

NO DIRECT NEWS OF GARRIZAL BATTLE

Fate of Troop of Tenth Cavalry Surrounded by Mexicans is Not Yet Known.

STORY TOLD BY STRAGGLERS

San Antonio, Tex., June 23.—Whether the little force of the Tenth United States Cavalry under Captain Charles T. Boyd fought its way out successfully through the ring of Mexican troops which had almost surrounded it at Carrizal still was unknown at General Funston's headquarters today.

These, with the number reported from Chihuahua to have been captured, would account for practically one troop, or 50 per cent of the command. Indeed, from the reports available so far, it is by no means certain that Captain Boyd's command was not practically wiped out.

Attack is Unprovoked. According to the story told General Pershing by these stragglers, the attack was entirely unprovoked and was made after the Mexican forces had partly surrounded the Americans under cover of a purely between General Gomez and Captain Boyd. It was not until after the Mexicans had opened fire with a machine gun that Captain Boyd dismounted his command and returned the fire.

Apparently, the men who made their way back to General Pershing's headquarters did not encounter the two squadrons of the Eleventh Cavalry sent by General Pershing to reinforce the two troops of the Tenth and no report from this source had reached General Pershing.

General Funston pointed out a discrepancy in the report coming through Mexican sources to the effect that Captain Morey had been killed. The Mexican report stated that the American commander had been killed, while General Funston pointed out that Captain Boyd was the senior officer of Captain Morey.

and would have been in command. General Pershing's report stated that he had warned Captain Boyd that he was on a reconnoitering expedition only and that he was to use every precaution against precipitating a clash with Mexican troops. The fact that these instructions had been given is taken by army officers here to substantiate the story of the stragglers that the attack was unprovoked by the Americans and made without warning.

A report from the two squadrons of the Eleventh Cavalry was expected by General Pershing early today. Battery A of the Texas National Guard left before daybreak today for Brownsville, where they will report to General Parker.

Hearing of Villisca Suspect to Be Held At Topeka July 8

Red Oak, Ia., June 23.—(Special.)—Sheriff O. E. Jackson returned to Red Oak yesterday from Kansas City where he and County Attorney O. T. Gillet went Monday with the intention of bringing back to Iowa, William Mansfield, charged with the crime of killing the Joe Moore family of Villisca and two Stillinger girls four years ago.

However, the prisoner has not yet been brought back to this state, as he claims to have been in Minnesota at the time the crime was committed, and he will attempt to prove an alibi. The hearing on the alibi affidavits which have been prepared by Mansfield's attorneys will be before Governor Capper of Kansas at Topeka on Saturday, July 8. Until that time Mansfield will be confined in jail at Kansas City.

Attorney Gillet did not return home Sheriff Jackson stating that he remained in Kansas City to make arrangements for the hearing before the Kansas governor next month. The Red Oak officers are of the opinion that they have the right man incarcerated, much of the evidence, they say, indicating that he is the man who committed the Villisca murders. It is not known whether he will be placed in the Montgomery county jail when he is brought back to Iowa, if he is unable to prove an alibi, whether he will be taken to some other county.

TREVINO BLAMES U. S. ARMY OFFICERS

Mexican Commander Says They Have Caused All the Trouble Between Two Countries.

BODY OF GOMEZ AT CHIHUAHUA

Chihuahua City, Mex., June 23.—Criticism of American military men, who he said have caused all the trouble between Mexico and the United States, was made by General Jacinto Trevino, military commander of the northeast, in an interview with the Associated Press today. General Trevino said that General Hugh Scott was evidently wrong when he told the Mexican conferees at the meeting in El Paso that the American military men least of all factors in the United States wished to fight against Mexico.

"The American military has disobeyed the orders of its own chiefs, has never respected the feelings or the property of Mexican citizens and has contemptuously ignored the dispositions of the Mexican government," declared the general. "I do not want war," added General Trevino, "and I am doing my utmost to control the situation, but if war is forced on the Mexican nation by the Americans, I am both ready and willing to do my duty, like every other faithful son, to uphold the honor and dignity of my country."

Body of Gomez Arrives. Officers arriving here today with the body of General Felix Gomez, who was killed in the Carrizal engagement, said that the American leaders evidently had instructed their men to concentrate their fire on the general who, on account of his great bulk, was an easy target. They said General Gomez was the first Mexican to fall, with three bullets in his chest.

From Colonel Zuazua at Namiquipa base has practically been abandoned and that the Americans have given the rancheros more than 200 rifles that were taken from the Villistas.

General Trevino is still treating with Contreras, Hernandez and other Villa leaders to come in and help expel the invaders. All towns in Northern Mexico have asked for arms, offering to equip from 500 to 2,000 in each town to help the government.

HYMENEAL

Johnston-Arnold. Fullerton, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—The marriage of Miss Edna Elizabeth Arnold and Mr. Rankin Smith Johnston of New Wilmington, Pa., took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Arnold, in the presence of about 100 friends and relatives. The rooms were profusely decorated with ferns, palms and roses. A colonnade of white Doric pillars twined with smilax and fern had been erected in the music room. Beneath this the ceremony was performed by Dr. George A. Ray, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Council Bluffs, Ia. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Edgar R. Sampson of Pittsburgh, Pa., as best man. The bridal party came down the staircase and through an aisle of ribbons held by Misses Mary Bohrer of North Loup, Isabelle and Roberta Brannan of Archer and Evelyn Reimers. The bridesmaids were Miss Lucile Hagar of Omaha and Miss Catherine McChesney of Belgrade. Mrs. Frank Arnold was matron of honor. The flower girls were little Misses Gertrude and Dorothy Bohrer of North Loup, nieces of the bride, and the ring was carried by little Henrietta Barnes. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. J. Dudley Barnes sang "A Birthday," and Mr. Frances Robinson, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Edwin Arnold of Elnora, who played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bridal party entered. The marriage is the culmination of a romance started when both Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were teachers in Old Dwight mission in Oklahoma. They left for a wedding trip in the west, and will be at home after August 1 in New Wilmington, Pa.

Darling-Helweg. Miss Freda C. Helweg and Roy L. Darling, both of Decorah, Ia., were married at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. Rev. M. V. Higbee was the clergyman and the service was at his home, 2011 Maple street.
