SHERMAN & M'CONNELL HAVE RECEPTION AT NEW STORE

Sherman & McConnell held open house yesterday in their newest store at Nineteenth and Farnam streets, where the proprietors and the employes who have been with them for some years were on hand to welcome all their old friends. This is the fourth store now operated in Omaha by this enterprising firm, and the Mezzanine room on the second floor proved to be popular from the start.

The store was crowded all day and the proprietors had a surprise for many of the women in the way of a treat at the soda fountain. With the basement, which is occupied by part of the subscription department, this store is practically three stories, and, judging from the rush at the opening, all this spacious room will be needed.

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Firemen at Engine House No. Five, South Side, Make Record as Heroes.

NO CLUE TO NEGRO ASSAILANT

Firemen at engine house No. 5, the headquarters of the batallion chiefs and the chief fire department illuminaries of this part of Greater Omaha, are getting to be experts in the hero line, at least so many of their comrades aver. Not long since one captain attained fame by rescuing a woman from flames of a second floor room. Lo and behold, last week, directly in front of the fire station, two run-aways were nipped in the bud, and the lives of many probably saved.

Captain Charles Sutherland and Fireman Walter Bernhart are the men of the hour. To them belong the laurels.

On Memorial day Bernhardt threw himself full at the neck of a raging steed dashing along the street at full speed with an ice cream cart dangling dangerously in the rear and checked the steed right before the eyes of his teammates. The praise was healthy at the moment, at least Cap Sutherland must have thought so Friday.

As the dusk was just beginning to melt into darkness, loungers at the station heard a cry of distress followed by a sudden exclamation from their captain. The latter rushed to the door with an oath, threw off his coat and hat and with a grim remark, "I'll get him or die," threw himself at the necks of a heavy team coming up the street at full speed. The attack came so sudden that but a few of the firemen witnessed the battle between the raging steeds and the fireman. Finally he was able to leap on their backs and bring them to a standstill a block or so away, amid the cheers of his comrades. Chief Coyle decked the hero with a carnation.

A few minutes later a perspiring driver came up the street. He thanked the captain and went his way, neither disclosing his identity or showing appreciation for the good deed rendered by the man of fire fighting fame.

Police Lose Trail.

Despite the strenuous efforts of Captain Briggs and South Side police to trace the young negro who robbed and assaulted Mrs. Stavonek at her home at Thirty-second avenue and B street yesterday morning, the culprit evaded arrest. Every inch of the roads leading out into the northwest county was covered by the officers in charge of the hunt and all that could be obtained was a passing word every so often that a negro had passed through a short time before the arrival of the police.

Dense shrubbery and railroad bridges afforded the negro refuge to hide temporarily from the police, it is thought, and he finally swung back into the city again.

In the struggle with Mrs. Slavonek, the latter bit the negro's fingers and this will afford a means of identification should the police capture the man, which they are confident of doing. The negro carried a small blue steel gun at the time of the assault.

Armour Camp Opening.

Announcement was made in the office of General Manager R. C. Howe of the local Armour packing plant, that the annual "Armour Camp" at King's lake, would open the eighteenth of this month. Office help, the girls first, will be delegated to a vacation of two weeks on pay at the camp. Each week of the series, a team of the girls will go to the lake and spend their vacation outdoors.

The success of the venture last year was tremendous. From all parts of the country the plan received commendation and Armour help were the most pleased of any. All workmen office or otherwise, will have an opportunity to take a vacation at the camp. It is said that a woman campmaster of exceptional merit, has been obtained to watch the camp this summer while the girls are there. Lessons in cooking and domestic science will be taught.

Police Raid Two.

A "craps" game in the back yard of the Last Chance saloon at the foot of Railroad avenue, was raided early last evening by Detectives Gillen and Allen and Officers Hiatt, Danbaum and Jackman. Eight young men were brought to the station.

About the same time a disorderly house at Twenty-fifth and N streets was raided by Detectives Gillen and Allen. Nora Bush, colored, was arrested as proprietor and another man and woman taken as inmates. The police were kept busy a good part of last evening.

Piano Recital Attended.

Thirty-seven pupils of Miss Frances L. Forrest, pianist of the South Side, presented selections each at a big recital held under the direction of Miss Forrest at Library hall at Twenty-third and M streets, Friday evening. The small auditorium of the library was packed with an audience of proud parents and interested friends.

The names of those who took part: Margaret Giddings, Margaret Curran, Kathryn Jane, Manly McCarty, Marie Daily, Helen and Emil Pipal, Marie McCarty, Margaret Hinchey, Lillian Williams, Molly Turner, Vivian Howe, Eva Hughes, Mary Swingholm, Helen Korb, Josephine Furst, Clara Ratsman, Arthur Callahan, Theresa Hughes, Clarence Spearman, Lord Carter, Ethel Harland, Clara Ebrel, Dorothy Lange, Mamie Jerman, Minnie Armstrong, Loyd Rowe, Mary Ellis, Mildred Christensen, Mary Grove, Milan Boden, Helen Vavra, Dolly Jacobs, Celia Lipp, Clara Donahue, Lorretta Meany and George Hughes, Jr. The latter two terminated the program with an excellent selection entitled, "Spi Vivo Gaino," by Gazi.

An election of officers for Nebraska lodge, No. 227, Ancient Order of United Workmen, was held Thursday evening at the McCrann hall. The following members were elected:

George Bergstrom, past master workman; Bernard A. Fiserle, master workman; William Pitman, foreman; Andrew J. Peterson, overseer; John J. Nightingale, recorder; William McKinley, financier; Joseph R. Garba, treasurer; Edward Sine, guide; Felix Bauer, inside watchman; Charles Stout, outside watchman and trustee.

Wheeler Principal Speaker.

Dr. R. I. Wheeler will deliver the principal address on the program to be given Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Ancient Order of United Workmen temple at Twenty-fifth and M streets, in recognition of the thirteenth anniversary celebration of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska. The pastor will choose for his topic, "Pioneer Fraternalism."

A long list of popular features has been arranged for the program to be followed by the serving of refreshments.

Stock Yards Notes.

More than fifty local stockmen and commission men at the exchange attended the funeral of their old comrade, Rupert B. Swain, who died last week. It was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Ellsworth and the large delegation of attending friends and business associates assembled at the house and proceeded to the cemetery in a body.

Hulbert of the First Congregational church conducted the body to Prospect Hill cemetery.

Preparations are being made to entertain the big delegation of eastern newspaper men who will arrive in Omaha Monday under the colors of "an advertising men's excursion." The entire party is scheduled to assemble before the Armour & Co. plant Monday morning at 8:10 o'clock, from where they will make the trip through the packing houses and the yards. Special attention will be called to the new concrete hog sheds now under construction. A visit will be made to the exchange and the horse and mule barns, where the First National Swine Growers' convention will be held.

Albert Noe, an old soldier of civil war experience, was appointed as leader and a committee of three appointed to make arrangements for the participation of the stock yards exchange in the annual Flag day celebration in Omaha, June 14, at a meeting of the Live Stock exchange held Saturday afternoon. The yards will be closed at 1 o'clock on that day in recognition of the event. The Elks' celebration and entertainment will not be hindered in the least by the new arrangement, according to an announcement at the meeting. All South Side and stock yards Elks will meet at the exchange at 1 o'clock to be entertained at luncheon in the dining room of the exchange. At 1:30 the delegations will march en masse to take part in the parade with the exchange employes. They will leave the exchange building at that hour.

Social Notes.

Mrs. Fred Scott and son, Richard, of Norfolk are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Scott of the South Side.

The Regina club entertained at a dancing party Thursday evening at the Centurion club rooms. A large attendance from both clubs was recorded.

Mrs. F. H. Etter and Mrs. H. L. McCoy left last Saturday for Los Angeles, where they were called by the death of their sister, Mrs. Bessie Gosney Hutchan.

Mrs. Harry Boyd will entertain the New Century club at her home next Thursday afternoon. The hostess has arranged a splendid program for the afternoon.

The Jolly Twelve club will be entertained by Mrs. Lang Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock luncheon. After the luncheon the tables will be cleared for bridge. Members made plans for a picnic at Ralston next Friday. Mrs. Charles Dawson will be hostess.
