

Trans-Mississippi Convention of Master Bakers' Association

BAKERS FROM FOUR STATES MEET HERE

Big Convention Is Scheduled for First Four Days of This Week.

ALSO MACHINERY EXHIBIT

The Trans-Mississippi Association of Bakers of four states will hold a convention in Omaha, beginning Monday and lasting through Thursday. Machinery exhibits will be shown abundantly. The four states included are Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri.

Hitherto exhibits have been shown only at the national convention. This year, however, the national convention is to be held in Salt Lake City, and manufacturers decided not to take their heavy machinery so far, but to put it on exhibition in Omaha. Application has already been made for fifty-four booths by those wishing to exhibit machinery or equipment.

Much of this will be in operation by motor. The exhibition will give persons in the business or desiring to enter it, a chance to see free what at least one man, contemplating entering the business, paid $2,000 in care for before he saw in different factories the machinery and other bakers' equipment he desired to examine. The machinery is the most up-to-date there is in the country.

Everything points to a large attendance, especially from Missouri. Two full sleepers of St. Louis men will arrive in Omaha Monday morning.

Auditorium Filled.

The floor of the Auditorium will be filled with exhibits, and the convention will be held on the stage. A small portion of the floor near the stage will be reserved for dancing. There will be business sessions Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. The afternoons will be devoted to inspecting exhibits and equipment and in sight seeing.

Monday evening the men in the party will be taken in street cars in a body to the "Den," for entertainment by the Ak-Sar-Ben. Tuesday evening there will be athletic exhibitions in the Auditorium. The All Saints' Athletic club and the Teddy Bros. will perform for the visitors. There will also be dancing with orchestral music.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock there will be a bouffé luncheon and smoker, after which the visitors will be taken to see moving pictures and vaudeville. The convention proper will close Thursday noon. The exhibitors will begin to remove their machinery Thursday afternoon and evening.

There will be special entertainment for the ladies of the party in the shape of shopping tours and theater parties. Admittance will be by ticket, but there will be no charge. More than 50,000 tickets will be distributed at different bakeries about the city and sent out with loaves of bread.

Manager J. M. Gillan, who for several years had the management of the Auditorium, has had men at work arranging booths and otherwise preparing the Auditorium since Thursday.

If every baker worked with the same determination for quality—then the quality of all breads would be as uniform as the price.

But unfortunately for you, Mrs. Housewife, the quality of breads vary just so much as there are bakers baking, and it remains for you to discriminate if you really want the best.

Butter Nut Bread is the richest loaf in quality—it has that crisp crust, which insures you of perfect baking.

Butter Nut Bread is truly the honest product, it has set the pace for quality bread for more than twelve years, and never has its quality been neared.

Butter Nut Bread is wrapped in air-tight wrappers right from the ovens and comes to you clean, and it's fresh each day in every grocer's store in Omaha.

Just try it today and you'll agree that Butter Nut Bread gives you the most for your nickle or your dime.

ALAMITO DAIRY SALESMEN VISIT THE ARMOUR PLANT

Friday afternoon about thirty-five of the delivery salesmen of the Alamito Sanitary Dairy company visited the Armour plant at the South Side in a body. Mr. Orchard and Mr. Yates of Armours had charge of the visitors. Over two solid hours were taken up showing the milk men through. The main object of these delivery men in visiting the plant was to see the effect that tuberculosis has on cattle. Dr. Stouffer, head of the United States government inspectors, went into this very thoroughly. A condemned piece of meat was cut to pieces, analyzed and explained very thoroughly to the milk men. He stated that it was the well kept cows, the cows having the best feed, etc., that were most likely to contract tuberculosis. He stated that range cattle were seldom afflicted with this disease. He said he would prefer milk for his own consumption from tuberculin tested cows and then pasteurized.
