Will the Allies' "Big Push" Drive the Germans Over the Rhine?

The big Allied offensive is in full swing, and according to the New York Evening Post, "we are not now watching an isolated attack like that of the Russians in East Prussia, or a costly but ineffectual stroke" like that of the English at Neuve Chapelle and Loos, but "a carefully studied and deliberately waited-for campaign of severe pressure upon Germany at each of her battle-fronts."

SAMSON GOVERNORS REGALE AT OUTING

As Guests of Charley Irwin They Eat in "Wild West" Mess Tent.

HOBNOB WITH COWBOYS

Talk about your impromptu outings. The board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben had such an outing at noon yesterday. They were guests of Charley Irwin at camp mess in the big mess tent at the wild west camp on the fair grounds, where several score of cowboys, cowgirls, Mexicans and Sioux Indians are encamped preparatory to entering the frontier event contests Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week.

Mrs. Charles Irwin was a fine hostess and buzzed around the tables in the big mess tent, seeing to it that everyone was provided for. Indians, cowboys, Mexicans and cowgirls all messed together in the big tent.

There was roast beef right from the range, and then there was ice cream from the finest ice cream factories in Omaha, and angel food cake from the classiest bakeries in Omaha.

Then some frontier exhibitions were given for the benefit of the governors. When a little Mexican led out a long-horned brindle steer, Gould Diets Performs.
