

THIS ONE HAS PENCHANT FOR STEALING GARBAGE CANS

"Slumgullion the Smelt," the galvanized garbage can thief, is again at work. That is, the cans are galvanized, not "Slum," he is merely hard-boiled. His recent activities consist of the theft of two new cans from George Reiff, 3317 Emmet street, on separate occasions, and brand new cans from Mrs. W. A. Preisman, 1318 North Thirty-second street; Mrs. J. Fangman, 2602 California street; Sam Sommers, 629 Lincoln boulevard; D. Brodsky, 2812

Dodge; N. Anthony, 2814 Dodge street; Mrs. H. Helgren, 2803 Chicago street; Patrick Dempsey, 2917 Webster, Mrs. E. Weiss, 408 North Twenty-sixth street. The police are on the scent, which they say is very strong and will eventually lead to "Slum's" tanning.

CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE FURNISHES YEAR'S WORK

Tennyson chapter of the Chautauqua circle closed its year's work Thursday with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Mack. American beauties and peonies were used in the decorations. Mrs. E. G. Hampton was elected president, Mrs. R. E. Sunderland, vice president; Mrs. W. B. Howard, leader; Mrs. H. F. Curtis and Mrs. N. H. Craig, division leaders, and Mrs. N. Nelson, critic. Next year's study will be on continental Europe. The text books are: "Germany Between Two Wars," by Fife; "France Under the Republic," by Braquet; "Belgium, Land of Art," by Griffis; "Things Men Fight For," by Powers, and "Independence," by Mrs. Howard was presented a picture of the cathedral at Rheims in token of her services last year. A picnic will be given later at "Grey Rocks," the home of Mrs. J. A. Sunderland.

Men! Make a Note of This and Pin It in Your Hat

Our Annual June Sale of Men's Summer SHIRTS

STARTS Saturday morning with great preparations and a remarkable layout of shirts and greater values than we have been able to offer for a long time. This sale is chock full of the shirts you want and need and at a price you'll be pleased to pay.

Shirts that usually sell for $2.50, offered to you Saturday at . . . . $1.35

The biggest snap of the season. This is the way it came about. We bought a big lot of high grade shirting cloth from a big manufacturer at a price about half the present market quotation and had it made up into shirts to our own rigid specifications. The shirts are certainly beauties—every one of pleasing color and design combination, shirts if bought under the ordinary conditions would have to sell for $2.50, but our price Saturday as many as you want, $1.35 each. Generously cut sizes, 14 to 18 inch band, with plenty of the small sizes, perfect fitting.
Tell your friends about the sale, have them meet you here, they'll thank you for the tip.
