HELD BY NEEDLE IN THUMB Woman Held Prisoner at Sewing Machine for Half an Hour.

With the needle of a sewing machine through her left thumb, Mrs. Mary Lamerkan, 50 years old, 928 Vailey street, Philadelphia, was held a prisoner at her machine for half an hour. She became so faint that she was unable to call for help for several minutes after the accident.

The needle went through the fleshy part of the thumb when Mrs. Lamerkan was seated at the machine sewing. A neighbor, hearing Mrs. Lamerkan's cries, brought Leo Mullen, 1828 North Chapel street, and Patrolman Keck of the northeastern district to the house.

Keck of the northeastern district to the house.

Mrs. Lamerkan was suffering intense pain, because the needle was bent and could not be removed by an upward motion of the needle socket. Patrolmen Keck and Mullen got a small steel saw and sawed it off. Dr. A. L. Rettallata, 1038 North Broadway, removed the broken needle. Philadelphia Inquirer.
