THE WORK OF A LIFETIME TIP-TOP BREAD. Was not brought to its present standard of perfection in a day. A lifetime of bread-making experience, years of scientific investigation and experiment, and the expenditure of vast sums of money have all had a share in making TIP-TOP BREAD the perfect food it is today.

The manufacturing and delivery methods of the U. P. Steam Bakery make Tip-Top a clean loaf—the use of high grade flour, and our scientific process of bread-making, guarantees it pure and healthful.

TIP-TOP BREAD is a loaf which offers maximum food value for minimum cost. It is an every meal standby for every member of the family, as nourishing and body-building as it is delicious and palatable. You can buy it with confidence, serve it with satisfaction, and eat it with pleasure.

rade," excellently sung. An odd melodic figure with strong rhythmic beat and a frequent reiteration of a drum effect in the basses runs through the three verses, as the parade seems to approach, pass and proceed on its way to the distant graveyard.

The grand chorus did some of its finest dynamic work of the evening in this number. The great crescendo and diminuendo were so even and gradual that it needed but little imagination to fill in the picture.

Work of the Clubs All Good. Space does not permit of a separate mention for each of the individual clubs which sang last evening. They each added a share to the enjoyment of the concert.

HUGHES AND COLLEGE MATES SING OLD SONGS. Tiverton, R. I., June 21.—Charles E. Hughes, republican presidential nominee, renewed acquaintances with his former classmates of Brown university at the home of Benjamin Barker, host to the class of '81.

Because the big "clean-up" purchase, which we were so fortunate in making of the Security Storage & Wholesale Furniture Distributing Co., will last only a limited time, even though it consists of a "train load" of furniture. The prices which we are enabled to put on these goods is the thing that makes the real buying opportunity for you.

The salesfloors represent now a veritable sea of everything for the Home. Our big Omaha warehouse is loaded to the roof, but your delay may cause you to miss just the article you would like so much to own.

This immense stock, bought at a figure that enables us to maintain our "Every Day Low Prices" and places our salesmen before you relieved of the embarrassment of having to speak of high prices now in force at the markets and which are soaring higher.

More Reasons Why you should not delay any anticipated purchase of FURNITURE or RUGS
