

DRY WEATHER NOW NEEDED FOR CROPS

Both Wheat and Corn Would Do Better With a Little More Sunshine.

OTHER CROPS ARE GREAT

While the rain of Sunday night is not figured in the data given out in the crop reports of the Burlington and Northwestern, railroad officials assert that Nebraska is getting more rain than is needed for the growing crops.

The crop reports, taking into consideration conditions up to the end of last week show that for the period covered, all Nebraska was given a thorough wetting.

Added to the rain of last week, all through the North Platte country and as far west as Grand Island and Long Pine, there was a terrific down-pour Sunday night. Up along the Platte and in the Elkhorn valley there was one to two inches of rain during the late afternoon and night. However, the weather is now clear and somewhat cooler. In the country over which the Sunday storm passed, it is reported that most of the streams are out of their banks, and in many sections the crops on the bottoms are flooded.

Need Dry Weather.

In making up its weekly crop report, the Burlington officials assert that to assure a bumper winter wheat crop, a week to ten days of dry weather is needed. During the week, with favorable weather, wheat cutting will be commenced in the southern counties of the state, and next week harvest will be in full blast all through the South Platte country.

The comparative estimate indicates that wheat is still in fine condition. On the basis of a perfect crop, the Burlington gives out the following figures for last week and the week previous. They are as follows, by divisions:

Table with 3 columns: Division, Last Week, Previous Week. Rows include Omaha, Lincoln, Wynote, McCook.

Weeds Grow Fast.

It is reported that, due to the continued rain, corn did not progress as rapidly as desired. The trouble was that farmers were unable to get into their fields, and while the corn was making a good growth, the weeds were growing still more rapidly. Comparative figures on corn on the basis of 100 per cent for perfect condition, are as follows for the end of last week and the end of the previous week:

Table with 3 columns: Division, Last Week, Previous Week. Rows include Omaha, Lincoln, Wynote, McCook.

Other crops continue to give promise of bumper yields, with the pastures in about the best condition ever known.

Omaha Man Missing Almost Two Weeks

The missing man left Omaha twelve days ago in his automobile to make a business trip. David H. Ehrenreich of Omaha started a search for Chapman and succeeded in tracing him from Osceola to Lincoln, but lost the trail in Lincoln.

The license number of the automobile Chapman departed in is 74,141.

HEAVY RAIN OF SUNDAY DOES A LITTLE DAMAGE

SAYS CONDITIONS IN TURKEY ARE NORMAL

Samuel Anderson, Treasurer of Roberts College, Constantinople, Visits His Parents.

YEAR'S LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Conditions in Turkey are about normal, and reports to the contrary notwithstanding, there are no Americans leaving the country on account of political reasons or the war, Samuel Anderson, treasurer of Roberts college, Constantinople, who just arrived in Omaha, emphatically declared.

Mr. Anderson, a former Omaha boy, with quite a record in college work in the Orient, is here for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, 2218 Miami street. He is on a year's leave of absence, the most of which will be utilized, after a visit with his wife and two sons, who have been in California for the last couple of years, for study at an eastern university.

The party of Americans of which Mr. Anderson was a member left the Turkish capital May 27, the trip through Europe being made by way of Sofia, Budapest, Berlin and Copenhagen. They sailed from the chief city and capital of Denmark on the Oscar II, and stopped for a short time at Kirkwall, a town in the north of Scotland, arriving in port at New York on June 21.

Stripped of Clothing.

Mr. Anderson told of how, when they stopped at the different frontiers of the European countries, the officials made the most minute examinations of their passports, and in some cases stripped them to the skin in an effort to make sure that they were not carrying any papers of political significance. The members of the party, however, got through all right after successive overhauls at the hands of officials.

Mr. Anderson remained in New York for a few days for conference with the financial department of the board of foreign missions of the Congregational church, which maintains Roberts college at Constantinople.

Some Students Join Army.

The condition of the institution is excellent despite the war, Mr. Anderson averred. He said that there were 540 students at the college up until the time the war broke out, whereas there are 420 attending at the present time, many of the members of the class having joined the colors of the Turkish army.

Mr. Anderson has been in the Orient for several years. Previous to his connection with Roberts college he was treasurer of the Syrian Protestant college at Beirut.

TO OPERATE 'SAFETY FIRST' TRAINS ON U. P.

Railroad is to Supply Equipment and United States Government Exhibit.

TO INSTRUCT THE EMPLOYEE

Arrangements have been completed whereby the Union Pacific and the federal government will operate "safety first" trains over the Overland system during July and August. The itinerary, however, has not been lined up yet.

On the trip the Union Pacific will supply the train and the government the exhibit. The movement, so far as the railroad is concerned, will be under the direction of President Calvin and General Manager Jeffers, while the government's end of the proposition will be directed by Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior. To handle the government's exhibit will require a train of twelve cars. There will be nine coaches, a sleeper, a diner and a baggage car. They will be of all-steel construction.

The exhibit will be made up from the Treasury, War, Navy, Interior, Agriculture, Interstate Commerce and Red Cross Society departments.

Experts to Explain Things.

At stations where the train stops, instructions will be given employees by government experts. For instance, the experts of the Interstate Commerce department will exhibit various designs of hand brakes, couplers, slippers, ladders, hand holds, running boards, etc. A locomotive boiler under steam, with glass openings, will illustrate the circulation of water under working conditions. What will be true of the exhibit of this department will be equally true of other departments of the exhibit. The purpose of the exhibit is to instruct employees just what to do in cases of emergency.

At the present time the government exhibit is being run over the Baltimore & Ohio, where instructions are being given to the employees of that road.

TODAY'S BEAUTY TALK

You can make a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist a package of canthox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and rub briskly. This creates an abundance of thick, white lather that thoroughly dissolves and removes the dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly, with a stiffness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.—Advertisement.
