YALE GLEE CLUB IS TO SING IN OMAHA

Warning Sent Far in Advance to Keep the Date of Concert Open.

IS TO BE HERE ONE OF TWO DAYS

By MELLIFICIA—June 7.

Listen—there can't be a thing doing December 31 or January 1—no great celebrity is to be brought to Omaha on either date, nor is any quasi-social or public event to be planned. The two days are to be kept strictly free.

The Yale Glee club will be in Omaha on December 31 or January 1—bear that in mind, for it isn't every day, nor evening, that the glee club of classic Yale may stroll into town and pick their strings for us. It would never do to have the club come with some brass-banded lecturer, for illustration, in the Fontenelle ball room, telling select Omaha audiences of women peculiar things, nor to have the same assortment lined up behind a cynical critic, whose chief bent would seem to make a local population despise itself.

The Yale Glee club is coming, it will be here the very last or the very first day of the year—please remember this. It is a joyous thing, this club; it hits, it raps, it hurts nobody—it puts on no airs of superiority nor cynicism—Omaha's manners, taste in art or food, or literature, or dress, it will take in a kindly spirit.

It will leave all hearers the happier for its coming and without the loss of the least self-respect; so, really, it is but fit that there will be no other importations on the same day to divide the proper attendance at the glee concert.

News of the School Set.

Miss Helen Garvin is at Tiffin, O., the guest of Miss Florence Clark, enroute to Bradford academy, Bradford, Mass., for the commencement festivities and annual reunion of her class. While in Boston, she will attend the wedding of a former schoolmate. Miss Lucy Garvin, who is a junior at Bradford, will attend the students' conference at Northfield and will visit in Saginaw, Mich., before returning home, which will be about July 4.

Mr. Tom Brown, son of Mrs. Thomas Brown, is going to spend all his vacation in Montana.

Eight students of the university leave for Montana directly upon the closing of school on June 12 with the intention of working all summer. The eight young men are all former students of the College of Racine and have just finished their freshman year at Madison. They write home that they are sure of $3.75 a day in Montana and that they think they are old enough to earn money.

At the Country Club.

The dinner to be given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Yates has been postponed to Saturday. One of the notable affairs of the evening will be the dinner given by Miss Mildred Butler and Mr. Donald Butler in honor of the Donald McFerrins of Hopeweston, Ill., who are visiting their parents, the Charles Test Stewarts of Council Bluffs. The Butler guests, thirty-two in number, will be seated at a square table, decorated with pink peonies. The dinner to be given by the Walter Pages, previously announced for this evening, will be an affair of the Saturday dinner-dance.

Bowling at Carter Lake.

The Carter Lake Swimming and Bowling club met at luncheon at the club house Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. George Kelch of Chicago was the guest of the occasion. At bowling the highest score was made by Mrs. H.

Bright Young Girls Distribute Flowers in Hospitals on Thursday

Mrs. W. W. Hoagland

Miss Ruth Slabaugh

Every Thursday for twenty-two years a bright young girl stops at each bed in every ward of every hospital in the city, and with a cheery word and smile leaves a posy or two in the hand of each sufferer and is gone—a welcome intrusion indeed.

Sometimes the patient asks who it is and why, and is told that the young girl represents the Emma Hoagland Flower mission. The flower mission was started twenty-two years ago by Mrs. George Hoagland and Miss Julia McKnight in memory of Emma Hoagland, who died when yet a young girl. Local florists have given generously each week for the flower mission, and the custom of sending all the flowers used for decorations at large social functions on Wednesday for the use of the mission the next day has provided an abundance of blossoms for this gracious attention to the suffering.

Mrs. W. W. Hoagland has not missed one Thursday in all the years since the mission was instituted. She was assisted for many years by Miss Ethel Tukey, now Mrs. Louis Korsmeyer of Lincoln, whose place on the flower mission is now being filled by Miss Ruth Slabaugh. Mrs. Harold Sobotker and Mrs. John Weitzell and the Misses Helen Chesney, Carol and Hazel Howard, Lottie Lee Snowden, Camilla Donohue, Ruth Gould, Ruth Latenser, Louise White, Marie Hodge and Harriet Metz, whose marriage takes place today, have given loyal service in the distribution of flowers in the hospitals for the last few years.

will be married this evening at half after seven at the home of her parents, to Clinton Briggs Stult, son of Mrs. Mary E. Stult.

Original Cooking Club.

The original cooking club met at luncheon this afternoon with Mrs. Moshier G. Colpeizer. There were no guests.

Invitations Recalled.

On account of the illness of the honor guest, Mrs. Ross B. Towle has cancelled her informal luncheon for this afternoon, an affair for Miss Elizabeth Congdon, one of the June brides.

SELL PEONIES TO BEAUTIFY OMAHA

Society Maids and Matrons Help to Swell the "Make Omaha Beautiful" Fund.

BIG DISPLAY AT COURT HOUSE

Peonies, white, pink and red—peonies in vases, peonies in baskets, peonies in huge tubs and tables overloaded with the long-stemmed blossoms, transformed the rotunda of the court house into a bower of beauty for the second annual peony exhibit of the garden committee of the Civic league.

On the downtown streets, prominent society matrons and maids, carrying flower-baskets filled with peony buttons, "button-holed" passersby and with the pretty plea "help make Omaha beautiful," charmed hordes of nickels to swell the peony fund. One demure debutante, whose engagement was announced only on Sunday hadn't been properly coached before she set out on her mission. "I didn't know what the money was for, so when the first man asked me I told him it was to help the poor, to buy milk for babies or something like that," said she.

Not only peonies, but babies, too, were recorded, as entries by Mrs. Luther L. Kountze.

Proud of Her Baby.

"I want to enter my baby. She's 'Peony' Thomas for today, of the Valley peony farm. My baby has won two prizes in baby shows, and so have my peonies. I'm equally proud of both of them," said the mother. So Mrs. Kountze entered "Peony" Thomas in the contest.

The peony exhibit with prizes is in line with a movement of the garden committee to make peonies the city flower emblem. When the exhibit closed at 4:30 in the afternoon the thousands of peonies were sent to different hospitals.

Mrs. George B. Prinz, Mrs. Lowrie Childs, Mrs. O. C. Redick, Mrs. Arthur Keeline, Mrs. Robert Cowell, Mrs. Warren Blackwell, aside from Thomas R. Kimball, were in charge of the exhibit. The girls and matrons who sold buttons were: Elizabeth Davis, Stella Thummel, Mildred Butler, Elizabeth Brainerd, Marjorie Howard, Eugenia Peters, Madeline, Jack Webster, Fred Hamilton.

PEONY DAY IS RECOGNIZED BY BURGESS-NASH STORE

All Omaha is interested in "Peony day," so the Burgess-Nash store has decorated their main floor with gorgeous bouquets of pink, white and variegated peonies. On entering the store, through the main entrance, visitors are greeted with two huge bouquets of peonies on each side of the fountain; then as the eye travels down the main aisle great bunches carry out a symmetrical idea of peony decoration. Great vases, filled with this most popular flower, are to be seen in corners, on the stairways and in every available space in the departments.

"Fake Remedies" Advertised.

No doubt some of the medicines advertised are fakes, but these never have any lasting success. They stand in striking contrast to the good old standard, dependable remedies, like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has stood the test of time and for more than forty years has been alleviating the suffering of womankind. Such medicines are a blessing to the community and will continue their good work from one generation to another.—Adv.

Honor Students At Brownell Hall

The following Brownell Hall girls have been on the honor roll with grades of A and B during the four quarters for the school year: Class of 1920, Margaret Carey; class of 1919, Elizabeth Beecher; class of 1918, Katherine Denny and Mary Morrison; class of 1917, Gladys Osborne and Arria Neal; class of 1916, Edna Mulligan and Martha Leavitt. In addition to these names the following girls are to be commended for having an A and B record in their year's average: Class of 1920, Marion Darling and Margaret King; class of 1919, Thede Reed and Josephine Marple; class of 1918, Elizabeth Williams; class of 1917, Charlotte Rosewater, Emily Burke and Elizabeth Mitchell; class of 1916, Harriette Ashbrook, Geraldine Hess, Mildred Krumm, Helen Reynolds and Alice Sedgwick. By vote of the trustees there were offered this year to day scholars four honor scholarships of the value of $50 each. A scholarship was to be awarded to the day scholar in each class whom the faculty should recommend as having the best record. The results are as follows: Class of 1919, Thede Reed; 1918 there is a tie and there will be two scholarships, Katherine Denny and Mary Morrison; 1917, Charlotte Rosewater. These girls are therefore the honor Worthington scholars for 1916-1917.

B'NAI ISRAEL TO GIVE ITS ANNUAL SHABUOTH PROGRAM

The Hebrew children of the congregation, B'nai Israel, Eighteenth and Chicago streets, will give its annual Shabuoth program at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Shabuoth being the holiday of the first fruits and that of the giving of the law on Mount Sinai, the theme will be given by the pupils in poem and story. A special feature of the program will be the reciting of short characterizations of each book of the Old Testament by individual pupils. Distribution of prizes to the best pupils will be the concluding feature.

The school has an attendance of nearly 100 pupils, which is expected to largely increase on the beginning of public school vacation. Mr. S. Ferer is president of the congregation and Mr. L. Segelman the president of the Hebrew school.

Auto Tourists in Omaha Numerous

The record number of tourists for any one day this year registered at the downtown headquarters of the Omaha Automobile club. They were from the east, west, north and south, and came in every type of car, from the humble flivver to the palatial, many-cylindred, seven-passenger highway aristocrat.

The following motorists passed through Omaha: Mr. and Mrs. George Epstein of St. Louis, en route to Concordia, Kan., via Omaha. Robert Abrams of St. Louis, en route to Concordia, Kan., via Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith of Los Angeles, en route to New York. Mr. and Mrs. August Schmill of Los Angeles, en route to New York. W. H. Sudduth and family of Minneapolis, en route to New York. C. H. Trading Thomas Kilpatrick & Co's. in the at— You'll Get a New Thrill at the Wonderful June Sale

OUR READY-TO-WEAR business has BEEN SIMPLY GREAT. Our buyer's last eastern trip was the best ever. Nearly all the purchases are now in. The bargains which she was so fortunate in getting compelled us to revise downwards certain prices so as to conform to our policy of giving such advantages as we get to our patrons. Note the grouping Thursday. WOMEN'S SUITS Popular Navys, Shepherd Checks, Velour Checks, Serges, Gabardines, etc. Suits in this lot made to retail at $27.50 and $35.00; in fact, we ourselves, sold similar at these prices. $14.50 8:30 A. M. COATS! If ever there was a year when a Coat was a necessary adjunct of the Complete Wardrobe This is it. Motoring, cool evenings, early jitting, etc. Thursday two sale lots—$8.50 for coats which just a few days ago sold up to $15.00. $16.50 for coats sold up to $27.50. Our fame is fixed on UNDER-MUSLINS There are those who still talk higher prices for cotton—Some say 25 cents per pound will be paid to make explosives to KILL WITH If they are true prophets, prices will soar higher and higher whatever happens. GOWNS QUOTED ARE BARGAINS 98c for Gowns, should be $1.50. $1.98 instead of $3. $1.39 instead of $2. And $2.98 for Gowns sold to $6.00. There is a pick. AT 10 O'CLOCK—A CORSET SALE This corset section of ours has a reputation, gained by and through years of faithful, intelligent, expert buying and selling of these aids to comfort and beauty. We buy from the BEST makers—not their discards, not their left-overs, not their has-was, as someone expressed it, but their best models, approved by the DAME and tested by our fitters. Thus we are known as leaders of fashion rather than followers. Broken lots—not many of any one kind to sell Thursday— FOUR DIVISIONS—READ At $1.59 R. G. Nemo, H. & W. Ferris, Justice; formerly up to $2.50. Brassieres sold to 75c, at 39c. Timed at 10 a. m. DON'T FORGET. At $2.48 Kabo, Success, Redfern, R. & G.; sold before to $4. Fine Brassieres, sold to $2, at 79c. If you miss it you'll be sorry. At $6.98 Modart, front laced, Camille, Irene, Redfern—priced before up to $10. And these are not the only special items. You keep what you buy. At $3.98 Redfern, Irene, Success La Belle; sold up to $6.00. Prices likely to be higher before they are lower. No exchanges on these.

This glorious weather makes us all hopeful—Summer is surely routed this way. Is there anything more dainty on a charming maiden than the Summer fabrics of Cotton?

Thursday in west aisle a sale of Summer fabrics at 25 cents per yard; 40-inch Voiles in flowered stripes, large spots, etc. For Blouses we show Plain Voiles, Crepes and Silk Warps in the daintiest and sheers of materials. Fashion is faddish—just now she demands for Skirts the somewhat loud Sport Stripes—we are selling heaps of 'em.

Just for a day—we make price concessions on a lot of Damask Table Cloths. Based on present prices these goods should bring twice the prices marked for Thursday. We bought early at the low prices and conforming to the Kupatrik custom you get the benefit. This is one thing that contributes to "Distinctiveness" and tends to make our sales "SO DIFFERENT."

Odd Damask Cloths then: $2.25 for 8x8 Cloths instead of $3.50. $3.98 for 8x8 Cloths instead of 4.00. $5.75 for 8x8 Cloths instead of 4.50. $7.75 for 8x8 Cloths instead of 5.00. $4.25 for 8x8 Cloths instead of 5.50. $2.95 for 8x10 Cloths instead of 4.00. $3.95 for 8x10 Cloths instead of 5.00. $5.95 for 8x10 Cloths instead of 6.50. $3.50 for 8x12 Cloths instead of 4.50. $4.25 for 8x14 Cloths instead of 5.25. $4.95 for 8x16 Cloths instead of 6.00. $5.75 for 8x14 Cloths instead of 7.00. And up to $9.50 for 10x10 Cloths instead of $11.00. It is a funny thing, but it seems almost impossible to get folks started in the morning—the nicest time in the whole day to trade—and yet so many people dawdle the best hours in all the day away. Get the habit of trading at Kilpatrick's in the mornings—our word for it, you will like it. How would you like the stores to open at 10 and close at 4? This would do away with necessity for a lunch hour—the most trying in the whole day. Think it over and let us know how you feel about it. Thomas Kilpatrick & Co.
