Fight to Reduce Jail-Feeding Cost To Come Up Again

The fight to reduce the cost of feeding Douglas county jail prisoners to a figure which does not permit a profit from the feeding is again to be brought up this fall, and a bill providing for the feeding of prisoners at cost will be presented to the legislature next winter.

City Planning Board To Meet Saturday

The city planning board will hold a regular session Saturday morning, when the Belt line elevation plan will be taken up again and disposed of. It is practically assured that the board will recommend to the city council the plan heretofore outlined, which contemplates elevation of tracks over Dodge, Douglas and Farnam streets at the present crossings.

Testimony Completed in Williams Separation Suit

All testimony has been completed in the separation suit of Mrs. Jeannette C. Williams against J. R. Williams. Attorneys for Williams have filed an answer to the original petition, in which they ask Judge Sears to rule that Mrs. Jeannette Williams has already been divorced from him, thus making Mrs. Caroline Neef Williams his legal wife.
