Two Little Girls' Movie Ambitions Quickly Dashed

A movie ducen lives a happy life.
So thought Ruth Fitch, aged 9, 4855 Cuming street, and Vernessa Carter, aged 11, 4517 Lafayette avenue, yesterday afternoon after they tired of play. The girls accordingly packed up their possessions in four huge grips and leaving a 2-year-old child of the Carter family to amuse himself, they struggled to a car line and started out for California, where movies are made.

E. B. Shamp, 4321 M. street, south side, going home last night chanced to spy the two young misses trying to sleep on a sheet they had stretched out on the ground near the south end of the Crosstown car line. He took them to his home and found their parents through the police. Vernessa Carter had 11 cents and a zither among her belongings. Ruth Fitch had no money but she thought she must be almost to California when she alighted from the car at Fortyfourth and L streets, so she told Mr.
Shamp.
