No "pussyfooting" is permissible at St. Louis. "Gumbosing" is the proper official caper.

Mexico may not be looking for real trouble, but they are heading in the right direction to find it.

Mexican Issue Sharply Outlined.
Colonel Roosevelt patly remarked at St. Louis a few days ago, "peace still rages unabated along the Mexican border." As the conditions there will largely figure in the approaching campaign, the democrats undertaking to defend the policy of the president, it is of more than usual interest to follow the daily drift of events.

Mr. Wilson is directly responsible for Carranza. His refusal to recognize Huerta, no matter for what reason, amounted in effect to an interference in the affairs of a country with whom we were at peace.

Especially in engineering, agriculture and business are the universities putting forth a vigorous effort. We are accustomed to think of engineering as an old field, for it is three-quarters of a century since the first polytechnic institute commenced work.

A field in which even more work is being mapped out is that of business education. The Wharton school was opened in the early '80's, and a few others in the later '90's, but their prestige and enrollment were comparatively small.

People of Omaha will feel a deep sense of personal loss in the death of Arthur D. Brandeis, who was known to so many of the older residents because of his long career as a successful business man in this city, and to the younger generation for the reason that he was prominently connected with the growth of the city in the last few years.

It is in strict accord with the eternal fitness of things that "Gum Shoe Bill" Stone should be selected to carry President Wilson's personally-prepared platform to St. Louis.

Formal steps have been taken by a convention of dancing masters to make the pedal art less complicated and more restful and conducive to conversation.

The segregated members of the Standard Oil family manage to keep acquainted, to visit occasionally and take nourishment in the good old way.

Thirty Years Ago This Day in Omaha
Compiled From Bee Files.
The members of the festival chorus have raised a handsome purse and will present Prof. Pratt with a beautiful jewel-mounted baton.

Mr. Knapp, agent of the B. & M. at this point, has left for a trip of several days to places in Michigan and Ohio.

Educational 'Preparedness'
New York Evening Post.
This is the week of commencements, and there are many reminders what an army of graduates the United States musters.

Especially in engineering, agriculture and business are the universities putting forth a vigorous effort. We are accustomed to think of engineering as an old field, for it is three-quarters of a century since the first polytechnic institute commenced work.

A field in which even more work is being mapped out is that of business education. The Wharton school was opened in the early '80's, and a few others in the later '90's, but their prestige and enrollment were comparatively small.

A natural accompaniment of this growth is the closer practical union of certain college and university departments with the industrial world.

York Democrat: It is time Nebraska quit worrying about how much money is spent for state purposes, and begin worrying about getting adequate service for the money it spends.

Nebraska Press Comment
York Democrat: It is time Nebraska quit worrying about how much money is spent for state purposes, and begin worrying about getting adequate service for the money it spends.

Grand Island Independent: The building of a "teachery" for each rural school in Nebraska is a new plan proposed by a social service organization and promoted by the lumber interests.

York Republican: It is easier to parade than to march with gun and knapsack. It is pleasanter to walk than to fight with a stubborn enemy.

Philadelphia Ledger: There is grave doubt among those who know China well whether Li Yuan Heng, who as vice president succeeded Yuan Shikai, is strong enough to maintain the emergency.

Pittsburgh Dispatch: It doesn't speak any too well for the British way of doing things, either, that a vessel carrying the war commander should have gone without safeguards against either mine or torpedo.

The Bee's Letter Box
'Magazine' Article Technically Faulty.
Omaha, June 9.—To the Editor of The Bee: I, for one, would like to enter a protest against the article published in the Bee concerning a telephone girl and her troubles.

Engineer's Right to Pay.
Omaha, June 11.—To the Editor of The Bee: In reference to the railroads and their claims of high wages to the aristocrats of the labor world, regarding their passenger engineers, I wish to state that their engineers drawing such large salaries of $100 and $150 a month, are just simply making up a gain of about 200 percent on a salary they have coming to them through loss of having to buck the extra list for eight or nine years, at an average salary of $50 a month.

Justice Courts and Municipal Courts.
Omaha, June 12.—To the Editor of The Bee: Welfare Attention is being drawn to too much territory when he condemns all Omaha justice courts. He deserves the well considered rebuke administered by Justice A. E. Baldwin in today's Bee.

Kind of Flowers to Wear.
Omaha, June 12.—To the Editor of The Bee: Your short box on the 9th "Subscriber," who is too modest to sign his name, suggests to all prohibitionists wear white flowers as an emblem of their cause.

SUNNY GEMS.
'I like an outspoken adversary.'
'Well, dear,' asked the lady at last, 'what do you think of it?'
'Oh,' replied the small observer, 'I think it's all right. Aunt Mary told mamma it was a perfect fright, but it doesn't frighten me any.'—New York Times.

DEAR MR. KASHBINE,
I THOUGHT A YOUNG LADY
I MARRIED WAS ECONOMICAL—
NOW I FIND SHE IS VERY
EXTRAVAGANT—WENT SHOPPING
START IN "BORROWING" NOW—
PREPAREDNESS, YOU KNOW!

The athletic young man had just been introduced to the young widow.
'Are you fond of sports, Mrs. Weeds?' he asked.
'Not at present,' she replied, 'but I used to be. My late husband was one.'—Indianapolis Star.

Jones—I suppose, merely as a matter of parental duty, I shall have to take that boy to the circus.
Mrs. Jones—But I don't want him to go this year.
Jones—Then I shall have to go alone.—Boston Transcript.

'I got my constituents an eighty-thousand dollar postoffice,' boasted Congressman Flubdu. 'They ought to be grateful, eh?'
'I dunno,' said Congressman Wombat. 'I prefer the individual note. When you send a man a 10-cent package of free seeds he sort of feels that you have done something for him personally.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

'She won't be able to see you tonight, Mr. Smith,' said her little brother. 'She's had a terrible accident.'
'Is that so? What happened?'
'All her hair got burned up.'
'Good heavens! Was she burned?'
'No; she wasn't there. She don't know about it yet.'—Philadelphia Ledger.

Antiquarian—So you want me to select a family tree for you, sir?
Newly Rich Customer—Yes but I don't want any of the kind with hanging branches.—Baltimore American.

The dentist told me I had a large cavity that needed filling.
Did he recommend any special course of study?—Puck.

THE MELANCHOLY GOLFER.
Edgar A. Guest, in Detroit Free Press.
You can talk as you will of being merry and gay.
You can preach optimism and hope.
You can whisper that trouble will soon pass away.
And give me the regular dope.
But life will be dismal and dreary to me
And my cup will be bitter as gall
And a chronic old pessimist still will I be
If I'm topping and slicing the ball.

There are cases that the voice of a friend may relieve.
There are troubles that sympathy cures;
But alone and unaided a grinder must grive
And great are the pang he endures.
And the kindly advice that friends offer to him
In this sorrow mean nothing at all;
You can't talk him out of despondency grim
If he can't keep his eye on the ball.
