

Nebraska BRYAN IS MUM AS ASKED TO TALK

Moose Convention Calls Upon Him to Deliver Speech, But Refuses.

MURDOCK'S APPEAL IN VAIN

Chicago, June 11.—During the debate before final adjournment was taken in the progressive convention in the Auditorium, Victor Murdock, turning to the press boxes on the stage and looked dramatically at former Secretary of State Bryan, who was sitting there. Mr. Bryan smiled.

"Mr. Bryan is a straight-forward pacifist," said Mr. Murdock. "He is going to have a militarist plank rammed down his throat at St. Louis and he won't stand it."

Bryan Smiles.

Mr. Bryan smiled again, and when Mr. Murdock said he expected a new "peace and prohibition" party headed by Bryan and Henry Ford, the former secretary threw back his head and laughed heartily.

"Bryan has stood by his convictions," continued Mr. Murdock, and the convention yelled approval.

Mr. Murdock said that with a four-cornered fight, Wilson and Marshall, and "that tribute to the Arctic circle, Hughes and Fairbanks"—here the crowd interrupted in a roar of laughter.

Mr. Murdock went on to say, with Bryan and Ford behind "peace and prohibition" and the progressives with "Roosevelt and Parker for Americanism and peace and preparedness," the country would see a most remarkable campaign.

The crowd yelled for a speech from Mr. Bryan, but he shook his head with a smile.

Youth Is Injured By Booster's Auto

Alma, Neb., June 11.—(Special.)—Clarence Bradley, 9-year-old son of Mrs. A. Bradley, was run over by an automobile this afternoon and seriously injured during the visit of the Kansas City Commercial club. There was a crowd of children in the street gathering up souvenirs thrown out by the Missouri visitors when an auto carrying a load of boosters from the train drove into the crowd, striking the Bradley boy, and running over him with both wheels, across his back and chest. No bones were broken and it is thought he will recover without any bad results.

Before leaving town the club men took up a generous collection from members of their party and presented it to the injured boy.

MINDEN PREPARING FOR FALL FESTIVAL

Minden, Neb., June 11.—(Special.)—The fall festival committee has announced the program as made up for the fall festival, which is to be held here the week of September 26. This is now up for the approval of the Minden Commercial and Ad clubs who have charge of the entertainment of the festival which is under the auspices of the Kearney County Fair association.

It has been arranged that Monday of the festival week be made the entry day for entries into the exhibits for which more and better premiums are being offered this year than ever before. The week will be formally opened by the mayor in an address on Tuesday evening, followed by a band concert and firemen's race.

A county tennis tournament has been arranged to occupy Wednesday and Thursday mornings on the public courts, a free-for-all tourney being laid out for Friday and Saturday mornings. Tractor demonstrations will also be given in the mornings.

A base ball tournament will take up each afternoon after 3 o'clock, beginning Wednesday and in the evenings will be staged a tug-of-war tournament. Specials arranged for each day will be an automobile parade Wednesday afternoon, a children's parade Friday afternoon and also a baby show and on Saturday afternoon will be a live stock parade.

BRADY BOY BADLY MANGLED IN RUNAWAY

North Platte, Neb., June 11.—(Special.)—Harvey Larson, 16-year-old son of a farmer living near Brady, is in a critical condition at a local hospital as a result of injuries sustained when a team that he was driving ran away and threw him from a manure spreader which he was using. The heavy machine passed over his body, breaking his right arm in two places, his right leg just above the knee, dislocating his left hip and fracturing his pelvic bone, besides inflicting serious bruises. Other men in the field hurried him to his home from where he was brought to North Platte for surgical attention. It is believed he will recover.

JUDGE WOODROUGH WILL HOLD COURT AT N. PLATTE

North Platte, Neb., June 11.—(Special.)—For the first time since his appointment to the federal bench, Federal Judge Woodrough of Omaha tomorrow morning will open court in the North Platte district. The docket for the session is made up principally of civil suits growing out of land disputes. But one criminal case is certain to come up, that of Mrs. Ethel Anderson, charged with using the mails to defraud. She is alleged to have obtained money under false pretenses from a mail order house. The case of Dr. Cole of Minnere, charged with violating the Harrison drug act, is unlikely to come up this term, no subpoenas having been issued in the case.

Nebraska Foot Ball Star And Former Tennis Champion to Wed

Lincoln, June 11.—(Special.)—Dick Rutherford, who rounded out three years on the Husker foot ball eleven, the last as captain, and four years with the Beatrice High school, without having ever met defeat, took the count with little Dan Cupid as the victor.

News of Rutherford's approaching marriage to Miss Ruth Tinglepaugh of Los Angeles, Cal., was given out here yesterday. The wedding will occur June 23, at the home of the bride's parents.

There is a very pretty little college romance back of the marriage of the Husker star. Miss Tinglepaugh during the two years she attended the State university held the woman's tennis championship. Rutherford was one of the greatest athletes ever developed at Nebraska, starting in foot ball, basket ball and wrestling.

When Miss Tinglepaugh left Lincoln to make her home on the coast, Rutherford secured a place with the life saving crew at the beach during the summer vacation last year and figured in a number of thrilling rescues.

Rutherford has been elected assistant coach at Nebraska, directly in charge of all high school athletics, at a salary of $2,000 a year. He and his bride will make their home in Lincoln upon their return from the coast wedding trip.

Last night a formal reception was tendered the senior class and their relatives and friends by President Allen at the home of Prof. and Mrs. J. S. Brown.

This afternoon a memorial service for Mrs. E. F. Stephens was held in Gaylord hall at 5 p. m.

AUDUBON SOCIETY IN BIRD MASQUE

Men and Women of Omaha, Next Saturday, to Dedicate the Fontenelle Forest Reserve.

SAFE HOME FOR NEBRASKA BIRD

"Sanctuary" will be presented next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock out of doors in the natural amphitheater at Child's Point. This bird masque or play will be given by prominent Omaha men and women, members of the Nebraska Audubon society. The reason for giving it is to dedicate at Child's Point a large tract there purchased by Dr. Harold Gifford for the Fontenelle Forest Reserve association as a sanctuary or place of safety for wild birds, animals and plants. Proceeds from the masque will be devoted to helping repay Dr. Gifford for the money expended.

Child's Point is a beautiful spot on the Missouri river south of Omaha. Cars will run from Twenty-fourth and N streets, South Side, every twenty minutes next Saturday afternoon to near Child's Point. A great number will go in automobiles.

Passengers via street cars can get off at either the old South Omaha Country club or at Child's Point crossing. Those who want to enjoy the short country walk should get off at the former place. There they will be met by guides in woodland costume who will guide them to the scene of the masque. Jitneys will meet passengers who get off at Child's Point crossing and carry them direct to the amphitheater.

Tickets are selling like the traditional hot cakes. The price is 25 and 50 cents. About sixty people are engaged in selling. Tickets may be purchased also at the Thomas Kilpatrick & Co. store and the Matthews' book store.

At Wilson's Summer Home.

"Sanctuary" is by Percy Mackaye and was presented first three years ago at Concord, N. H., the summer home of President Wilson. At that time Miss Eleanor Wilson, now Mrs. McAdoo, took the part of Ornis, the bird spirit.

In the present presentation the seven principal characters will be taken as follows:

Ornis, the bird spirit, Miss Joy Higgins.
Quercus, a faun, Hugh E. Wallace.
Alwyn, a poet, Harry O. Palmer.
Shy, a naturalist, Matt Jenks.
Tacita, a dryad, Miss Pleasant Holyoke.

Stark, a plume hunter, Jay Burns, jr.
The Cardinal Bird, A. W. Jefferis.
The birds will be represented by about seventy girls and boys in costume. Scarlet tangiers, yellow warblers, blue birds, red-headed woodpeckers, all the feathered folk of the forest will be seen in appropriate costume. Finally comes the call:
Bird and man and faun and fairy,
Gather now to sanctuary.

And from all directions come the birds and the animals and men and mingle in peace and friendliness. Then comes the dance of the yellow warblers.

The object of "sanctuary" of course, is to promote more friendly feelings among men for the birds, to cement the entente cordiale, as they say in diplomatic circles.

Birds are not only beautiful, cheerful, useful, but they are useful. Robin redbreast is not only an ornament to the lawn and a joy to your eyes, but he is a protection to the trees and garden. He eats about three times his own weight of bugs and worms every day. So, what if he does take a berry or two for dessert!

Without the birds in this or any other country man would starve to death because the bugs and worms would destroy all the growing crops.

So, you see, bird-protection should appeal to hard-headed business persons as well as to the kind of heart and the lovers of the beautiful.

The musical part of the pageant promises to be as charming as the spectacular. Four lyrics have been composed especially for it and the bird calls of the choruses are said to be particularly delightful.

There will be incidental music all through the performance and the prelude, "The Song of the Hermit Thrush" will be sung by Mrs. Beulah Dale Turner.

Patrons will have the privilege of buying ice cream and lemonade from such classic, mythological creatures as nymphs and dryads. These nymphs and dryads will be society girls of Omaha. The ice cream and lemonade won't be mythological, but real.

Rehearsals will be held every day from now on.

BURT FAIR ASSOCIATION PLANS FOR BIG EXHIBITS

Oakland, Neb., June 10.—The directors of the Burt County Agricultural society have selected September 12-13-14 as the dates of the Burt county fair, to be held at Oakland. It proved so successful that plans are contemplated for another large exhibit hall this fall. The premium list will soon be out, and it is expected to see many more exhibits in all departments at the fall exhibition.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, June 11.—(Special.)—The month of May was an especially busy one for the fire commissioner's office. Buffum, 1,523 by Assistant Inspector M. G. McCune and Chief Assistant H. F. Requette made forty-two inspections and seventeen other orders.

Home Celebration of Wonder Interest

The arrival of a baby in the household completely changes the entire aspect of the future. But in the meantime, during the anxious period of expectancy, there is a need for a remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that does wonders. It is for external use, relieves the pains of muscle expansion, soothes and quiets the nerves, extends its influence to the internal organs and removes to a great extent the tendency to worry and apprehension. It is a natural treatment, safe for the mother, has no drug effect whatsoever and for this reason must exert a most beneficial influence upon those functions directly connected with motherhood. In a very interesting book the subject is fully discussed and a copy will be mailed free to all expectant mothers by Bradford Regulator Co., 408 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" today of any druggist. Use as directed and you will then know why mothers for nearly half a century have used and recommended this splendid aid to motherhood. Their letters are a record of cases that breathe comfort in every word.
