

Nebraska LINCOLN CHOSEN FOR CONVENTION

Republican Committee Selects Capital City as Location July 25.

GURNEY TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, June 23.—(Special Telegram.)—The state republican committee will not open headquarters until after the platform convention July 25, at Lincoln.

Decision was reached at a meeting of the state committee at the Lindell hotel last evening.

The chairman and secretary of the present state committee were authorized to issue the call according to the requirements of the statutes which sets out that the basis of representation shall be made on the vote cast for presidential electors at the last presidential election. The representation was fixed so there will be approximately 1,000 votes in the convention.

Gurney Temporary Chairman.

E. R. Gurney of Fremont was selected as temporary chairman of the state convention.

On motion of E. D. Beach of Lincoln the chairman was instructed to send the following message to Charles E. Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks:

"The republican state committee of Nebraska representing the reunited party sends greetings to our chosen standard bearers, Charles E. Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks.

"We hail their leadership as an assurance of success in the coming campaign for which they will have the enthusiastic support of all Nebraska republicans."

Address were made by state candidates A. L. Sutton, John L. Kennedy, R. W. Devore, Fred Beckmann, S. C. Bassett, H. P. Shumway, Addison Waitte, H. T. Clarke, W. P. Warner and several others.

Clarke Denies Fake.

Railway Commissioner H. T. Clarke wanted the committee to understand that the story circulated by democrats that he expected to withdraw from the republican ticket was a fake and that he intended to get into the campaign with considerable vigor when the time came.

In the absence of Secretary Pierce, Charles McLeod of Stanton was secretary.

There was a fairly good attendance of the committee and a great deal of enthusiasm.

As usual Engine Westerveld of Scott's Bluff, the old reliable western Nebraska republican war horse, traveled 500 long miles to attend the meeting.

District Court in Session at Madison

Madison, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Judge Welch held a short quiet session of district court here Thursday afternoon. Divorces were granted to Arthur Hill from Bertha Hill; also custody of child to Ora J. Kenter from Everett C. Kenter, she having her maiden name of Ora J. Sodeberg restored; to Chris A. Beiler from Anna Beiler and custody of child, and to Ella Bertram from August F. Bertram, also custody of child. It was decreed that Bertram pay to Mrs. Bertram for the support of the child $12 per month until further order of the court, also $40 for her attorney's fees.

In the matter of the divorce suit of William M. Armstrong against Hannah Armstrong, the court found for defendant and dismissed the action at plaintiff's cost.

In the case of the state of Nebraska against Charles L. Bates for wife desertion, motion for new trial overruled; defendant was arraigned and given an indeterminate sentence of not less than one year in the state prison.

ALLEGED HORSETHIEF IN VALENTINE JAIL

Valentine, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Sheriff Hahn returned yesterday from Merriman, bringing with him a man by the name of Joe Downing, whom he arrested on the charge of horse stealing. The horses were stolen some time last December from Downing's brother, who lives near Rolf, Neb. Sheriff Hahn has had the man under suspicion for some time but just located him. Downing was brought here and landed in jail. He denies the charge entirely, claiming he knows nothing about the deal.

Mexicans Suspected of Theft.

Beatrice, Neb., June 23.—(Special Telegram.)—A large amount of silk goods was stolen today from the Mercer B. Walker Dry Goods company and Klein's Mercantile company. Some of the goods were found near town. The officers are looking for two Mexicans suspected of the theft.

Beatrice Has Two "War" Marriages

Beatrice, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Beatrice has two war brides, who were married yesterday by Judge Walden at the court house, the contracting parties being Private Ferdinand Marz and Miss Emma Schroeder and Private Vern T. Perry and Miss Altha Lemmel. The grooms are both members of Company C, which left today for Lincoln to enter mobilization camp.

William Greenieper and Miss Ida Koch were married Wednesday at De Witt. Rev. Mr. Schaff officiated. They will make their home on a farm near Plymouth.

A young man named Rigsley was released from the county jail in order that he could enlist as a member of Company C Rigsley was serving out a fine of $350 on a charge of bootlegging.

Mrs. J. H. Robbins, formerly of Corland, died Monday at her home at Los Angeles, Cal. The deceased was 46 years of age.

Rev. J. A. Lowe of Omaha, formerly pastor of the Lutheran church at this place, and Mrs. Anna Peters of this city were married at the home of Walter Springer at Omaha last evening. Rev. Charles Lowe, son of the groom, officiated.

This is Midsummer day.

FAREWELLS TO THE 'KHAKIS'

SPEECHMAKING AT WAYNE

Wayne, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Three thousand friends thronged the station at Wayne this morning to tell the sixty-five boys of Company E, Fourth regiment of the Nebraska Guard goodbye when they left here at 10 o'clock for the mobilization fields at Lincoln.

Rev. W. L. Gaston, secretary of the public service club, in the farewell speech told the "khakis": "You cannot go far enough or stay away long enough for our deep interest in you to wane. We are not sending you to curse Mexico, but to help and bless it. When American soldiery has shown those hungry, weak, ungoverned people a better way of living, then their fertile soil, touched by the magic hand of honest industry, will blossom till it feeds one-half the world."

In closing, Rev. Mr. Gaston entreated them to be men first and soldiers second.

With band playing and colors flying, the boys entrained on a special coach.

The officers are: Captain, A. L. Burnham, first lieutenant, J. H. Pile; second lieutenant, E. C. Mahaffey.
