

SOCIETY TURNS OUT FOR THE BIG 'RASSLE'

Stunning Sports Clothes Add a Feminine Touch to Crowd in the Boxes.

CHEER THEIR FAVORITES

By MELLIFICIA—July 5.

Gone is the day when wrestling matches are solely a thing of the men's world. Women of society, maid and matron alike, donned their most stunning clothes yesterday and accompanied their husbands and brothers to the sporting event.

They were great fans at that, too. They rooted and cheered for their favorite here, mostly Stecher, and Mrs. Will Schnorr, formerly Miss Harriet Metz, was observed excitedly waving her hands and admonishing the gladiators to "wrestle!" Mrs. Schnorr's sport suit of old rose silk, trimmed with fur, was the envy of all her fair beholders.

The Schnorrs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Metz and Mr. Fred Metz, occupied a ringside box.

The Howard Baldrides and their son, Malcolm, who is a friend of the Kentuckian, Ed Lewis, whom he met in the east, shared their loyalty for the Dodge county pride.

Mrs. Luther Kountze, the Charles T. Kountzes, "Spike" Kennedy and the Dick Stewarts were in a box together, while Mrs. Ben Gallagher, Mrs. Paul Gallagher and Mrs. Barton Millard made up another party with the men of their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopewell of Tekamah, Miss Alice Jaquith, Miss Clare Helene Woodard, Mrs. J. A. C. Kennedy, the E. L. Spragues, A. I. Roods, D. C. Bradfords, A. V. Kinners, the new postmaster and Mrs. Charles E. Fanning, Dr. and Mrs. Adolph Sachs, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kitchen and Mr. and Mrs. Lem Hill were just a few of the ringside spectators.

At the Country Club. Miss Mary Megath, Mrs. Windsor Megath and Miss Megath's guest, Miss Sarah Perkins of Memphis, Tenn., were the guests of Miss Isabel Vinsonhale at luncheon at the Country club today.

Guyer-Trebilcock Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. William Kenneth Guyer and Miss Frances Trebilcock came as a great surprise to their many friends. The ceremony was performed last Friday night at the parsonage of the Walnut Hill Methodist church, the Rev. Oliver M. Keve officiating.

Luncheon at the Boat Club.

Miss Angela Shugart of Council Bluffs entertained at luncheon at the Council Bluffs Bowling association today in honor of the house guests of the Misses Dorothy and Marion Welker. The young women planned to enjoy the bathing at the beach. Miss Madeline Moore of Chicago, who is the guest of Miss Margaret Groneweg of Council Bluffs, was another guest. Those present were:

At Happy Hollow Club.

Mrs. C. R. Sherman will have twelve guests at luncheon tomorrow. Mrs. E. H. Luikhart entertained at luncheon today for eight guests. The regular dinner-dance at Happy Hollow club attracted 135 members last evening. The unwearied women of the Happy Hollow Bowling club, twenty in number, spent the morning bowling and had luncheon today.

Fairfield, chairman of the city central suffrage committee, has issued a call for an important suffrage meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. There will be several speakers and matters of importance to the suffrage movement in Nebraska will be discussed.

Women Say

Blouse stock is still in good shape, and what a world of blouses we have sold. Do you know our New Woman—we mean our new buyer. Not a day (except Sunday) but someone remarks on her taste and splendid selections. More than once someone has said something commendatory. On Sunday even—an excusable wordly wisdom.

$2.50 and $4.50 and—well, let the values speak for themselves. Of course, as usual, values had to meet, let alone beat.

Wash and Silk Waists for Girls—Not always easy to get—two lots—98c and $1.95.

Thursday starts the second day of this "SO DIFFERENT SALE" Merchandise Different—Manners Different—Methods Different. We would impress upon all buyers of Dry Goods the fact that the mere statement: "IT'S AT KILPATRICK'S," means all of these things, in every way.

"So Different"

When one is tired out celebrating is not the time to digest a lot of details, so on the GLORIOUS 4TH we limited ourselves to the bare announcement of the starting of THE Sale, notice the emphasis on the THE—Sounds a little egotistical, don't it? The intelligent, discriminating buyer knows all this. We are blowing our horn for the benefit of the vast number of New Comers—and those who know themselves not to be judges of GOOD GOODS.

Wash Skirts for girls of all ages—98c, $1.98 and $2.98.

The stock of Straw Hats, in three lots for quick action—50c, $1.00 and $2.00. Some sold as high as $7.50.

Gingham Dresses for Girls

Not many materials so practical as a gingham. Scores of prudent mothers will buy school dresses for daughter at this sale. Don't you know after the Fourth time flies quickly for the vacationist and before you know it school needs must be provided for. Preparedness is worth while here also. Three lots of dresses at 69c, 98c and $1.29.

Chambray Bloomers—39c.

Boys' Wash Suits

On a hot summer day if there is anything which makes us wish we could turn Time's wheel backward it is the sight of a little boy with nothing on but a little shirt and a wash suit, short socks and sandals. There's comfort for ye! Let us fit out your boy of 2 to 5 years—39c, 98c and $1.98 per suit.

Muslin Underwear for Children

It matters not to us NOW what former prices were on the left over. Tra-la-lee-good-bye-farewell to Princess Slips, Drawers, Petticoats, Gowns, etc., many that were a dollar will go Thursday at 39 cents each.

THE LITTLE INFANT is the most appealing in torrid weather, unable to chose for itself or tell its needs. We must act for it. Here we are helpful: White Dresses, 6 months to 6 years, 69c and $1.59. Hundreds of Long and Short, sold to $12.50 at 1/2 Price.

Hoods, 50c, 75c and $1.25, all worth more. Machine made Dresses, 49c, 79c, $1.59. Flannel Skirts were up to $2.50, at $1.95 and 65c. Pillow Cases, embroidered, 49c and 98c. Moccasins, 29c. Trinkets and Playthings for his babykins bunched in lots of 39c and 79c.

Muslin Underwear for Women

June was a wonderful month for business in this department. The fortunate special purchases brought us such great values that it made easy selling as well as easy sailing. Now for the clean-up. Read the lists of down-and-outs.

Down to 59c and out go Night Gowns, Petticoats, Brassieres, Corset Covers, Drawers, Combinations. Sold up to $1.25.

Down to 98c and out go Petticoats, Princess Slips, Drawer Combinations, Skirt Combinations, Night Gowns, Short Skirts. Sold up to $3.00.

And Now Comes Justification for a Watchful, Waiting Policy

Sometimes you miss it. Then, again you hit it. This time a bull's eye. THIS PERTAINS TO WASH DRESS GOODS. Somebody bit off more than they could chew. Cool weather caused accumulations and small sales. Whether from our own stock or late fortunate purchases, you get the benefit. Sheer summer fabrics, stripes and flowers, many were 85c, Thursday, 19c a yard.

A Great Collection

of finer materials, some part silk, some thin, other thicker or heavier, colors good, patterns your kind. Most of these were 50c, Thursday 29c a yard. The FINEST MATERIALS, imported, embroidered, etc. Retailing in the usual way at $1.00 to $3.00 per yard. One last farewell, 69c.

Women's Knit Summer Underwear

The Union Suit is the proper thing. We have to carry vests and pants, for there are still some old-fashioned folks who cling to these as some men do to the Wellington boot. You will want Union Suits, not one or two, but several. On Thursday we will show two numbers at 39c each; 5 numbers at 59c each; 4 numbers at 69c each; 6 numbers at 89c each. And a real jim dandy—6 of them—indeed at $1.19 each. These are from our regular stock. Dependable, fit right and finished right. In the collection are garments which sold at $1.75.

Women's Hosiery

We are not quite sure that we act wisely in letting go of our big stock at reduced prices. If the confounded foolishness of the war lords continues perhaps we can replace, perhaps not. The important thing is hundreds look to us for reductions, however, and these we must not disappoint.

At 25c per pair—3 numbers, cotton and lisle fashioned, somewhat size broken, all old dyes. Note this last.

At 79c per pair—A group of $1.00 silks. Blacks, whites and fancies, including Onyx and other well-known brands.

At $1.19 for blacks, whites and practically a complete line of shades. What has always been a $1.50 Ingram stocking.

Four Numbers in Silks will Cause Enough

Silk Excitement for One Day

We are not going to say much about these lots—we don't have to. You won't do justice to yourself if you don't look.

Tub Silks—36-inch, striped, 69c instead of 85c. 36-inch fancies, stripes and plaids; these are taffetas; sold up to $1.75, at 98c per yard.

Sport stripe Pongee. Regular price $1.50, at 98c per yard; 36 inches wide.

40-Inch All-Silk Crepe de Chine—79c instead of $1.50.

There is no reason on earth why we should cut the prices on these silks except to keep absolute faith with you. You expect a general cut at these KILPATRICK SALES.

We Human Bipedes Are Funny Critters

We remember a parasol salesman who used to take our orders when the snow was on the ground. He used to march into our store, throw his coat open and mop his forehead, all as part of the play, to get us into the buying humor. We all do about the same. We place parasols on sale while the furnace is still eating up the coal and while we wear furs and overcoats. But that's the way of the world and it's no use kicking against the pricks. We now are going to close out all our parasols at a sacrifice, just when the Real Parasol Weather Commences. FIVE LOTS. $4.98 Each—Sold from $5.75 up to $12.00. $3.29 Each—Sold from $3.75 to $5.50. $1.98 Each—Sold from $2.50 to $3.50. $1.29 Each—Sold from $1.75 to $2.25. 79c Each—Sold from $1.00 to $1.35.
