British Government Defends Abandoning London Declaration

London, July 15.—The British for-eign office has addressed a note to neutral governments explaining the reasens which prompted the abandon-ment of the declaration of London. The declaration was abrogated by an order in council published on July 8, and a similar decree was issued in Paris on the same day.

an order in council published on July 8, and a similar decree was issued in Paris on the same day.

The present British note explains that the entente allies adopted the declaration of London at the beginning of the war because, in their anxiety to conform to international law, they believed the declaration provided a suitable digest of principles and a compendium of working rules. The note says in part:

These rules did not necessarily possess the force of law, but seemed in main lines to present a statement of rights and duties of beligerants based on experience in previous naval wars. But, as the struggle proceeded it developed beyond all previous conceptions, owing to the manifold scientific improvements in warfare, and produced contitions altogether different to previous naval wars. It then became clear that the attempt made in times of peace, by the declaration of London, to determine the principles of law and their application, failed to produce a satisfactory result.

The allied governments, forced to recognize the situation thus created, therefore, seeded they must confine themselves simply to applying the historic and admitted rules of the laws of nations.

House Leaders Plan To Take Recess to Let Members Go Home

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Washington, July 15.—(Special Telegram.)—With the business of the house pretty well cleaned up, it has been proposed by the house leaders to take a recess for three days at a time until the senate catches up with the lower branch of a se appropriathe lower branch so far as appropria-tion bills are concerned and other matters of a general character which have been made party measures.

have been made party measures.

Should this agreement be reached Messrs. Stephens, Reavis, Shallenberger and Sloan will go to their districts for the purpose of inaugurating their congressional campaigns.

Mr. Lobeck would probably take advantage of the situation by slipping into Omaha some "dog day" morning to start activities, not already started, against Judge Ben Baker.

Judge Kinkaid probably would linger around for a while as his campaign is in good condition, many friends in the Sixth probably already having given "Uncle Mose" pledges of their heartiest support.

Hughes Picks Five Cities to Speak in Upon Western Tour

Bridgehampton, N. Y., July 15.—
Five of the twelve cities where Charles E. Hughes will deliver speeches on his transcontinental trip had been selected tentatively tonight. They are: Detroit, August 7; Chicago, probably August 8; St. Paul or Minneapolis, probably August 9 or 10; San Francisco and Los Angeles, with dates yet to be announced. Mr. Hughes said the only one of the five which had been finally determined upon was Detroit, where he will open his campaign. He thought it almost certain he would speak in Chicago and either St. Paul or Minneapolis.

The nominee devoted his working hours today to consideration of the
