Kolland Crew Administers Defeat to Rourkes to Tune of Two to One.

PATTERSON JUST SAVES SELF

St. Joseph, Mo., June 16 .- (Special Telegram.)—Before a Booster day growd of nearly 2,500 people the Drummers defeated the Rourkes this afternoon, 2 to 1. It was another of those pitchers' battles, both Patterson and Krause pitching nice ball, but coupled with this was an exhibition of some of the classiest fielding seen at the league park this year. The one-hand stop by Otto Williams of Krueger's hard-hit ball in the sixth was as spectacular a play as has been seen at the park this season, andanother was made when Miller, the Omaha first sacker, pulled down an infield hit of Patterson's and made a doublep lay unassisted Rourkes Score Early.
