

PREVENTIVE HINTS FOR DREAD DISEASE

U. S. Public Health Service Reviews Infantile Paralysis Situation.

SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE

The United States public health service has the following to offer in the way of suggestions for the prevention of infantile paralysis:

To control the present epidemic of infantile paralysis the chain of infection between persons harboring germs of the disease and the well members of the community should be broken. Infantile paralysis is probably caused by a very minute organism found in the nasal, mouth and bowel discharges of those who have the disease or who are carriers of the germ without themselves suffering from the ailment.

Authorities' Duties

The actual control of the present epidemic must be left to the city, state and federal health authorities. These organizations will properly quarantine and care for affected persons, prescribe sanitary measures and limit as may be necessary the travel of individuals in order to protect neighboring districts from the infection.

Polymyositis is probably spread directly or indirectly, through the medium of infective secretions. Account therefore must be taken by communities of every means by which such secretions are disseminated. Precautions of expectation should be controlled. The common drinking cup affords a method for the interchange of material of this nature and should therefore be abolished.

Preventive Measures

Individual preventive measures may be thus summarized: Summon a physician at once and immediately notify the health officer of the presence of the disease. If the disease is present in the community, medical aid should be sought whenever a child is sick, no matter how light the illness; many cases of infantile paralysis begin with a slight indisposition.

FRENCH AVIATOR FLIES OVER BERLIN

Lieutenant Who Dropped Proclamations Into German Capital Captured.

TAKEN NEAR RUSS LINE

Paris, July 24.—Lieutenant Marchal of the French aviation corps last month left French soil and flew over the German capital, upon which he dropped proclamations, and then continued his flight, intending to land with the Russian lines. He was forced to descend, however, in Poland and was taken prisoner by the Germans.

The proclamations dropped by Lieutenant Marchal on Berlin stated that though it was possible, the aviator refrained from bombarding the open town and "thus kill the women and innocent children."

Official Story of Trip

The official communication given out today telling of Aviator Marchal's achievement, said "On June 20 at 9:30 o'clock in the evening, Sub-Lieutenant Marchal ascended at Nancy on board a Nieuport monoplane of a special type, taking with him a supply of fuel sufficient to last fourteen hours. His mission was to cross Germany at a low altitude in order to drop proclamations on the capital, Berlin, and then to descend in Russia."

This audacious flight was accomplished point by point, and after flying all night Lieutenant Marchal was compelled to descend at 8:30 o'clock in the morning of June 21 near Chem, Russian Poland, at least 100 kilometers (62 miles) from the Russian lines. He was made prisoner.

"The proclamation which Lieutenant Marchal dropped on Berlin began with the words

"We could bombard the open town of Berlin and thus kill the women and innocent children, but we are content to throw only the following proclamation," etc.

"Lieutenant Marchal was interned at Salzbach, whence he forwarded to France a postal card with these details:

"I was made prisoner at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 21st at Chem. The Austrian officers did not believe that I had accomplished my task, but the proof later arrived, and they were obliged to bow to the reality. "It was the failure of the spark plugs which stopped me, and I descended to change two of them and to start the motor again. Unfortunately it would have been necessary to change two more plugs, and at this moment I was taken prisoner. You may judge of my chagrin."

ASQUITH ASKS FOR TWO BILLIONS MORE

Latest Credit Requested Will Increase British War Debt to Fourteen Billion Dollars.

COST INCREASING DAILY

London, July 24.—Premier Asquith today asked the House of Commons for a vote of credit of £450,000,000. This vote is the largest asked by the government since the beginning of the war, and will bring the total voted this year to £1,050,000,000 and the total since the beginning of the war to £2,832,000,000 (approximately $14,160,000,000).

In moving the vote of credit the premier said the recent expenditure out of the vote of credit was approximately £5,000,000 daily. The £6,000,000 daily referred to by Reginald McKenna, the chancellor of the exchequer, represented all the outgoing, the premier said.

All the expenditure from April 1 to last Saturday was £559,000,000. Mr. Asquith said that the navy, army and munitions cost £379,000,000, the loans of Great Britain's allies £157,000,000 and food, supplies, railways, etc., £23,000,000.

The premier said he hoped the expenditure for the army and navy would not exceed the present level in the near future. The munitions cost remained stationary at the highest level yet reached, he added, and might increase.

War Summary

LONDON REPORTS important advantages gained by the British in their fight for Poitiers, the present focal point of their attack in the Somme region. A large portion of the town is now in British hands. General Sir Douglas Haig reports gains of ground near High wood and in the vicinity of Guillemont, on the British left flank. The repulse of German counter attacks between High wood and Guillemont is reported.

PARIS ANNOUNCES the continuance of bad weather along the French front, in the Somme region, and a cessation for the time being of active operations there.

PETROGRAD DISPATCHES say Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's forces in the Riga region have been driven back twelve miles. Petrograd also officially reports continued gains on the southern front, announcing that Russian forces have pushed back the Turks to within fifteen miles of Erzingan.

A TURKISH OFFICIAL communication announces the defeat of a British cavalry force east of Ruz.

A FRENCH AVIATOR, according to an official announcement in Paris, has flown across Germany and dropped proclamations in Berlin. Motor trouble forced the aviator to alight in Poland within sixty-two miles of his objective, the Russian lines. He was captured. He had flown 807 miles from Nancy, his starting point, entirely by night.

BRITISH CAPTURE PART OF POZIERES

Guillemont. In the neighborhood of Pozieres we secured important advantages in spite of the stubborn defense of the enemy, and a large portion of the village is now in our hands. Here we have captured two guns and sixty more prisoners."

Bad Weather Along Somme

Paris, July 24.—Bad weather prevailed along the Somme front in northern France and last night passed quietly with the French troops there, the war office announced today. In a raid near Vailly, north of the Aisne, German trenches were penetrated and some prisoners taken.

On the Verdun front, east of the Meuse, there were small local engagements, in the course of which the French took thirty prisoners, making the total taken prisoners during the last ten days in this district 800. Sublieutenant Chaput of the aviation corps brought down his eighth hostile aeroplane near Fresnes, in the Woivre region.
