Summary for the corn and wheat region states, Rainfail occurred in the greater portions of Kansa, Nebraska, South Da-kota and Minneonia. The armounts were heavy and acceeding one inch at a number of stations in these states. Rain also oc-curred in northwest lows and extreme south portion of North Dakota. Tenuberature is still mostly below the seasonable normal, and the maximus were not much higher than eighty even in Oklahoma and Ken-tucky.

Prisoner in Jail

Counting Seconds to

Up in the county jail an old man who is serving sixty days for dis-orderly conduct has done nothing but stare at the ceiling and count since he was brought in. When meal time comes, he writes down a figure on the wall and hurries through with his wall and hurries through with his meal. Then he commences staring again, and moving his lips strangely. "That's the way he passes the time," explained Deputy Sheriff Joe Pos-pischal. "He just sits there and counts. Yesterday he was up to 3.600, 546 at supper time. He's been in five days and he started as soon as he came in. I thunk he's cheating too." According to other deputy sheriffs. the old man becomes enraged if any-one distracts his attention to ask why he counts or how far he has counted.

TALK AT TEMPLE ISRAEL

Rabbi Louis Bernstein of St. Joseph, Mo., has been secured by the Menorah society of Omaha to deliver an address at Temple Israel Thurs-day evening at 8 p. m. The subject of this address will be "Service, the Watchword of Our Fatth." Dr. Bernstein, who was one a stu-dent of the Omaha High school, has achieved some success as an orator, besides being known as an authority on certain phases of social reform.
