

This Is The Last Day!

It will cost you from $11 to $19 more (according to the binding) to buy this great work after tonight

What Our Offer Means
 You send a single dollar (see below)
 —we send you the books
 —the entire 29 volumes
 —then you have three weeks in which to make up your mind if you wish to keep them
 —if not, every cent you have paid comes back. (See our guarantee.)
 No questions asked!
 You take no risk. We take it all.
 Why can we do it? Because you will find it so useful—so helpful to your children, you can't return the books.
 Not one buyer in a hundred does.

Tonight—at 7.33 p. m.
 —at the hour of sunset in Chicago
 —ends your opportunity to obtain the new Encyclopaedia Britannica
 —the complete, unabridged new Eleventh Edition
 —in the new "Handy Volume" Issue
 —at the present low prices
 —only 1/3 the price of the Cambridge University issue
 (the entire 29 volumes sent for a first payment of $1).
 But your order must be post-marked at your home post-office before 7.33 tonight.

The New "Handy Volume" Issue

Tonight is the End.

Our great campaign for a wider distribution of the Encyclopaedia Britannica among the people of the United States closes tonight.

We are very proud of our work. More than a quarter of a million people have written to ask for a prospectus of the new "Handy Volume" Issue. And tens of thousands of these have bought it.

An avalanche of orders yesterday. And a still heavier one coming today.

Yet thousands will hesitate or forget. Then they will have to pay more.

TIME TO TELEGRAPH
 If you wish to make reservation by telegraph, we will hold a set for you.

But if your order with your dollar is post-marked at your home post-office before 7.33 p. m. tonight we will fill your order if we possibly can.

The Road to Success

Dr. Frank Crane, one of the most widely known writers in the United States, said:

"Such a work as the Encyclopaedia Britannica is not the product of one man's genius; it is the finished utterance of the human race; it is the verdict of English civilization; it is the oracle of this present century."

"To consult it is to consult mankind."

"The Encyclopaedia is the one book you cannot afford not to own."

"I unhesitatingly say that if I were a young man, whether a clerk, a salesman, a farmer, or engaged in one of the professions, I would own this set of books if I had to go without lunch every day and wear a shiny coat."

"Get the encyclopaedia hit. Other things being equal, success is the reward of the man who is sure of his facts."

The new "Handy Volume" Issue which we offer brings you the new 11th Edition, absolutely complete, at one-third the price of the Cambridge University issue of the same work.

All these beautiful volumes come to you for a first payment of one dollar

A final word!

Say to yourself this:

"I ought to have in my home, for daily use, a work which will bring within reach of all the family the whole world's knowledge."

"I want the greatest work of its kind, the highest authority, and —I want also the newest and most up-to-date of all encyclopaedias, a new work, by living men, writing in the light of the newest knowledge."

"That is the new Eleventh Edition of the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, published by the Cambridge University Press."

"Hitherto I could not afford this magnificent work. The cost—from $196 to $250—was beyond my means."

"I can afford it now, because a new 'Handy Volume' issue has been made, and is now offered for sale at one-third of these higher prices."

"I can get the complete work, the entire 29 volumes, for a first payment of one dollar."

"They agree that if I am not in every way satisfied I may send back the books, and they will return my dollar with all shipping charges."

"It will cost me only $3 a month, or a little more, to keep the books and I will have the complete work to use, to read and to enjoy."

"This is too great an opportunity for me to lose. I will fill out the order form adjoining, and enclose it with one dollar, to Sears, ROEBUCK and CO., and I'll do it now."

Just pay a dollar bill to this order form, sign and send today!

*Your money back if you wish

Remember that when you sign the order form below and send us your dollar the sale is not closed. All this does is to secure the shipment to you of 29 volumes of the new "Handy Volume" Issue in whatever style of binding you desire. Then you have three weeks in which to examine the volumes in your own home, use them every day, discuss them with your family, learn how wonderfully valuable this great work may be to you and every member of your household, especially to your growing children. Then if for any reason whatsoever you decide you do not wish to keep the books, you may return them and we will refund your dollar and all shipping charges as well.
