NECKTIES NOT PART OF GUARD UNIFORM

Officer Strips One From Man Ranks and Throws It on Ground.

PEACE TALK NOT RELISHED

Lincoln, July 5.—(Special.)—Neckties are not a part of the uniform of a Nebraska soldier and cannot be worn in connection with the uniform. This has been discovered by several young soldiers who have persisted in this adornment contrary to military usage.

The first real mystery of the camp was disclosed this morning when a uniform and equipment were found lying under a railroad viaduct near town. There was no one inside the uniform and it is supposed that some soldier did not relish the idea of leaving home and has deserted.

Colonel George F. Hunter, who is here inspecting the Nebraska troops, says Nebraska boys show up well for state militia, but lacking in that essential feature which is necessary to the man who expects to engage in a campaign mixed with the hardships of a climate like Mexico.

Morton of Cheney Heads the Carriers

Hastings, Neb., July 5.—(Special Telegram.)—C. C. Morton of Cheney was elected president of the Nebraska Rural Letter Carriers' association at the closing session of the state convention last night.

Grand Island was given the 4917 convention, with Fremont only one vote behind for the honor.

The following will represent Nebraska at the annual convention at Chicago this summer: C. W. Tumbler, Wymore, delegate-at-large; R. H. Stewart, Sutton; Chris Johnson, Newman Grove; N. W. Coleman, Hastings.
