Another newspaperman who is leaving his little printing office to take up the life of a soldier is Captain Joe Leedom of Gordon. Captain Leedom is leaving behind him a little wife and a girl 4 years of age. Perhaps it did not take courage for the little woman to say, when the call came, "Joe, you are at the head of the company, you must stay with the boys and go with them wherever their country calls." Yet this is just what Mrs. Leedom said when her husband went home that night and told her the order had come, and asked if she wanted him fo go.

Carranza Press Agents Busy.

State department officials took formal notice today of the activities in the United States of agents of the Carranza bureau of information. Reports as to conditions and international relations are telegraphed from Mexico City to the United States by the bureau for publication. Officials suggested that the American press should scrutinize these reports carefully before using them.

The Mexican embassy has not even been notified by Carranza of the receipt of the American note. Mr. Arzedondo said he had not heard from his government since he communicated the inquiry of six South and Central American republics in regard to offers of mediation.

Two Sons and Two Sons-in-Law in the National Guard

Shenandoah, Ia., June 27.—(Special.)—Among the mothers who saw their sons entrain with Company E was one who gave two sons and two sons-in-law to the army. She was surrounded by her two daughters, Mrs. Ben Nealy, jr., and Mrs. Elmer Wilbur, who watched their husbands leave with the brothers, Odie V. Knight and Grover Knight.

Mrs. George Smith fainted when the special bearing the soldiers pulled away from the station. She is the mother of Warren Smith, a youth who was married to Miss Mabel Cutler, a high school student, in the spring.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 people gathered at the Burlington station to see the National Guard leave at 6;40 o'clock Sunday morning. An address was made by E. R. Ferguson, attorded to the spring.

Take the armory by the Commercial club and a supper and dance at the Knights and Ladies of Security hall were among the affairs planned in their honor.

Arrested at Nogales

Nogales, Ariz., June 27.—A heavily armed fillbustering expedition, organized to cross the line at Sasabe, and bring back an outomobile seized by the Mexican authorities was broken up here last night by the military authorities. Eighteen men, all carrying revolvers or automatic pistols and moat of them rifles or shorguns, were quietty leaving cown in six automobiles when a squad of infantry barred the road.

Colonel W. H. Sage, commanding, warned the men that a raid into Mexico would be the signal for retaliatory moves by Mexicans that would endanger Americans along the entire Arizona border. He said he would have them arrested by United States cavalry at Arivaca if they approached Sasabe sarmed, and would turn them over for prosecution on a charge of breach of neutrality.

The automobile seized by the Mexicans belongs to J. C. Clsy, who arrived here via Sasabe, Sunday, after an exciting three days trip from Hermosillo. Sasabe is about seventy-five miles west of Nogales.

Bids Are Opened.

Bids were opened here today for 73,000 animals, including 20,000 draft and pack mules and 53,000 cavalry and artilery mounts. The total cost will be more than $10,000,000.

It is deemed probable that when the final disposition is made of the National Guard troops a censorship on troop movements will be established. At present many of the guardsmen are being sent to the main base camps, but it is improbable that these points represent the ends of the journey to the border.

Word was received at headquarters today that a force of 1,500 Mexican troops had arrived opposite Naco, Ariz., and were being held in trains at that point. General Funston said the American officers were confident that they knew the object of the movement and that plans had been carried out to counter it.
