New Ordinance to Regulate Brick Kilns

An amended ordinance offered by Mayor Dahlman at the meeting of the city council provides that after September 10 no brick kiln within the city limits may be operated with clay from locations other than the immediate vicinity of the kiln.

This measure refers particularly to the Smith Bros. Brick yard, against which improvement clubs protested on account of dirt being hauled over paved streets from points some distance from the yard. The council voted to give the Smith company ninety days in which to abate the objectionable features of their business.

Dodging through the crowd with amazing agility, considering his bulk, Hook would have caught Satsuma had he not tripped on a length of firehose and gone sprawling. Satsuma, his attention directed by the jeers and laughter of the onlookers, turned, recognized the prostrate and cursing seaman, and, getting his motorcycle started at that moment, shot down the street and disappeared around a corner.

But the first and most important thing for us to do is to make straight for 1485 Edgemer road and have a look at the book bought by this man Stephan-ski."

When Olga Ivanoff left the Daw son auction rooms with the list which by her simple ruse, she had obtained so easily, she directed the driver of her taxicab to take her to the Portola Arms, where she had an apartment Thirty minutes later, having removed the traces of her hurried trip from tered, for in the half hour which had Valdavia, she re-entered the car and ordered the man to drive her to 1485 Edgemere road. Had it not been for Edgemere road. Had it not been for her woman's vanity the entire course of this story might have been altered, for in the half hour which had elapsed Gerald Morton had called upon Dawson, had likewise obtained a copy of the list, like Olga, was on his way to the Edgemere road address. Thus it happened that, as the touring car which he had engaged was speeding out California street, Olga's taxicab, recklessly driv-

FOURTH INSTALLMENT.

Synopsis.

Lieutenant Jarvis Hope is detailed by the United States naval board to investigate and report his findings on the invention of Dr. Raiph Burks, which serves to bring the submarine to a state of perfection. The lieutenant arrives in Valdavis and is welcomed, by the inventor and his daughter, Cleo. On the trial trip of the inventors boat, a Japanaso helper is surprised in the set of the country falls, but later are often manufactory falls, but later are often manufactory falls, but later are often fine for a state only to find it in flames.

"There he is! There he is! That's the fellow who cailed on me last!" the rivide excitedly, pointing through the cigar store window. "Seel Across the street there! The fellow just getting on a motorcycle!"

"By the living jingo, if it ain't Satsuma!" roared Hook. "Just let me get a-holt of the skunk!" and trushed for the door, followed by Hope and Cleo, the former as he ran thrusting into his pocket the sheet from Dawson's ledger.

Dodging through the crowd with his pocket with the set of the collection of the shock, "but your car appeared so suddenly that we didn't have time to turn aside.

"Where do you wish to go?" he in-quired, taking the seat beside her in the tonneau.

"To Edgemere road," she answered, consulting a paper which she took from her purse, "No. 1485."

Morton stared at her in sher amaze-ment.

"Why, that is where I was—" he began, and then checked himself. Of all the extraordinary coincidences of which he had ever heard, surely this was the trangest, that he, hurrying to an obscure house in a remote suburb of the city, should collide with a taxicab carrying a beautiful woman to the same destination! What was taking her to the house in Edgemere road, he wondered. Suddenly he recalled Dawson's description of the woman who had called at the auction rooms and obtained a copy of the list. "A tall, dark, foreign-looking woman," the auctioneer had said. There was no room for doubt; the woman was no room for doubt; the woman of the auction room episode and the woman of the taxicab accident must be one and the same.
