

Nebraska DEMOS ARE READY TO VISIT ST. LOUIS

Preparations Made Provide for Two Separate Trains From Nebraska.

SOME ARE GOING ON AHEAD

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 9.—(Special.)—Everying has been completed for the movement of Nebraska democracy to St. Louis for the purpose of attending the national democratic convention and assisting in the nomination of Mr. Wilson.

Ten cars of various makes, sizes, designations, and other things will leave Omaha and Lincoln. A part of these loaded with bourbon democracy will leave Omaha over the Missouri Pacific at 5:30, while another part loaded with the untried followers of the honorable Mr. He Haw will leave Lincoln over another road of the same company at 4:30 p. m. This will all be done on next Monday afternoon, just as the sun goes down over the western horizon.

The two trains will converge, come together, assemble and join each other at Union. This will be done because they believe that in union there is strength, and most of the delegates and their attendant friends are fully aware that the ticket they will put up will have to be strengthened a great deal before it will be able to make even a faint stand against the onslaught of republican hosts this fall.

Initiative Ballot Form Prepared

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 9.—(Special.)—The submission of the prohibition amendment in the form it will appear on the ballot has been prepared and has received the approval of the attorney general. The secretary of state has received the same and the proposition will be in this form:

BOY SCOUTS WILL CLEAN UP BROKEN BOW STREETS

Broken Bow, Neb., June 9.—(Special.)—The Boy Scouts of this city have taken over the job of cleaning up the streets of waste paper and other junk and keeping them clean. Some time ago the Department of Commerce at Washington wrote the public service here apprising them of the scarcity of paper in the United States and asked their co-operation in the matter. The municipal committee of the club took over the matter and determined to work it to the good of the city. A dealer was looked up who would handle a certain class of refuse and junk at a fair price and a proposition made to the Boy Scouts, who called a special meeting and accepted the offer. A system has been mapped out and the city will be worked by streets, which includes a house to house canvass.

OMAHA FIRM PROMISED MORE CARS BY ROAD

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 9.—(Special.)—On complaint of the Woodworth company of Omaha that the Rock Island railroad was not furnishing them cars sufficient for their use, a conference was held with the State Railway commission yesterday in which Superintendent Bancroft of the Woodworth company and Division Superintendent Allen of the Rock Island railroad participated, which resulted in a promise on the part of the railroad officials that the Omaha firm would have better service in the future in regards to the furnishing and movement of cars.

OSWALD LEWIS TO BE BROUGHT TO OMAHA

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 9.—(Special.)—Governor Morehead, on request of the county attorney of Douglas county, issued a request to the governor of North Dakota for the return to Douglas county of Oswald Lewis, charged with taking out of the state mortgage property. The property consisted of a Maxwell touring car. Lewis is being held by the authorities of North Dakota and a man will be sent to bring him to Omaha.

MASS MEETING TO BE HELD AT UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA

There will be a mass meeting at the gymnasium of the University of Omaha this evening to boost for new buildings on the campus. The $50,000 required for the construction of the building is nearly raised, so that there will be no delay in the erection of the building during the summer vacation. At the meeting this evening it is proposed to secure by pledges an extra $25,000 to be expended in equipment for this building.

Nebraska Curtis Fishermen Come Under Rough Hand of the Law

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 9.—(Special.)—A total of $230 in fines and costs has been imposed by Justices Daniels and Adams of Curtis against violators of the fish and game laws during the last three weeks because of the effective detective work of C. D. Hayden, a representative of the game warden's office at that point.

Curtis has one of the best fishing resorts in western Nebraska and the people there are anxious that the game and fish commission should see out the rough fish and transplant the lake with a better kind of fish. It is in an effort to make the department understand that the people are willing to watch and protect the fish that the recent activities have been made. Following is a list of the men who have been haled before the tribunal of justice and made to account for their deeds. Among the list are financiers, businessmen, farmers, laborers, city officials, railroad men and others, indicating that the law out in that section of the state is no respecter of persons:

Charles Rocenas, Greek laborer; R. F. Walker, financier; H. J. Dorfer, photographer; M. Sweet, freight man, Burlington railroad; Frank Dalenborg, section foreman; E. Singler, baker; R. E. Robinson, lumberman; Earnest Powell, mason; C. Ewald, miller; James Daughy, professional fisherman; Charles Krause, laborer; Erbin Heckelman, butcher; Frank Thorne, clothier; Charles Adams, druggist; Carl Elson, auto livery; L. A. Chamberlain, dentist and city councilman; P. H. Brennan, roadmaster, Burlington railroad; Earl Bobbio, barber; C. D. Bill, telegraph operator; Joseph Meyer, retired farmer; Frank Kidder, laborer; J. Heaton, photographer; Jack Wooten, teamster; S. C. Heaton, cafe; and C. E. Minnick, doctor.

MR. BORAH VISITS MOOSE MEETING

Republican Member of Harmony Committee Makes Eloquent Plea for United Action.

HIS ACTION IS UNOFFICIAL

Auditorium Hall, Chicago, June 9.—Without any preliminary announcement Senator William E. Borah entered the auditorium hall at 12:40 p. m., where the progressives were assembled in cogvention. He was escorted to the platform. A tremendous ovation was given him.

Chairman Robins introduced Senator Borah and the convention roared itself hoarse when the senator said he had not come officially. "I will say to you frankly," were his first words, "I come over here to get an inspiration."

At once a wave swept over the hall started, no one knew how, suggesting that stronger events than harmony, with Borah as the man to unite the parties, might happen. This thought grew as the senator, in his speech, introduced the magic name "Roosevelt" as the progressives great leader.

"We want Teddy," resounded through the hall and galleries with more vim than at any time since the convention assembled. It was not "canned enthusiasm" or if it was, the can had burst from internal compression. Senator Borah waited quietly and finally Chairman Robins urged quiet.

"It is well known—the deep seated affection I have for your leader," and was halted by a salvo of enthusiasts, the whole convention in a mighty chant shouting "We want Teddy" for a full minute, while Borah smilingly waited. The shouting lulled and then was renewed, leaders on the stage joining.

Delegates Yell for Borah. "There's no doubt you want Teddy," said Senator Borah. "We want Borah, too," answered the delegates and the senator proceeded and swung into the stride of his speech, which he promised would be brief.

He put a quietus on the whispered circulation of his name as a possible "Moses" by reminding the progressive convention that he was present as a member of a committee from "another convention."

"There is not a doubt but that you want Teddy and that millions of citizens throughout the country also want Teddy," he began. "You are fortunate in having a leader," he continued, "who has done more than any other man to make the issues of this campaign."

"He is a maker of questions involved in this international crisis," the convention responding enthusiastically to the praise of the colonel.

Great Issue at Stake. "But let us bear in mind," he urged, "what these two conventions do here will perhaps decide the welfare of the

Longshoremen of Pacific Ports Win Their Strike

San Francisco, Cal., June 9.—The strike of the Pacific longshoremen is off. Approximately 9,000 men, who walked out June 1 in an effort to secure higher wages and a "closed shop" policy, thus being up shipping in every American port on the coast, returned to work today, all their demands having been temporarily granted at a thirteen-hour conference that ended shortly before dawn today.

Commissioner of Immigration Henry M. White of Seattle, who had been requested by the department of labor to act as mediator in the strike, presided at the session. The employers agreed to pay the men what they wanted pending arbitration of their demands. Representatives of the employers and the unions will begin a series of conferences here Saturday to determine upon a permanent wage scale and a set of working conditions. They will be submitted to the unions at a referendum election.
