LINCOLN PAGEANT IS ON THIS WEEK

Event of Season Will Occupy Attention of People of the State's Capital.

TO BE ELABORATELY STAGED

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 4.—(Special.)—The event of the season for Lincoln will occupy the attention of the people this week, beginning Monday and continuing until Tuesday evening.

The Pageant of Lincoln is being put on this year in a more elaborate style than was attempted last year and while the 1915 event was a grand success it is expected that this will far eclipse it.

The 1915 Pageant was some what of an experiment, but the experiment stage has passed and by the attention which it is receiving over the state will bring big crowds to the city.

Tuesday will be Omaha day and reservations for the metropolitan city visitors made, indicate that there will be a big crowd from that city.

The athletic grounds at the university will be the scene of the pageant and are being fixed up in elaborate shape.

Musicians' Union Enjoined by Court

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, June 4.—(Special.)—A case of much interest to the unions, and especially to the musicians' union, was heard in district court here yesterday, in which G. Fred Thornburg, a Lincoln musician, secured a restraining order prohibiting the Lincoln musicians' union or any member thereof from interfering in any way with his securing contracts for playing.

Mr. Thornburg is a music instructor and has a band and orchestra, and is at the head of the Second Regimental band of the Nebraska National Guard. Three years ago the union refused him further participation in its organization. Since that time Thornburg alleges that it has been hard work for him to secure contracts and has practically put him out of business.

Relative of James Brothers in Prison

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, June 4.—(Special.)—Frank C. James, claiming to be a relative of Frank and Jesse James, the Missouri bandits, was received at the Nebraska penitentiary with three other men, Robert Weston, Ray H. Johnson and Clyde Hoover.

The men were brought from Cheyenne county, where they were given indeterminate sentences of from one to three years for highway robbery, having been convicted of holding up a man and abstracting $53 from his pockets.

Two Nebraska Jails Declared Modern

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, June 4.—(Special.)—Two counties in north Nebraska have modern jails, according to Secretary Shahan of the Board of Charities and Corrections, who recently visited that part of the state on an inspection trip. These counties are Sheridan and Box Butte.

The other counties, four in number—Grant, Hooker, Thomas and Blaine—have poor jails, it is declared.

Busy Week Ahead For Graduates at The Uni of Omaha

This week promises to be the busiest of the year for the senior graduating class of the University of Omaha. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Rev. G. H. Peters of the North Side Christian church will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. Tuesday evening, following the close of the examinations, the members of the senior class will be the guests at a faculty reception to be given in Redick hall. At first it was planned to have the reception at the home of Dr. Jenkins, president of the university, but as the building will be torn down before long it was thought best to have the final reception in the old building.

The seniors will hold their class day program in John Jacobs Memorial hall Wednesday afternoon. One of the features of the program will be the presentation by the junior class of a group picture of all the seniors and alumni of the college.

Irving S. Cutter, dean of the University of Nebraska Medical college, will be the principal speaker at the commencement exercises to be held in John Jacobs Memorial hall Thursday evening. Archie Carpenter, chairman of the board of trustees, will hand out the diplomas.

NORTHWESTERN R. R. CROP REPORTS GENERALLY GOOD

Reports from stations in Nebraska on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad show that the soil is in good condition, one district reporting "fine." Wheat and oats are coming along in a favorable manner, the reports ranging from good to fine. Hay and pasture are both good, according to the reports.

Reports on corn vary, some localities advising that the crop is all in and doing fine, while other sections tell of backwardness. As a general thing, however, corn along the line of the Northwestern is in satisfactory condition, the report says.
