Democrat Fakers Much Too Coarse In Seeing Things

recent meeting of the republican state committee was dominated by Victor Rosewater—the one behind the Hugires movement in this state, etc."

The lamp post interview attempts to show that one un-named committee man went home from the meeting because he thought Mr. Rosewater "dominated the meeting," when the faker knew that Mr. Rosewater was not at the meeting at all, though present in Lincoln during the day, on postponement until evening to allow members of the committee to get to the meeting who had been delayed by a washout on the Northwestern railroad, Mr. Rosewater, R. B. Howell and others returned to Omaha and were not here when the session of the committee was held. If the disgruntled committeeman, conjured up by the domecratte news manager, was really disgruntled, nobody heard anything about it at the time, nor until now, more than two weeks after the thing about it at the time, nor until now, more than two weeks after the

Auto Thief Arrested Near Plattsmouth

Near Plattsmouth, Neb., July 6.—(Special.)—Calvin Gray, a young man from western Kansas, wso has been working on the farm of Dean Austin, near Union, was arrested on the charge of stealing an automobile at Sabetha, Kan. Gray who came to the Austin farm a few days ago, kept the automobile near him all the time and as it had no number, his actions aroused suspicion, the sheriff was notified and with the county attorney visited the young man, who fessed up, and he with the machine was brought to Plattsmouth, where he was placed in the county jail. The authorities at Sabetha were notified and will be here soon to take man and car back to the sun-flower state.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, July 6.—(Special.)—Th Lincoln, July 6.—(Special.)—The State Railway commission has made an investigation of the train service on the Crete branch of the Missouri Pacific, which was complained of by the patrons of that branch, because of inability of passengers on the one train, a mixed affair, to tell when it was coming, where it was going, when it would start and when it would get there, and has ordered the receiver of the company to put on a train which will run so that passengers can make connections at

SECRECY PREVAILS AS TO TROOP TRAINS

Railroads Will Give Out No More Information as to Movements of Soldiers.

WAR DEPARTMENT ASKS IT

Railroad officials are not going to give any more information relative to the movement of troop trains. This decision has been brought about by reason of a circular received from the quartermaster general of the United States army. It applies in all parts of the United States.

of the United States.

Omaha railroad officials, both passenger and freight, are in receipt of the official circular, and under the promise of heavy penalties being applied, they are commanded to withhold from the public all information relative to the assembling of rolling stock for the movement of trains carrying troops munitions and govern. rying troops, munitions and govern-ment supplies. The officials are in-structed that they are not to give out information as to when such trains, will depart from or arrive at any stawill depart from or arrive at any sta-tion. Nor are they to inform any per-son of the destination of any train carrying soldiers, army supplies or munitions. The strictest secrecy is ordered. Moreover, all telegrams having to do with the movement of the trains are to be sent in code, this code having been furnished by the government.

Man Who Broke Jail Twice Again In Merrick Prison

Central City, Neb., July 6.—(Special.) After a prolonged absence of about six months, Edward Tague, afteged horse thief and forger, is again lodged in the county jail here. Tague was arrested near Palmer, Neb., Dec. 21, 1915, and held on the charge of stealing, a horse helouring Lincoln, July 6.—(Special.) Democrats find themselves in hard lines for some kind of an issue to spring on the voters to try and offset growing harmony between the former two factions in the republican party, but up to date have been unable to start a sweat on anybody but themselves.

The local correspondent of an Omaha democratic paper, presumably under instructions from the home office, finally ran up against a lamp post from which he learned that the recent meeting of the republican state committee was dominated by Wictor Rosewater—the one behind the Hugires movement in this state, etc., No more was heard of him until last

Notes from Beatrice And Gage County

Beatrice, Neb., July 6.—(Special.)

The city council of Wymore last evening held a meeting and called a special election for August 15 to vote $14,000 bonds for the construction of a sewer system in that city.

A party of young people who went to Riverside park in a large motor boat came near flaving serious trouble. Someone dropped a cigarette near the gasoline engine and in some manner the oil ignited and started a fire just as the picnic party stepped from the boat, which had to be sunk to extinguish the flames. The members of the party were obliged to hire automobiles to bring them to town.

Owing to the scarcity of harvest hands a number of farmers in Gage county have called upon their wives and daughters to drive the binder during the wheat cutting rush. The weather has been hot and dry the last week and the farmers are rushing the work of cutting in order to get the crop in shock before another rain work of cutting in order to get the crop in shock before another rain
