

Good Things for the Table---Offerings of the Market---Household Hints

Tested Recipes

Appetizing Hash.

One cup chopped meat, one tablespoon chopped sweet pepper, two tablespoons boiled rice or cold boiled vegetable, one cup shredded lettuce, one-half teaspoon salt, two tablespoons horseradish cream.
Method: Mix thoroughly and serve from dish garnished with lettuce. The very best veal may be substituted for the left-over meat.

Beaten Biscuit.

Eight cups of flour, one and a half teaspoons salt, twelve tablespoons pure lard, one cup water, one cup milk.
Method: Sift flour and salt into a basin, rub lard well in with finger tips, add the milk and water, gradually making a stiff dough. Turn out on a floured board. Beat continuously for thirty minutes with a rollingpin, folding over the dough as it is flattened out. Roll into a sheet about half an inch thick, cut out with small biscuit cutter, prick through with a fork three times near the center of the biscuit, and bake in a moderate oven for half an hour.

Grape Jelly.

Set contents of one box of gelatin to soak in one-half cup of lukewarm water for ten minutes. To one cup of boiling water add one pint of grape juice, 2 cups of sugar, juice of one lemon, and the dissolved gelatin. Stir until sugar is thoroughly dissolved. Strain and set aside to cool in moulds or glasses. A delicious jelly for garnishes or may be served with whipped cream or thin custard for dessert. For spiced jelly to serve with meats add a bag of mixed spices to two cups of boiling water, boil for twenty minutes. Remove spice and proceed as with plain jelly.

Cookies.

One-half cup high-grade oleomargarine, one cup sugar, one egg, one-half cup cream, one and three-fourths cups flour, one and a half teaspoons baking powder.

Method: Cream sugar and oleomargarine, add well beaten egg. Sift flour and baking powder together and add to the first mixture alternating with water and milk. Mix thick enough to take onto a floured board. Knead lightly till dough is smooth, roll one-half inch thick, cut with small cutter; lay on greased tin and bake in moderate oven.
