.

New Yorkers Arrive. Fred C. Tanner, state chairman; Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr.; Elton R. Brown and Herbert Parsons of New York joined the leaders from other states today and announced that Governor Whitman and the others of the New York delegation would arrive here tomorrow on a special train.

Only Minority on Hand. Only a minority of the delegates to the convention had arrived here up to tonight. The number was estimated at 300. Among those who arrived today were those from Arizona and other far western states.

committee would seat one delegation or the other unless an amicable agreement to divide the seats was reached. In other years, two delegations from Louisiana have been seated but the inclination of the committee and the refusal of the contestants stand in the way of such settlement this year.

In three days hearing contests, the national committee has disposed of delegate contests in seven states, leaving twenty-eight contests yet to be settled.

Contests Settled. The contests heard and determined were from the following states: Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Texas. In addition to the contests heard and disposed of the committee has heard the evidence and arguments in the Louisiana contests covering four delegates at large and eight congressional district delegates.

DR. PETERS TALKS TO OMAHA UNI CLASS

Graduates to Number of Eleven Appear With Caps and Gowns.

CLOSE OF SUCCESSFUL YEAR

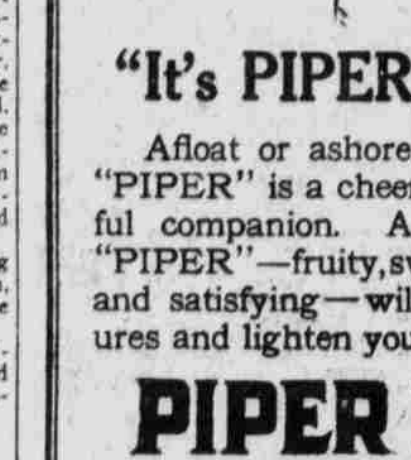

Rev. George L. Peters, at the North Side Christian church yesterday morning, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the University of Omaha.

The eleven members of the class appeared in caps and gowns. Rev. Dr. D. E. Jenkins, president, and Rev. W. N. Halsey, dean, assisted the pastor in the services. Dr. Peters announced that the year just closing has been by far the most successful in the history of the institution.

Rev. Mr. Peters took as his text the rebuke of Christ to Satan. "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Crushed Beneath His Auto; Family Safe

Monroe, Neb., June 4.—(Special Telegram.)—George Ditter of this place was crushed beneath his auto this morning while on his way to Norfolk. The accident occurred three miles north of Platte Center and Ditter died from his injuries after being taken from under the machine. While going down a hill he lost control of the machine and it turned over and his family was thrown out. His wife was badly bruised but the children escaped.

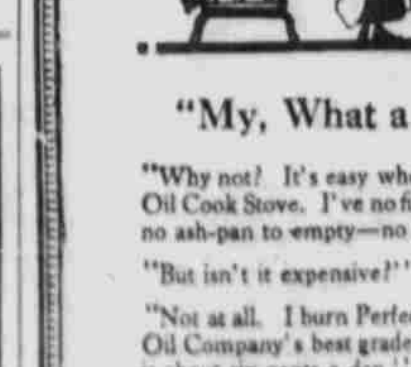

"It's PIPER, Of Course"

Afloat or ashore, at work or at play, "PIPER" is a cheerful, comfortable, helpful companion. A big, juicy chew of "PIPER"—fruity, sweet, lasting, refreshing and satisfying—will heighten your pleasures and lighten your cares.

PIPER Heidsieck CHEWING TOBACCO

Ripe, tender White Burley leaf, carefully selected and fully aged, gives "PIPER" its unequalled chewing quality. The sweet, fruity, appetizing taste of "PIPER," which makes it unique among chewing tobaccos, comes from the famous "PIPER" flavor. This flavor is hard pressed through the plug, slowly and evenly, so that every chew is saturated with tasty, delicious juice. One trial will show you how superior "PIPER" is to all other chews.

rails of a railroad track misses the glorious perspective of the railroad, the wonders of its speed, the poetry of its possibilities. He sees only two steel rails, some wooden ties, some cinder or rock ballast, when he ought to see the great steel highway over which luxurious trains speed at 60 miles an hour to a thousand cities and towns.

"There are many poorly balanced people in the world. Some of these drudge their lives away for money. Others sell their souls for fame. And when they come to the end they see that all has been folly, vanity, vexation of spirit. The material things of life are the least important. They have their places, but they must be kept in their places."

Wicked Passes Away. "The Psalmist says, 'I have seen the wicked in great power and spreading himself like a green bay tree; yet he passed away and lo, he was not.' That is the fate of those whose god is mammon."

"A wise man once carved in his splendid home these words, 'I must leave it.' They are words that may well be applied to all things worldly. The eternal things abide. And faith in the eternal things is the power that has inspired all the great men and women of history."

"The bread of earthly things has its rightful place in our diet. But do not live 'by bread alone.'"

Don't Overshadow God. "Making money, making a name for yourselves, getting as much fun as possible, these things are all right in their places when in correct proportion," he said. "But don't let them become so important in your minds and hearts that they overshadow God. Keep the right perspective of life. The man who looks too closely at the
