WESTERN SISTERS SHOW UP "STYLISTS"

Eastern Women Who Presumed to Dictate Dress Modes Beaten at Own Game.

MRS. SYFERT TELLS THE STORY

Well, well, well!

Now we can hear the other side of the much-mooted question of dress in connection with the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Gather close around, sisters, and we'll whisper in your ear what Mrs. E. M. Syfert, president of the Omaha Woman's club, has to say about how New York women dress themselves.

But it wasn't the western delegates who wore them. No, indeed! It was the New York women themselves! Can you beat it?

You Should Have Seen Her.

Well, Mrs. Syfert says she got a good glimpse of Miss Peck, the dress censor, when she was in New York and, let's whisper it, she didn't think Miss Peck made such a striking appearance herself!

Not at all! "Of course, she was strictly tailored, but—" said Mrs. Syfert, and her hesitation expressed reams, for Mrs. Syfert is too much of a lady to express a derogatory opinion.

But here is a genuine shock!

Decollete gowns were worn in broad daylight at some sessions of the convention at the Hotel Astor! Aside from the fact that the gowns included apologies for sleeves, so that they were not entirely sleeveless, they were what would be called evening gowns in Omaha, such as one seen at the Ak-Sar-I-en ball.

—Yes, Can you Beat It?

But it wasn't the western delegates who wore them. No, indeed! It was the New York women themselves! Can you beat it?

As for the western women, they wore what their sweet will dictated and completely ignored the set of dress "don'ts" issued by the biennial board. They left their winter suits at home packed in campior balls and appeared, the most of them, in gorgeous silk suits.

To alleviate the wounded feelings of the western delegates, who were loud in their expressions of rancor, it is rumored that the next issue of the General Federation magazine will contain both an apology and an explanation.

The delegates had another grievance against the biennial board aside from the dress proposition. When a delegation travels half way across the continent or the whole way, the women would enjoy hearing part of the convention proceedings anyway.

City Hall Folks Getting Enthused Over the Parade

Misses Margaret Boekhoff, Mary Nolan and Lulu McGrier of the Nominat Right wing of the city hall are trying to work up interest in the formation of a women's municipal marching club for next Wednesday's patriotic parade.

Assistant Superintendent Ryan of the public schools is distributing 15,000 small flags which will be carried by the school children, who will be stationed at four intersections along the line of march.

NEW BABY GIRL BORN TO MP AND MRS. W. W. MAGEE

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayland W. Magee Friday morning. Mr. Magee lost no time in getting a box of fine Perfectos up to the newspaper office, the wrapper of said box being inscribed thus:

Heart Balm of $1,000 Given to John Speer

John Speer, who sued James Jensen, Benson butcher, for $10,000 for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections, has been awarded a verdict of $1,000 in the court of District Judge Troup.

These Glorious June Days!

When we get out into the woods we can appreciate something of Bryant's feeling when he wrote "Thanatopsis"

OUR SILK SALE SATURDAY

at 10 in the morning, will SHAKE UP THE DRY BONES—HEAR THE STORY—We have taken out of our shelves every piece of wide Foulard, which has been in our store more than 60 DAYS.

You know that no silk looks prettier or gives more satisfactory wear than a FOULARD—(assuming, of course, the product of a reliable manufacturer)—These silks that we are talking about were made by the world's best maker. Tall talk, you say? You could see at once that the statement is warranted if we published the name. We are pledged not to quote the name in this instance, because of GREAT CUT IN PRICE.

The goods are 40 to 44 inches wide—ALMOST DOUBLE THE ORDINARY WIDTH. PRICE 98c per yard instead of $1.50 to $1.95. Goods have been shown in windows for 48 HOURS, and unless all signs fail in dry weather, THERE WILL BE A THROGGED AISLE.

Did you get the hour?—10 a. m.

OUTER WEAR SECOND FLOOR

Buyer back—daily deliveries by express are proof of the splendid purchases made so wisely while she was there.

Silk Dresses are in great demand—you'll see the latest here on Saturday. Navy Taffetas have been very scarce—she secured quite a bunch—$25.00 to $32.50.

Silk Sport Suits—Stripes combined with white, plain tucks and combinations. Jersey Lazure (see this) beautiful Shantungs—$27.50, $30.00 and $35.00.

We don't care two twigs of a lamb's tail whether you want to buy or not—you'll like to look—and you'll be welcome. You'll wander at your own sweet will in this homey store—and you won't be made to feel that argus eyed individuals have you under suspicion—and you can always be sure of courteous attention when you are ready to buy.

SWEATERS OF SILK OR FIBRE

Hard to get, while the stock lasts, the pickin' is good.

The need for thin fabrics is at hand. Get your wardrobe ready while the getting is good—Voiles, Organdies and other entrancing conceptions, $5.95 and up.

The biggest Blouse business we have ever experienced. You will appreciate the fact that there are blouses and BLOUSES, when you see this aggregation of ours.

Not hard to believe that "the groves were the first temples," and those of us who get close to nature can still feel an inspiration to worship, as we listen to myriad song birds pipe their love songs, these beautiful Summer days.

"BIRD MASQUE"

or at least everybody should. You will want to take your children, and you will be glad to go yourself to the Sanctuary, in the Fontenelle reserve. You will all be recompensed for hours spent in this wonderful beauty spot, which promises to be one of our greatest attractions.

With a desire therefore to crowd extra business into this

SATURDAY, (JUNE 10th)

Interesting attractions will be presented at THOMAS KILPATRICK & CO'S.

Starting at 8:30. Buy this Saturday and you'll feel more free next Saturday.

IN THE JUNIOR SECTION

There is a real war atmosphere in this part of the store. Preparedness sticks out everywhere, for instance, Middy Blouses, the very names suggest sea breezes and big guns—Paul Jones (who has not read his story), Bob Evans (fighting Bob), Brock (whose name is so familiar in the land of the Maple leaf), Jack Tar! No! These are not the names of dreadnaughts, but titles of our new Middy Blouses—59 cents and up, are the prices—wonderful lot at $1.00.

2 to 6 year olders can be fitted from the small coats which sold before up to $6.50, at $2.98 Saturday.

Final Clean Out of the Silk Dress consignment, usually sold from $8.50 to $18.00—Saturday, $6.98 and $9.98.

Little Garments for Inside Wear—A delayed shipment of Children's Drawers, gives us once more all sizes—great values at 10c, 15c, 25c, 39c.

Infants' White Dresses—69c, 98c, $1.59 and $2.98.

A Trimmed Bassinette (complete), formerly $45.00, Saturday, $26.00.

NECKWEAR

Scarcely an express arrives from the East but brings us Novelties in Neckwear. Our New York resident buyer has a corps of efficient helpers, keen as they make 'em, and from us they have carte blanche to rush out the new things. We show Saturday new Cape Collars, deep backs—Sailor Collars made of Georgette, Net, Organdy, Crepe de Chine, Voile, etc., plain and hand embroidered, 50c to $4.50.

TOILET GOODS SECTION

D'jer Kiss Week! We give away free a little Silk Sachet Bag with every box of D'jer Kiss Face Powder, at 50 cents per box. We haven't used any ourselves, but those who have say its great stuff. Azurea Face Powder, 95 cents per box. Mennen's Talcum, 12 cents per can. Ricksecker's Skin Soap, 12 cents cake, instead of 25 cents.

SOME HATS ARE FEARFULLY AND WONDERFULLY MADE

Some Headgear Libels Fashion! Isn't That the Truth? Ours Are Different

We are led to these reflections because of a telegram just received from one of the BIGGEST AND BEST MAKERS AND SELLERS OF HATS IN THE WORLD—Here's the gist of the telegram—"ADVISE FOR SATURDAY'S SELLING BIG HAT VALUES." The sender we knew intended something out of the ordinary, so we called him up by long distance, and here is the reason for his telegram. We found that he had EXPRESSED and that the HATS WERE IN TRANSIT—what he considered WONDERFUL VALUES (and he knows). So Saturday we will sell about 100 new dark hats—MOST OF THEM BLACK AND NAVY—at $3.00 EACH. We are assured that they are in great demand and the season's best values. Will also display and sell a lot of new arrivals in white, $7.50 each. 'Twill be a busy day in Millinery department, and we'll have lots of EXTRA HELP. 8:30 SALE STARTS. Nothing BIZARRE in this sale.

WEARERS OF PETTICOATS!

Here is a real bargain. We have gathered into one place a lot of White Petticoats, made from sheer soft materials, and some heavier. Not quite as wide as the very latest style demands, but when you learn that in the lot are garments which were priced at $2.50, aye and sold at those figures, me thinks you'll be attracted at 59 cents.

LINGERIE DAY SATURDAY

Indeed it's so most every Saturday in your store. Note the prices on inside wear for Saturday:

6 Specials in Gowns, 59c, 79c, 98c, $1.39, $1.98 and $2.98.

5 Specials in Corset Covers, 19c, 39c, 98c, $1.39 and $1.98.

Big table covered with Chemises, Princess Slips, Petticoats, etc., all marked plainly so that you will see at once that you get them Saturday at just ONE-HALF former prices.

CORSETS

Small lots of Corsets gathered together for Saturday's selling. Such well known makes as Irene, Modart, R and G, Redfern, Camille, La Belle, etc., among our most desirable in make, style and quality. Arranged for quick selling in 4 lots—

Those which sold up to $2.50, for $1.59. Those which sold up to $4.00, for $2.48. Those which sold up to $6.00, for $3.98. Those which sold up to $10.00, for $6.98.

Our Fitters are Experts. Ask Our Corsetieres to Help You.
