CALM ONCE MORE IN JUAREZ

Washington, D. C., une 19.-All members of congress who discussed members of congress who discussed the Mexican situation today were virtually a unit without regard of part, in approving the president's call for the National Guard. Republicans contended, however, that a decided course adopted long ago might have made the call unnecessary.

MILITARY BOARD OF STATE CONFERS

Hold Conference at Lincoln Following Governor's Receipt of Washington Message.

NO ORDER TO STATE TROOPS

(From a Staff Correspondent.) BULLETIN.

BULLETIN.

Omaha militia companies tonight received an order from Governor Morehead ordering them to proceed under mobilization orders for mustering into the federal service. Hereafter they will be under government pay and be subject to immediate call.

Lincoln, Neb., June 19.—(Special Telegram.)—While it is not given out officially, the military board, in ses-sion here tonight, is apparently await-ing more definite news from Washing more definite news from Washington before issuing an order to the National Guard of Nebraska to mobilize locally.

Members of the board, composed of Colonels Eberly and Paul of the two regiments of the Nebraska troops, and Major and Captain Jess, held a meeting tonight with General-Hall. It was announced there would be no official order before morning-Unofficially, the information was gleaned that the board has not yet received orders warranting a general mobilization. It is believed that this may not come unless the situation may not come unless the situation at the border grows more serious corps, Fremont; field hospital corps, Lincoln. The Fifth regiment is short one company, E, which was mustered out some time ago at Davenport.

Headquarters of the Nebraska National Guard took on a war-time appearance just before noon today, a guard being posted at the outside door of General Hall's headquarters and all suspicious looking characters had to pass the gauntlet. According to the orders issued by the secretary of war the companies of the guard will be mobilized at their home station and recruiting started at once. Each company will be expected to have at least sixty-five men and three officers before being sent to the state mobilization grounds.

W. Murray Crane, chairman of the subcommittee, described the conference as having been merely a preliminary meeting. Mr. Hughes expective to leave for Providence, R. I., late this afternoon to attend the Brown university commencement exercises. The committee would meet him again, it was said, on his return later in the week.

With the exception of Ralph E. Williams of Oregon, all the eight members of the subcommittee were present today.
