

LITTLE LAD HANGS IN WINDOW BY NECK

Is Caught by Falling Window. But is Rescued After Losing Consciousness.

HE IS RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

Frantically clutching the air with his hands, while his little head was firmly wedged between a window and its base, Albert Wilson, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Forty-third and O streets, South Side, slowly lapsed into unconsciousness yesterday shortly after 10 o'clock.

While playing with his little sister in the window sill, the window sash suddenly lowered catching his neck in its fall directly at the base of the chin.

The cries of the strangled child attracted Mrs. Gladys Wells, next door neighbor, who rushed to the scene and held the lower part of the body on a level with the head until other aid came and the window was raised.

Work Continues on Practically All Big Jobs in the City

Building activities continue yesterday on the various big jobs in the city, with the building laborers at work, and the strike apparently pretty much of a thing of the past.

Work is to begin again on the University of Nebraska State hospital at Forty-second and Dewey avenue Monday, V. Ray Gould is the contractor on this job, which is practically the only one on which work has not been resumed.

The building laborers have abandoned their headquarters at Washington hall, where they held frequent meetings during the strike.

The bricklayers and other building tradesmen are said to be largely responsible for the men returning to work, and the strike apparently pretty much of a thing of the past.

NON-UNION BAND MAN ENTERS KICK

Ned S. Reeves Asserts Commissioners Are Guilty of Discrimination in Union Edict.

APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT

That the city commissioners are guilty of gross discrimination is the charge made in a suit filed in district court by Ned S. Reeves, member of a nonunion brass band, against the city of Omaha and the seven commissioners, in protest against the resolution recently passed which gives union bands the exclusive privilege of playing during the summer.

Reeves says there are 160 nonunion players who are skilled musicians, and these are taxpayers and citizens of Omaha. He demands a court order preventing the city commissioners from keeping these citizens and himself from employment in the city parks.

"The $3,000 fund from which the bands are paid is the people's money. Everybody in Omaha is not a member of a union. The city commissioners have no right to discriminate," declared Reeves.

The resolution passed is in the form of an order from the commission to the park superintendent, preventing the employment of any but union bands for public concerts in the city parks.

And what will aid the expectant mother in conserving her health, her strength, her mental repose and the absence of vexatious pains is a subject of vast moment. Among the recognized helps is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend." Applied to the uterus it sinks deeply to make them firm and push up the lifted uterine ligaments that produce pain, it lightens the burden on the nervous system, induces calm, restful nights of health-giving sleep and makes the days sunny and happy.

The sale at present prices of the "Handy Volume" Issue of the Encyclopaedia Britannica closes June 17th, 7.33 P. M. After that, $11 to $19 more

NEARING THE END

If there had been no war

- if the shortage in dyes, drugs, chemicals and hundreds of other things which it occasioned had not sent prices soaring to the skies;
- if there had not been the same serious increase in the price of paper, leather, printing ink (and an actual famine of some sorts of binding materials);
- if the publishers of the Britannica had not suddenly been confronted with the problem not only of heavily increased costs, but also of a scarcity in India paper and of binding leathers, so that they had to notify us that our present contract with them could not be renewed, we might have gone on selling the new "Handy Volume" Issue of the Britannica at the present low prices for a long while, as we had intended.

This is impossible. In spite of the enormous printing which we had arranged for (which made it possible for us to sell the complete new unabridged Eleventh Edition of the Britannica, in a small-page form, at one-third the price of the larger-page Cambridge University issue) the issue has been taken so rapidly that only a small number of sets now remain and we cannot secure any more at anything like present prices.

For such further sets as we shall be able to obtain we shall have to increase the price by $11 per set for the cheaper bindings to $19 per set for the more expensive bindings (and there is no telling how long even these prices can be maintained).

We wish to give the public full warning. More than 200,000 persons have written us to ask for our large illustrated 130-page descriptive book about the Encyclopaedia Britannica and the new "Handy Volume" Issue. This means that a tremendous number will come rushing in at the last minute.

We send the entire 29 volumes upon the payment of a single dollar. Then you have three weeks with the books in your own home to make up your mind they are just what you want. (See our unconditional guarantee.)

But only ten days remain—ten working days.

On June 17th at 7.33 p. m. our offer is closed.

Any order postmarked before that day, date and hour, we will endeavor to fill if possible, though we cannot guarantee any particular style of binding unless your order is sent immediately.

This is all you have to do:

- 1st You send only $1
- 2nd We send you the entire 29 volumes (complete)
- 3rd You have 3 weeks to use and judge them
- 4th If you are not fully satisfied return them (and your money refunded)
- 5th But it costs only about $3 a month (or a little more) in monthly payments to keep them.

You are the judge—your family the jury!

Remember, that when you sign the order form below and send us your dollar the sale is not closed. All this does is to secure the shipment to you of 29 volumes of the new "Handy Volume" Issue in whatever style of binding you desire. Then you have three weeks in which to examine the volumes in your own home, use them every day, discuss them with your family, learn how wonderfully valuable this great work may be to you and every member of your household, especially to your growing children. Then if for any reason whatsoever you decide you do not wish to keep the books, you may return them and we will refund your dollar and all shipping charges as well.

You take no risk. We take it all.

Sets may be seen and orders left at Brandeis Stores

Only One $1 to pay now

Our Guarantee

We guarantee that the "Handy Volume" Issue is authorized by the publishers of the Encyclopaedia Britannica; that its contents are identical, page for page (including every map and illustration), with the Cambridge University issue now selling at three times the price; that it is manufactured by the same printers and binders as the more expensive book; that it is printed on the same quality of India paper, from newly made plates; and that, because it is smaller, it is easier to handle than the Cambridge issue.

We guarantee complete and entire satisfaction with the contents of the Encyclopaedia Britannica and with the form of our "Handy Volume" Issue. To anyone who, for any reason is not satisfied and returns the set within three weeks, we guarantee to return all he has paid (including shipping charges).
