During the past few weeks we have cleaned and sealed hundreds of overcoats, suits, velvet jackets, polo coats, furs. etc., and if the moths get into them this summer we'll never hear the last of it. But they won't get in. All we ask is that the original package is not opened or broken, to allow the moth miller a chance to deposit its eggs.

The Dry Cleaning removes all dirt, grease, germs and moth eggs, and they are sealed up just as soon as the garment is finished.

Phone us to call, and tell our driver how you want them returnedwhether in box or bag.
