Girls Guests at a '

A trip to the Elysian fields, aliat Council Bluffs Rowing Association club, was the picnic given local cigar saleswomen Tuesday by William O. Harrison of the McCord-Brady com-

Harrison of the McCord-Brady com-pany. Thirty-five white clad young women, each armed with a bouquet of flowers and a two-pound box of candy, which the irresistible Mr. Har-rison had presented, made the start from the Paxton hotel at 1 o'clock. See if you can add anything to the perfectly heavenly program arranged for the day by this host: Automobile rides both to and from the Council Blufts club; boating, bathing, roller coasting, a four-course dinner at 5 o'clock, and an invitation for each young woman's best beau to come over to t1 - club in the evening for the dancing, to say nothing of secur-ing the consent of each employer to grant the girls a half-holiday for the day.

Mrs. W. O. Harrison and Mrs. A.

Mrs. W. O. Harrison and Mrs. A. E. Burnett chaperoned the party, which included: Misses Parey, Jose-phine Jacobs, Mayme Rubesh, Ada-ine Stark, Zoe Niest, Agnes Kauf-man, Frances Russell, Daisy Pearson, Olga Jones, Margaret McAvoy, Ella Markles, Ada Beck, Alla Hauser, Jane Simpson, Ida Francis, Lillie Edwards, Alta Hanson, Emma Jensen, Anna Washington, Nora McCarthy, Mary Murphy, Alice Larson, Bernadette Hague, Minnette Lohrman, Hattie Schnell, Emily Conner, Myrtle Evans, Peggie Meehan, Annette Kay and Mary Kusek.

Reports of the committee in charge of the "Bird Masque," presented at the dedication of Fontenelle forest, June 17, were made at an enthusiastic meeting of the Nebraska Audubon so-ciety at the Omaha Public library Monday evening

ciety at the Omaha Public library Monday evening. The net proceeds of the masque were over $400, which places the so-ciety on a firm financial basis. At the meeting Monday evening resolutions of thanks to Thomas F. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Baxter, the press and others giving valuable assistance, were adopted. It was also unanimously agreed that the good work for the birds will be car-ried on by the society. The society decided to extend, through the press, a cordial invita-

The society decided to extend, through the press, a cordial invita-tion to join the association, which can be done by sending §1 a year to any of the following officers of the society: Dr. S. R. Towne, president; Miss Joy Higgins, secretary; John R. Ringwalt, treasurer. With the idea of instilling a love of birds among the children, the junior memberships have been fixed at 10 cents.

No Show at the Den

Next Monday Night

Ak-Sar-Ben's den talent and work-ing crew will have a good long rest all this week, and all of next, since there is to be no show and initiation at the den Monday night. This will be the first time for many moons that Samson has missed a show on Mon-day night during the season. This will be the evening before July 4, and so many will be either out of town or planning big éclebrations for the next day that it was thought best not to show on that night. The following week, however, July 90, Samson is to entertain a big dele-gation of hotel men from a dozen states and the veterinarians from the Missouri valley.

Monthly Evening Meeting

Ut notarians rostputed The regular monthly night meeting and dinner of the Omaha Rotary club, which was to have been held this week, has been postponed until the second week in July, and at which time will take the form of a field day at one of the country clubs. Instead a noonday meeting and luncheon is to be held tomorrow at the Henshaw rathskellar.

Who knows?' sez I, and, as everyone had run down below to see the fight, I slipped into the room and grabbed 'em and skipped down the after com-panionway, hidin' 'em under my jacket. By that time everyone in the kitchen had run to the front o' the house to see the fight, so no one seen me go out. I hurried round to the front, thinkin' the lootenant might've been hurt in the scrap, and peeked into that glass place where the flow-ers are. There was a crowd round him and as he wuz a sittin' up talkin' I made up my mind he couldn't be hurt very bad, so I lighted out for the hotel with the books, knowing that you'd be glad to se 'em.'' During this amazing recital Hope and Cleo had been anxiously poring through the volumes thus miraculous-ly recovered. Now Hope looked up. "You're a wonder as a sleuth.
