MARSHALL'S HOMER NETS HOME VICTORY

Catcher Robert Poles Ball Over Wall for Two Runs With Rourkes One Behind.

ALSO MAKES TWO SCORES

Robert Marshall, who is doing all of the catching for the de luxe Rourklets these days while Ernie Kreuger convalesces in the hospital where there are a lot of pretty nurses, combed a home run over the right field wall yesterday afternoon. A few minutes later obsequities were held over a gent named Isbell and a flock of athletes from Des Moines.

Marshall's circuit clout came in a pinch in the eighth inning and gave the Rourkes the fray by the narrow margin of 6 to 5. The victory made it four out of five on the series from Des Moines and six out of nine on the entire home series.

When Robert cracked the homer things were looking pretty sad for the home guard. It was the eighth frame and the despised Boosters were leading 5 to 4. Burg and Shag Thompson had gone out. But Miller walked. And then Marshall hove into view. Bang. The fans felt a fluttering of the heart and a tingling of the spine. They saw the pill float merrily over the right field fence while Noodles Hahn turned his gloomy orbs upward and got ready to pay off.

Makes Two Other Hits.

The home run was not the only contribution Mr. Marshall made to the Rourke victory. He made two other hits, one of which sent a run home, and the other gave him a chance to circle the paths on subsequent drives by his playmates.

Kewpie Kilduff tried to swipe some of the honors from Marshall and succeeded pretty well. Kewpie played a bang-up game at short that brought the stands to cheers several times.

The Rourkes blow the village today, starting a brief road trip at Sioux City tomorrow. They come home July 6 for a run of eighteen games.

Bears Shut Out by Wolves of Wichita

Wichita, Kan., June 27.—Davis, pitching for Wichita, held Denver to five scattered hits, while his team mates clouted out eleven safe hits and coupled with twelve passes issued by the Grizzlies' pitchers, easily shut out the visitors and won, 8 to 0. The same teams will play a third game tomorrow. Score:
